

AUGUST CLEAN-UP SALE

Crowds came, crowds bought and crowds went home yesterday laden with worth-while savings. Our Clean-Up prices are making August the biggest month of the year for us. And this year Clean-Up prices mean more to you in helpful service than ever before. Yesterday's crowds approved our values and our prices. This is the time of year when every section of our store must discard all surplus stock. To do so means good goods for less, and in these high price times our August Clean-Up prices will be a real service to you. Don't wait till the choicest things are gone. Come early while choosing is at its best and buy a full year's supply of the good things we are offering.

Dresses

And when we say "final" we mean that the prices we have named are low enough to guarantee a complete disposal. There are no other duty robes and practically every summer style that had a vogue this season, a few silks are also included. There's a host of models to choose from in almost any color effect you may desire.

A BIG SALE OF BAKING DISHES FOR MONDAY

BE SURE AND ATTEND THE CASSEHOLE SALE ON MONDAY.

Monday we open up a rousing big sale on 250 Casseroles in our Bargain Shop—these baking dishes we have been fortunate enough to secure so low that we can place them with the buying public at a ridiculous, low price. They are all of heavy dark, unglazed "Chinaware," an earthenware practically indestructible, burned to a hardness of flint, glazed with a dark surface and tempered.

These dishes will be placed on sale Monday and offered until all are sold. This price is practically a "give away" price and they'll all go fast. Hurry and get yours.

THE AUGUST CLEAN-UP SALE IS SURE CLEANING US UP.

They are buying shoes by 2 to 4 pairs to the family. They are sure cleaning us out of silk skirts, dresses, and waists. They are taking the Outing Tannet Away by the arm loads. They are just simply wiping out our kitchen hardware section. They are all taking advantage of the special remnant sale. AND WHY NOT? Bargain Basement everyday prices will open your eyes at any time, so no wonder people flock to this shop when we attack the Clean-Up Prices.

Many Titled Persons On Passenger List Of Steamship France

NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 22.—The steamship France, which arrived from Havre yesterday, brought 1123 passengers and a number of notables among them. There was the Countess of Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills, here for a six weeks' visit; the Duchess of Roxburgh, who was Miss May Guellet; Prince Alliata di Monteleone, Chancellor of the Italian Embassy in Washington; Prince Andrea Boncompagni and his Princess, Count and Countess del Sera and Duchess de Clermont Tonnerre. Capt. Emil Paul Hendrick, Secretary of the Belgian war mission in this country, returned with his bride from their honeymoon. They were married at the Belgian legation in Washington and went abroad in June on the Belgian relief ship Elizabeth van Belle. The ship ran into an iceberg off Newfoundland and smashed in her prow but made her way safely across the Atlantic. Mme. Hendrick, who is known on the stage as Miss Tavia, will appear on the stage here this fall.

Miss Mistinguet, a dancer known in France as "the girl with the prettiest legs in Paris," who is said to have insured her legs for $100,000 against injury, came here "perhaps" to go on the American stage. Miss Mistinguet claims to be the originator of the Apache dance.

Jacques Charles, a producer of Paris who sets revues for the Casino de Paris, was on the ship and will direct her dancing "it" she goes on the stage here.

Irene Bordoni returned with her husband, E. Ray Goetz; Rita Gould came back after being a "Y" worker in France for two years, and another arrival of the stage was Miss Virginia Brooks.

Prof. Stephen Panaretoff, Bulgarian minister to Washington, returned from a hurried trip to Paris. General Pier-Louis Laverne of the French army also a passenger, on his way to Vladivostok.

Mrs. William Osa Roosevelt of Virginia, whose husband was a distant relative of the Roosevelts of Oyster Bay, brought back the ashes of her husband and her mother-in-law, both of whom died in Baden-Baden, the latter in April and the former last month.

The transport President Grant, which left Brest August 1, with 2879 officers and men, arrived at Pier 1, Hoboken, late yesterday afternoon. The wives of forty-nine soldiers and four children of soldiers were aboard the troopship.

Col. George A. Purinton, a former cavalry officer, who served eighteen months with the Motor Transport Corps of the Army Corps, commanded the troop abroad. Col. Purinton was accompanied by his wife. Their home is in Burlington, Vt.

Among the other passengers was Miss Ethel Lipman, a member of the Jewish Welfare Board, who has been on duty with the 1st Division. Miss Lipman lives at Woodbine, N. J.

Richard V. Oulahan, correspondent for the New York Times, also was a passenger.

The transport Cape Finisterre arrived yesterday from Brest, with 2,153 soldiers, 95 wives of sailors and 18 wives of soldiers, and 21 babies. Because of the unusual number of youngsters, Commander F. E. McCrory held a baby show, at which prizes were given for the most beautiful and best behaved infants.

Both prizes in the two-year-old class were won by Helen Cox, daughter of Aral Cox, a sailor, who comes from Kansas. The prize child over two years old was Eldredge Hathaway, the four-year-old son of Vice Consul Charles Hathaway, at Queens-town, who lives in Cleveland.
