

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Lincoln Pupils Salute Flag.

A patriotic feature of the daily program at the Lincoln school is the salute to the American flag which hangs in the main hallway of the building. The children salute while marching into the building.

Walter Takes Marion County.

Marion county, the second county in the state to organize the county Y. M. C. A., has selected W. P. Walter as its secretary. Mr. Walter was district secretary in charge of eastern Oregon and was responsible for the organization in Umatilla county of the first Y. M. C. A. in the state. A stronger organization has been formed in Marion county to back Mr. Walter.

Six Hour Day Charge Eronous.

The state convention of labor unions recently held at Bend did not, as reported in a Portland newspaper, draw resolutions favoring the six hour day, Sandy McLain, who attended and was a member of the resolutions committee, said today. There was talk of favoring the shorter day but the delegates agreed to substitute a provision endorsing such a move only after conditions of production will thoroughly warrant it. In the meanwhile, the unions favor the eight hour day as a means of increasing production, he declared.

Al Lindgren Convalescing.

Al Lindgren is convalescing at St. Anthony's Hospital after a recent operation.

West End Visitors in City.

Mrs. C. B. Hays and Mrs. A. P. Garner of Hermiston, were in Pendleton Monday.

Will Show Pendleton News.

A half dozen colored slides showing views of Pendleton, will be sent to the Elmira Chamber of Commerce, Elmira, New York, shortly. The eastern organization recently wrote to the Pendleton Commercial Association asking that some slides be sent. C. K. Cranston, secretary will have them made as soon as possible. The slides are to be circulated over considerable territory in up-state New York.

Another Highway Camp Erected.

The second crop of the Clifton, Applegate & Toole Co., contractors in charge of the Echo-Rieth work on the Old Oregon Trail, has been completed at Campbell station, 19 miles west of Pendleton. The crew is working from there towards Yoakum, while the main camp, below Rieth, has men at work both near Rieth and near Barnhart. The grading work on all three stations is progressing rapidly.

McKay Creek Farmer in Town.

John Wynn, sheep raiser and farmer from the McKay creek country, was a business visitor to Pendleton Monday afternoon.

Call for August Randallay.

Where is August Randallay? The Umatilla County Red Cross wishes to find him. Foreign correspondence is waiting Mr. Randallay.

Looking for Gladys Ellen Ryan.

The Umatilla County Red Cross is looking for Gladys Ellen Ryan. The Bureau of War Risk Insurance has important news for her regarding allotments and allowance.

On Business Trip to Echo.

N. J. Hlydenstein, manager of the Umatilla Flour & Grain Co., went to Echo today to attend to business at the company's new agency, recently established there.

Son of President Visits.

Harold E. Sanford, son of I. C. Sanford, president of the Northern Grain & Warehouse Co., is in Pendleton today on a visit to the local offices of the company. He is from Portland.

Provides for Maintenance.

No divorce was granted yesterday in the case of Mrs. Mina O'Connell vs. M. D. O'Connell, but a separate maintenance adjustment was made. Judge G. W. Phelps made an order that O'Connell shall pay $75 monthly toward the support of Mrs. O'Connell and three children.

Returns From Service.

Chester A. Kelly, son of Mrs. Kelly of this city, returned this morning after service in the United States Navy. He enlisted in July, 1918 and was sent to Seattle. Later he went to Panama, Belgium, and England aboard the U. S. S. Westpool. He was later transferred to the Leviathan. He received his honorable discharge in Seattle.

City Will Clean Up Lot.

The city government today issued orders to the street department to remove all the old wagons and other equipment now stored on the old Happy Canyon site at Main and East Railroad streets. The materials have been piled there for some time. Mayor Vaughan is considering a recommendation that the city build a suitable shed for storing equipment belonging to the street department.

Will Arrive from Headquarters.

To aid Miss Stasia P. Walsh in organizing her work as instructor in home hygiene and care of the sick, Miss Durkin will be in Pendleton Thursday from Red Cross headquarters. Miss Durkin is director of the bureau of instruction of the American Red Cross. Miss Walsh is in Pilot Rock today to organize classes and will organize classes in Athena on Friday.

Community Mass Meeting.

A community mass meeting of all Pendleton members of the Red Cross will be held Wednesday night in the county library club rooms to elect 10 delegates to represent Pendleton at the annual election of officers for the chapter. The election takes place October 29 in Pendleton and all branches of the chapter will be represented.

Will Aid in Finding Baggage.

Umatilla county soldiers who lost baggage while on route home from service will be assisted in finding it if they call at the office of the Umatilla County Red Cross in the federal building. Statistics show that there are 150,000 pieces of baggage at Hoboken, New Jersey awaiting distribution to claimants. The baggage consists of 20,000 trunk lockers, 15,000 bedrolls, 5,000 suit cases and 110,000 barrack bags.

Leaves for Burns Ranches.

J. C. Clemens left today by auto for his stock ranches near Burns to be gone two weeks on business. Mr. Clemens will dispose of most of his remaining stock in the southeastern part of the state, devoting his time to his stock in this county. He is retaining his property, which is under lease. Mr. Clemens says that hay and pasture are plentiful in Harney county this fall and, in contrast to last year, most of the stockmen will feed large numbers of cattle.

Premiums Paid for Wheat.

Brisk demand for hard wheats continues in the northwest, according to H. W. Collins, one of the largest grain dealers in this district. Premiums of 25 cents and more are being paid for hard milling wheats. First class soft wheat for milling is commanding about 3 cents premium, Mr. Collins reports. This, however, is insignificant when the insurance and interest on the investment is considered from the time the wheat was harvested.

Taking School Census.

James Laine and Russell Turner started Monday to take the school census in Pendleton. They are to list all persons between the ages of 4 and 20, inclusive. There are estimated to be between 1800 and 2000 of these ages in Pendleton and upon the count depends the proportion of state and county funds available for the local schools. All persons are required to give the information asked of them under penalty of $100 fine for non-compliance.

Strawberries in October.

They're eating strawberries at Lake Chelan, according to Stanley Jewett, of the United States Biological Survey, who returned last night from a trip of inspection to that region. He says the weather there is perfect and that the fall apple crop is being harvested. Trappers for the Survey who operated in the Lake Chelan district got an average of 13 animals each last month, according to statistics gathered by Mr. Jewett.
