APOPLEXY IS FATAL TO PIONEER OF STANFIELD

(East Oregonian Special.)

STANFIELD, Oct. 13.—Saturday noon as W. L. Howard was cranking his machine, he was suddenly taken with apoplexy and passed away in a few hours. Mr. Howard was one of the early pioneers of Stanfield, and his loss has cast a gloom over the whole community. The funeral will be Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Faucett will conduct the burial service. Mr. Howard leaves his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. John Beaver, two sons, Clem and Ernest and several brothers and sisters to mourn his loss. The remains will be laid to rest in the Stanfield cemetery.

Mrs. C. J. Brockman entertained the Pollyanna's Wednesday afternoon. Attorney F. E. Schmidt and Mrs. Schmidt of Pendleton were here this week. Mr. Schmidt was hunting and Mrs. Schmidt was visiting friends. Wendell Cleveland and Dr. Will Ott of Gresham, Brother and Uncle of C. E. Cleveland were here for the hunting season. Little Miss Mary Louise Smith was the charming hostess Friday afternoon. Those she invited to help her celebrate her fifth birthday was Joyce Holte, Helen Connor, Florence Pearson, Barbara Wessel, and Marie Hazen. After spending the afternoon in playing games, delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Margaret Duncan of Portland is visiting her brother Horace Walker and his niece Mrs. Ansel Lundberg. Tom Olmsted of Highland Montana has purchased the 148 acre ranch of Louis Hayden. This is one of the nicest ranches on the meadows. Mr. Hayden will move back to Pendleton.

J. D. Wallace has bought the 24 acre orchard from C. E. Webster, for a consideration of $9500.

Wells C. Murdock and Linden W. Peterson, two Mormon missionaries from Salt Lake, spent Sunday here. The first meeting of the Stanfield Women's Study Club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Connor. After the general routine of business an interesting program was listened to. Mrs. Connor read a paper on the club history; Mrs. S. E. Beverance read a very interesting paper on the Gypsies and their customs. Several selections were rendered from the opera "Bohemian Girl." Mrs. W. T. Reeves and Mrs. C. W. Connor were appointed delegates to the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Corvallis. The club then adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. F. B. Stuart.

WHITE TRUCKS

The main factors of economy in operating a White Truck are its volume of performance, its low consumption of gasoline and oil, its freedom from repairs. All comparative records of which we have any knowledge point to a much higher percentage of days in active service.

Repairs are minor and infrequent, seldom necessitate a lay up. Where cost records are properly kept, White installations grow.
