P. D. Hull was arrested today by the police and fined $10 for being drunk. Harry Miller is in jail on the same charge and will be tried tomorrow.

K. of G. To Aid in Supplying Rooms.
The Knights of Columbus have placed 20 beds in the Kinchis of Columbus hall which they will rent during the Round-Up. The lodge is hoping to aid in solving the problem of housing Pendleton's out-of-town visitors.

W. W. Cryder to La Grande.
W. W. Cryder, Umatilla forest supervisor, will leave tonight for La Grande to attend a meeting of the fire protective organizations of Eastern Oregon. The meeting will be attended by timber owners of Eastern Oregon. Mr. Cryder hopes to be in Pendleton for the last day of the Round-Up.

Return From Motor Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Peters returned yesterday from a motor trip made in their Lexington Six to Seattle, Portland, and Seaside. They say that the roads are rough and that they had to make many detours but they experienced no trouble.

Settle Highway Disputes.
County Judge C. H. Marsh and Commissioner G. L. Dunning were obliged to go to Prosser today to adjust some highway rights of way. They were expecting Assistant Attorney General J. M. Dovers from Salem, but he failed to arrive.

Railroad Men Here.
William McMurray, general passenger agent for the O-W, R. & N. Co., and Jack O'Neill, traveling passenger agent, arrived here today to spend the remainder of the week taking in the Round-Up and looking after the comfort of the many guests their special trains will bring here.

Railroad Men to Attend.
A. W. Hendrichs, a Spokane, special agent for the O-W, R. & N. Co., will arrive tomorrow to attend the Round-Up.

Reber Trial Still On.
The trial of the State vs. L. E. Kehler, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was continued today and it was expected to be submitted to the jury this afternoon.

Final Decrees Signed.
Final decrees in the estate of Charles Cunningham and Charles E. Eames were signed in probate court today.

District Convention of Degree.
October 14 and 15 have been announced as the dates for the Degree of Honor district convention to be held in Pendleton with delegates attending from all over the district. Many of the state officers are to be here for the convention.

General Manager Coming.
J. M. Rapelle, general manager of the Northern Pacific Railroad with party will reach Pendleton September 19 in a special train to attend the Round-Up. Mr. Rapelle's headquarters are in St. Paul.

First Trip to West.
E. B. Hooker and son, and Mr. Hooker's brother, Arthur Hooker are here to see the Round-Up and are guests at the home of William Edwards. The visitors are from Marintown, Wisconsin, and this is their first trip to the west.

Christian Science Hours.
It is announced that during the Round-Up the Christian Science reading room on Webb street will observe the following hours, forenoon 10 to 11:30; afternoon, 7:30 until 9 p. m. Visitors in the city are welcomed to the rooms.

Drives Here from Medford.
C. Harold Cochran of Medford, arrived here this afternoon by auto from Medford, having made the trip to see this year's Round-Up. He will visit Clyde Phillips, a college mate, while here.

Hermiston Couple Adopt Infant.
August E. Myers and his wife, Catherine Myers, were issued papers of adoption today for Marie Shutter, a two year old girl, whose mother is dead. Her name is to be changed to Marie Myers. The Meyers live near Hermiston.

New Peerless Cars Arrive.
A carload of new Peerless Eight cars were unloaded today at the Eastern Oregon Motor Company. The machines are the new models and include new features and new colors. Mrs. Inebel Kirkpatrick is driving a new Peerless Eight. This is the second Peerless car for the Kirkpatrick family this year, as Mrs. Phineas Kirkpatrick has been driving one for the past three months.

May Park Cars in Lots.
H. J. Taylor, Pendleton citizen, announced today that during the Round-Up he will donate his two back lots and the Crosswell lot 118 Jackson, for use in parking machines. He announces also that the Louis Mueller lot west of pioneer park on Bush and Raleigh streets will also be devoted to this purpose during Round-Up.

The Lantern Has First Appearance.
The first issue of The Lantern, official Pendleton high school publication, appeared today. The paper is a weekly and consists of four pages devoted to high school news. The editor this year is Ivan Houser. Associate editors are Theodore Jones, and Arthur Rudd, while Claude Snow is cartoonist. John Simpson and Lloyd McCrae are responsible for the jokes. Jens Torpenson is business manager.

Looking For Pendleton.
A. H. Cox, lumber dealer, and Will M. Peterson, prominent attorney of Pendleton are at the Multnomah, having come to Portland to hear Wilson for which they drew seats at The Auditorium. Pendleton is the biggest small town in the whole United States, says Cox and Peterson, and is wonderful in every respect. Besides telling everyone about Pendleton, they are spreading enthusiasm over the Round-Up which opens up this week.—Oregon Journal.

Will Finish Road in Month.
Another month or six weeks will see the completion of the grading work on the highway between the Morrow county line and Hermiston, according to H. G. Newport, Hermiston contractor, who was here today on business. The road work is progressing very well, Col. Newport said today, and by October 25 he expects to complete the work. Other contractors are carrying on the work between Hermiston and Echo, while the Echo-Roth section is now being made ready for contractors. Col. Newport went home on No. 17.

Penny Store Officials Here.
E. C. Sams, president of the J. C. Penny company, and William M. Bushnell, editor of the Dynamo, magazine which is furnished free to every Penny employee, were in Pendleton yesterday to get in touch with a number of men to assist in opening the 75 new stores which are to be added to the present number of stores. Mr. Sams interviewed about 75 men here and employed several. Seventeen years ago J. C. Penny opened up a small store in Kemmerer, Wyo. Today J. C. Penny is chairman of the board of directors of a company that owns 197 different stores situated in small towns throughout the country, especially the Western states, and by next spring this number will be swelled to a total of 275. The Penny company expects to greatly increase its territory and plans to go into some of the larger cities. Practically all the men in the Penny organization are Westerners, but because of the main side of the business, buying offices are in New York.
