PIONEERS WILL GATHER.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Sept. 6.—A reunion of pioneers of this section will be a feature of the fall fair here, according to announcements made by Secretary Seaborg of the fair association. More than 1000 invitations have been sent to the real pioneers of the section, and to former residents of prominence, and indications are that the number of early settlers who will gather here at that time will reach past the 800 mark.

STEEL TRUST HEAD WHO REFUSED TO CONFER WITH LABOR LEADERS

Elbert H. Gary

Facing the possibility of a strike affecting the thousands of employees of the United States Steel Corporation, Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of that corporation's executive board, refused to confer with members of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers' Union. He denied their contention that they represented a great majority of the employees and declared that the corporation stood solidly for the "open shop."

"Pay-As-Leave" Car Next.

congestion during the rush hours on local street car lines, Seattle's municipal railway system is considering adopting a "pay-as-you-leave" plan. Under the plan passengers would not pay their fares until they leave the cars. Sale of metal street car tickets for the street cars started here yesterday. The tickets are sold for 5 cents, the regular fare.
