

UMATILLA COUNTY APPLES

We will handle Umatilla County Apples EXCLUSIVELY this year. We do not think it fair to the consumer to offer standard apples packed under the Hood River Brand at advanced prices. We have contracted for the entire apple crop grown by Mr. John Ross, on the Little Walla Walla river, Milton district. NO BETTER APPLES GROWN. OUR CUSTOMERS TO BE THE JUDGE.

New Grains Perfected For Yukon Production.

Government agriculturists have succeeded in perfecting varieties of wheat and barley that will ripen before frost sets in in the Yukon river valley, Alaska, a northerner just arrived in Seattle reports. The grain so far raised has been found to be harder and in some cases larger than that grown in the states. Yields of 45 bushels to the acre are reported. The new varieties of grains are said to make possible the farming of some 50,000 square miles along the Yukon river.

Yakima Valley Will Pasture 250,000 Sheep.

It is estimated that a quarter of a million sheep will be wintered in Yakima valley this season. Recent rains have made excellent pasture.

railroad administration show that a great deal of the present car shortage, is occasioned by the under loading of cars. In order to facilitate the free movement of grain and to eliminate the car shortage, the corporation insists on all grain cars being loaded to their full intensified capacity as per instructions in the possession of all railroad agents.

Changes in Coarse Grains Fractional.

With little buying activity in on the coarse grain market, but fractional changes are noted. Barley is bid at $80, $82.50 and $83 today with mill feed $37.50. Oats and corn are hovering around the same marks as for the past several weeks.

Fresh Vegetables Are Plentiful, Says Visitor.

Fresh vegetables, both sack and small vegetables, are extremely plentiful, says H. F. Gaylord, who is in the city today representing the Bell and Co. produce house of Portland. Mr. Gaylord says that the new crop of California walnuts will be on the market in a couple of weeks, as will the new crop of California figs. Plenty of tomatoes, cucumbers and onions are on hand to supply the demand of the pickling season, says Mr. Gaylord.
