

WILSON IS GIVEN TREMENDOUS OVATION WHEN TERRITORY BITTER OPPONENT IS INVITED

Uproar When Speaker Steps Onto Kansas City Platform Rivals Greeting at St. Louis, Thousands Wave Flags.

PRESIDENT CHALLENGES OPPONENTS TO SUGGEST

Boycott Feature of League's Prevention of War is Dwelt Upon; Wilson's Speech Heard in Deep Silence.

BY HUGH BAILLIE. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) KANSAS CITY, Sept. 6.—Entering real "enemy territory," the home of Senator Reed, one of the bitterest opponents of the league of nations, President Wilson today received a tremendous ovation when he stepped to the platform here to make an appeal for ratification of the treaty for peace.

Practically everyone of the thousands in the crowded hall carried a small flag. Flourishing with every outbreak of cheering, they made a vivid spectacle.

The president went into a detailed explanation of the league of nations' powers to prevent war, dwelling on the boycott feature by which offending nations might be isolated. He was heard for the most part in deep intense silence with occasional brief periods of handclapping.

He said one of the purposes of the treaty is to destroy autocratic authority everywhere in the world.

Wilson declared war included the German people as well as all other peoples. He called Russia an example of minority rule and denounced the "group of men, crueler than the czar himself," who control that country.

Treaty opponents who view the document with "haunted eyes" and who are against it because they have some "private political purpose" will "be gibbeted and they will regret that the gibbet is so high," Wilson told the big crowd here.

More Negation Bolshevism. He reiterated that it is a case of "put up or shut up," and that opposition will have to produce something better than the league of nations or step aside. He asserted that mere negation without offering anything constructive to replace the treaty is bolshevism.

Wilson said the Philippine islands will get their independence under the league.

American Spirit Won. There was great applause when the president proclaimed that through the treaty "American spirit had made a conquest of the world." "The war was won by American spirit," he cried. "If the treaty is beaten those responsible will have a life long reckoning with the fighting forces of the United States."

CLERKS' PETITION ASKS NEW SCALE OF HOURS

Retail clerks in Pendleton today started the circulation of petitions and agreements among the various store keepers which, if adopted, will change the working hours slightly. The new scale of hours and the new working conditions are to take effect October 1 and so far today no opposition had been met with.

Instead of opening at 7:30 in the mornings as at present, the clerks would have local places of business open at 8 o'clock. The daily closing time, as at present, would be 6 o'clock. Thus a 9 hour day would be in effect. Instead of remaining open until 9 or 10 Saturday evenings the clerks ask an 8:30 closing hour.

The younger Sharkey is four years old, but oh, what an active boy for one so young! They used to offer $100 to anyone who could ride Sharkey, senior, 10 seconds, and the young son of the famous bull bids fair to emulate his sire's reputation.

IT WAS "SIX BELOW" WHERE J. DE WILDE WENT TO "SUMMER"

"It was 6 below zero where I was Wednesday night," J. De Wilde said today. "It was cold and snowing like a blizzard. Mount Adams is in a beautiful but unusual region." The natural caves which abound near the mountain were a great source of curiosity, inasmuch as they were so plentiful yet were not visible until one came right upon them, Mr. DeWilde said. Some were ice filled and some were called wind caves. He spent several days in that vicinity, returning to Pendleton yesterday.

CHINESE ISSUE ENTERS STRONGLY INTO CONTROVERSY THAT STARTED PICKETING

Picketing Unfair, Says Restaurant Owner, Not Notified of Any Demands by Union; Bakery Unionized.

Picketing of the French restaurant by union men and women is unfair discrimination and "spite work," according to the statement today of Otto Hohbach, part owner of the restaurant. Mr. Hohbach asserts that the union demands that the restaurant be signed up at once, while he says two weeks' time was extended other restaurants employing help under similar conditions.

"If the whole affair centers around the Chinese cook, Ah Jim, who had trouble with one of the waitresses recently, we can replace him," Mr. Hohbach stated. "We have not been notified of the union's demands, however, and will not be forced into signing the card unless given equal opportunity with other local eating houses employing Chinese cooks and the open shop principle. Our wages and hours are the same as the unions ask."

"My bakery is 100 per cent union," he continued. In this statement he was backed by the three bakers employed there and by a certificate of agreement with the Bakers' and Confectioners' Union, No. 111, of Portland. "This is the only union bakery in Pendleton," he and his bakers said.

Mr. Hohbach and Ernest Hohbach who manages the restaurant, both declared that the union was discriminating against them in picketing the place and asking immediate compliance with their demands. They maintained that Pendleton is an "open shop" town and that they would be willing to use all white cooks and union help when they had assurance that they would be kept supplied with satisfactory help.

Smeltz killed a 400 pound full grown black bear while Snyder was content with two cubs, one a 70-pound brown one and the other a 100 pound black bear.

The big Bruin fell before an onslaught from a shotgun, while the two cubs were killed with a .25 Remington. The skins of the animals are unusually fine and will be used for rugs. Others in the hunting party were Ben Cresswell and Oscar Dunn, and all members report that game is plentiful in the Meacham region.

James Hayes, who has been in the hop business here for many years, says it will cost 10 cents a pound to harvest them.

JUSTICE FOR WORKING PEOPLE DEMANDS, SAYS SECRETARY OF UNION; SAYS NO DISCRIMINATION IS BEING SHOWN.

The cooks and waiters are demanding recognition of local eating houses to insure uniform hours and working conditions and to give employment first to Americans. The foregoing is the statement of H. C. Hearing, secretary of the union cook in a local restaurant.

"We ask only justice to our working people," Mr. Hearing said. "The girls picketing before the restaurant are doing so in protest against working for, or with, Chinese cooks and restaurant owners, with long hours and a wage too low for decent living. We have not picketed other houses because they have assured us they will sign our agreement at once. We did not offer them two weeks in which to comply."

Mr. Hearing and another member of the union tried to present their demands to Ernest Hohbach, manager of the French restaurant, the union secretary said today, but Mr. Hohbach would not listen to them. Mr. Hearing said that Mr. Hohbach's only offer was to hire white union cooks and place them under bond to work for six months or a year. Mr. Hearing did not understand Mr. Hohbach to mean that the union should give bond, he said.

"Hohbach's bakery is fair to the bakers union but not to organized labor," Mr. Hearing explained. "So long as a man runs one union shop and one non-union shop, neither is fair. There is no discrimination in the picketing of the restaurant, for if union goods are sold from a non-union shop, they, too, are unfair to organized labor."

When asked why pickets had not been placed in front of other eating houses, Mr. Hearing said that one handling confectioneries and soft drinks, was not classed as a strictly eating house. The restaurant in question had given promise of immediate compliance, he said, while the hotel dining room had also made a satisfactory arrangement.

SHARP TURN ELIMINATED

A settlement satisfactory to the state, the county and the citizens of Weston, Oregon, was effected by Highway Commissioner W. L. Thompson, who is here from Portland for the week end. The route selected by the commission's engineers at first is pronounced less satisfactory than that desired by some of the Westerners and eliminates a sharp turn in entering the city. Splendid cooperation has been received from some of the Weston people. Mr. Thompson says and there is every indication that other property owners will see the benefit from falling in line with the desire of the majority.

Before leaving for the east end, the commissioners conferred with Mr. Thompson regarding the roads at which the state and county are cooperating. The route of the trip is expected to be a settlement of a number of right of way disputes so that the grading and paving between Athena and Milton will not be delayed unnecessarily.

COUNTING NOSES ON IN CONGRESS AS FIGHT GROWS

Effort Tense to Determine Voting Strength in Treaty Battle as Opponents Effect Plans for Trailing Wilson.

IRRECONCILABLES OPEN CAMPAIGN ON TUESDAY

Twenty Democrats for Limitations, 27 for Unqualified Ratification; Reservationists Trying to Compromise.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—With senatorial opponents of the treaty and league of nations planning a tour over the ground being covered by President Wilson, leaders of various senate factions are "counting noses" in an effort to determine their voting strength. A leading Democratic senator today declared 20 Democrats will vote for reservations to the treaty, with 27 voting for unqualified ratification. "Mild reservationists" and the Lodge group are trying to compromise their differences over the wording of reservations in article 10 in the league covenant, which now is the real issue among those favoring reservations.

LODGE'S PROPOSAL

Lodge's proposal, which foreign relations committee adopted, is for a reservation which assumes that the United States will stay out of foreign wars over territorial invasions except on most extreme provocations. "Mild reservationists" would allow the United States to go to war if it is a plain case of unlawful aggression. Both proposals leave the United States free to decide through congress.

LAUNCH FOR TODAY

"Battalion of Death," as the great irreconcilables to the treaty is known, plans to use the time which the two reservation groups will consume in compromising their differences in trailing the president. Senators Borah, Johnson and McCormick will launch the tour Wednesday at Chicago, extending it through the middle west and west.
