FORMER GIANTS NOW HELPING RIVAL CLUBS

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A popular pastime at the end of any baseball season is to comb over the teams in the National League and point out what former Giants did in the way of helping out rival clubs.

Small chance to overlook any club in this kind of a summing up. Every club in the league, with one lone exception, is burdened with ex-New Yorkers. A pennant could fall to any of them and not escape the sympathy of the statistic fiend who figures how much the former Giant had to do with the victory.

On the Cincinnati club are Heinie Grob, Eddie Rousch, Bill Bariden and Slim Sallee.

Boston has on its payroll Hank Gowdy, Dick Rudolph, Cecil Casney, Arthur Wilson and Walter Holke. John Paul Jones is due to report there after the International league season.

Ferd Schupp, Milton Stock and Leon Ames are former Giants now with the Cardinals.

The Cubs have Fred Merkle and Elvie Robertson.

With the Phillies are Gene Paulette, George Smith, Eddie Sicking and Jack Adams.

The Dodgers have Ernie Krueger, Rube Marquard.

But also take a look at the Giant lineup.

Hal Chase was originally a Yankee, and has gone through the mills of the White Sox, Buffalo Federals and Cincinnati Reds.

Larry Doyle, Frank Frisch and Al Baird, second basemen, all are of the McGraw school, as is Arthur Fletcher, shortstop.

Holms Zimmerman is a New York product, but played his first big baseball under Frank Chance with the Cubs.

George Burns and Ross Young of the outfield are of the Giants originally, but Benny Kauff played with the Indianapolis American association club and with the Federal league club of the same city.

Frank Snyder came from St. Louis, and Miguel Gonzalez started with Cincinnati. Lew McCarty came from the Dodgers. Earl Smith is doing his first year in the majors as a Giant.

Rube Denton came from Cincinnati. Arthur Nehf emigrated from Boston. Jess Barnes also deserted the Braves. Poll Perritt was a Cardinal. Jean Dubuc came from Detroit. Phil Douglas was sold by the Cubs.

A Bit of Advice from the Best Posted Man in the Northwest

Meet him, you truck operators—Harvey Scofield, of the Savage-Scofield Co., makers of building supplies, Tacoma.

Mr. Scofield brought into service one of the first trucks to appear in the Northwest—today he has a large fleet.

He, likewise, introduced a splendid truck cost system.

This self-same cost system has found for him the maximum in economies—as to tires, it has proved that Goodrich De Luxe Truck Tires give greater satisfaction and lower operating cost than any other make.

De Luxe Tires today are standard equipment on his trucks. If you'll take his advice, put them on yours—then keep a record of them.

FALL HATS OF SILK.

The appearance of the silk and satin hat is to the city woman as sure a sign of approaching autumn as the song of the cicada is to the country dweller—both indicate something like "six weeks till frost." Here is one of the "first hats" for autumn—a chic blue, taffeta sailor braided in silk, soutache.
