

FIRST BOLSHEVIK TANKS IN ACTION NEAR PETROGRAD

Administrative Head of American Relief Mission in Riga Wounded by German Shell in Bombardment of City.

REFUSAL OF FINLAND WORKS NEW HARSHIP

Russian Soviet Government Notifies Berlin Compliance With Allies' Blockade Request Will be Hostility.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Doctor Orbison, administrative head of American life mission in Riga, was wounded by a German shell which struck the organization's headquarters, according to a Copenhagen dispatch today. It occurred during a heavy bombardment of the city by General Ferdinand's German army. Lethal defenders vigorously repelled the bombardment.

A Moscow dispatch reported that the first tanks manufactured by the bolsheviks are in action against General Yudenitch's army outside of Petrograd. A Stockholm dispatch said Yudenitch's difficulties have been increased by the refusal of Finland to cooperate in the attack on Petrograd.

Aggravations in the Finnish diet blocked all attempts at assistance, fearing the heavy cost. The Russian soviet government notified Germany that compliance with the allies' request to join in the blockade of the bolshevik will be regarded as an act of hostility.

OCTOBER SNOW FALLS, FIRST IN 40 YEARS

Forty years ago Pendleton people shivered amid October snow, today they are witnessing the first October fall of the pure-and-white since 1879. According to old timers the official date for the appearance of the first flakes is Christmas Eve and when snow fell here 26 years ago on November 9, it was a matter of wonderment.

The snow, of the powdery variety, fell this morning and melted almost immediately, although the temperature is 28, the coldest day yet this fall. Last night's temperature was 22, according to the weather report of Major Lew Moorhouse, Pendleton's weather man.

Aside from its spectacular features the snow is decidedly welcome to farmers. Including last night's rain the precipitation totalled .55 inches, which settles affirmatively the vital question of seed or not to seed.

Athena had a snow today also, say travelers from that section, and the reservation district also experienced a snowfall. There is much snow in the mountains says W. W. Cryder, Umatilla forest supervisor.

GOMPERS IS URGED TO CALL SPECIAL SESSION

PEORIA, Oct. 22.—A telegram was sent to President Gompers today by the state federation of labor in convention here, urging him not immediately call a special convention of the American Federation and the four railway brotherhoods to form an offensive and defensive alliance. The resolution declares "the capitalist class is drunk with power, exploiting the workingman, that it must be curbed and that oppressive costs of living must be reduced."

Advocate Strike. PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 22.—Speakers before the convention at Illinois federation of labor advocated a general strike to add the steel workers. Vice President Connors said if the steel strike lost the labor movement would be set back 50 years.

Return From Grand Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor returned this morning from Boise where Mr. Taylor attended the Idaho grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. The parade yesterday in Boise was the largest ever held in the state of Idaho, Mr. Taylor said. One hundred fifty delegates from Spokane and Northern Idaho will pass through here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock on their way home. Mr. Taylor said.

Installs Grinding Plant. R. E. Wimer, optician and optician in the Schaefer jewelry store, has completed the installation of a modern grinding plant. The plant makes possible the duplication of a lens in 40 minutes. Mr. Wimer states that his fast increasing business and the growing demand for quick service has prompted him to offer the public what is known as "Sixty Minute Service."

WINNER OF CONTEST TO BECOME MOVIE ACTRESS

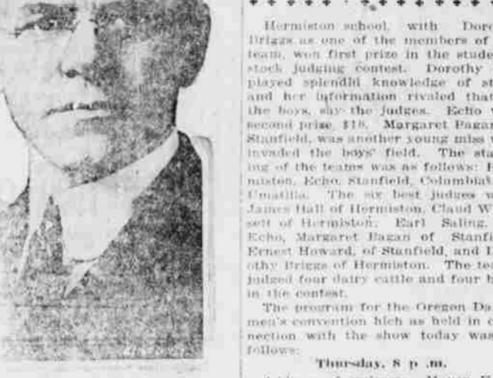

Miss Anita Booth. One of the four winners in a moving picture magazine's contest was Miss Anita Booth of New York. This assures her an important part in a movie production. The shadow in the photograph gives a very good idea of why the judges decided she would "scream" well.

STALLS, PENS CROWDED AS 7TH HERMISTON DAIRY, HOG DISPLAY OPENS; COMPETITION IS KEEN

Stalls and pens at the Hermiston Dairy and Hog Show, were crowded with entries in the various contests yesterday when the seventh annual show opened. Farmers from the west end of the county are evidencing keen interest and there is considerable competition for the premiums.

The crowd was unusually large for opening day and it is estimated that it will be four times as large by Friday and Saturday. Hermiston people are making every effort to accommodate the visitors.

FIFTH SPECIALIST CALLED IN TO ATTEND PRESIDENT

Dr. H. A. Fowler. Although Admiral Grayson, President Wilson's physician, has made no announcement, it is understood that Dr. H. A. Fowler of Washington was called to examine Mr. Wilson. This makes the fifth specialist in attendance on the president. Dr. Fowler is a specialist in treatment of affections of the glands.

TWO PLANES CRASH IN OCEAN TO OCEAN RACE

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 22.—Two planes in the transcontinental race marched to the ground here in accidents due to a strong wind. Lieutenant Hynes, starting eastward on his winter trip, was blown into a fence. The machine was so badly wrecked he is out of the race. Early 29, trying to make a landing about the same time, descended with great force and smashed a number of trees of his machine, but will be able to resume the flight. No one was seriously hurt.

UPHEAVAL LOOMS WHEN LABOR WALKS OUT

POSSIBILITY OF INDUSTRIAL CHAOS FRANKLY ADMITTED AS CHASM IS MADE WIDER

LACK OF POWER PUTS NEWSPAPER EQUIPMENT OUT OF USE 4 HOURS. Power troubles, both in the Walla Walla head plant and in the circuit between Athena and Pendleton tied up the composition facilities of the East Oregonian between 7:15 and 9 this morning and between 1 and 2:30 this afternoon. As a result, the issue was not only considerably late in getting to press, but did not permit of the setting of the usual amount of copy. The heavy typetting machines, as well as the press, depend upon electrical power for their operation.

LETTER FROM HUSBAND EXPLAINS MYSTERY OF WOMAN TAKEN MONDAY

Nervous Trouble Followed Influenza Attack and Journey to Mayo's Begins Long Wandering Which is Ended Here. Through a story published in Factland yesterday, J. E. Whitman, husband of Mrs. Celia Whitman, committed to the state hospital here Monday night, has been located. Mr. Whitman, who resides at 250 Sixth street, knew nothing of Mrs. Whitman's whereabouts until he saw the story from Pendleton, his letter to Chief of Police Roberts today said.

HERO OF 1917 WORLD SERIES COMES HERE

Urbain "Red" Faber, right hander with the Chicago White Sox, arrived in Pendleton this morning and will spend most of the winter with friends in Umatilla county. Faber was hero of the 1917 world's series when the Sox and New York Giants tangled, but in the recent series with Cincinnati was not given a turn on the hill. Faber received a large slice of the spoils from the series but was disappointed in not being sent to the mound after Cicotte and Williams were battered by the Cincinnati batters. Faber was not even put in as a relief hurler. The big leaguer will visit with Fred Mees at Helix and this week end will go on a deer hunt south of Pilot Rock near Elkhorn cabin. Faber was hero in the winter of 1917, after the Sox-Giants series and spent several weeks in hunting traps. His home is in Cascade, Iowa.

CAPITAL AND LABOR BEFORE BREAK

WASHINGTON—The photographer snapped Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor (left) in earnest conversation with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., on the steps of the Pan-American building before the break in the conference. Th photographer discovered that John D. Jr. wraps his shoe laces twice about his shoe tips before he ties them, which struck him as a bit unconventional, at least, for a millionaire.

"SPOOKS" BLAMED FOR SPELL OF DARKNESS IN WEE SMA' HOURS

"Spooks" are blamed by Dr. E. W. Vincent for the peculiar action of the city's lights during the night. Repeated attempts to locate a break in the system failed and no reason is advanced by the manager of the Pacific Power Light Co. for the intermittent spells of darkness. Pendleton gets its power from Walla Walla, the line serving the town en route. Athena had no trouble with its lights and as soon as this was ascertained, two linemen, with search lights went over the system from Pendleton to Athena and back. They found everything in good shape. Dr. Vincent says, but the lights would not stay on when switched in here. Another inspection tour over the route was made at daybreak today, with no different result. At 9 o'clock the power was turned on, running uninterruptedly until about noon. No repairs were made, either in the city or between here and Athena.

When the lights went out last night, candles and lamps were brought into use. A vaudeville act was on at a local theater and when the lights failed it was finished by candle light. Restaurants and early opening stores this morning lighted their establishments by candle and lamp. Until power was turned on, local newspapers were helpless to start organization and were delayed nearly two hours in getting under way. Some other establishments were inconvenienced by the failure of the power.

DELEGATES FOR PUBLIC TALK OF OUTLINING CODE

Advice of President Sought Today as Result of Conference After Break Last Night; Session May Continue.

HOPE PUT IN WEIGHT OF PUBLIC OPINION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.— President Wilson today constituted a new conference from the wreckage of the first one. At his suggestion, made in a letter to Secretary Lane, delegates representing the public will remain in session to seek solution of the nation's industrial problems. Delegates representing employers are excused from further attendance but the public group, the president told Lane, must work. The public group is expected to make an exhaustive investigation of the entire national situation just as the original conference planned to do. Lane explained when he called two groups to order at 2:30. He said new members will be added if it seems necessary. Lane declared the conference "adjourned" as now constituted and the public group immediately started its session, the employers' delegates leaving the hall.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The president's advice was sought today on the practicability of having the public group of the industrial conference continue in session to adopt an industrial code. This followed a conference last night of Secretary Tumulty, Chairman Lane, of the conference, Thomas Chadbourne of the committee of 15, and Bernard Baruch, one of the public's representatives.

It is learned that Tumulty put the problem before President Wilson this morning. Lane is anxious to have the public group make a report to the president outlining what it believes should be done to bring cooperation between capital and labor. Some of the public's representatives feel that this will be useless since labor left the conference. Those favoring it think public opinion would force labor to adhere to the principles the public group laid down.

MOTORCYCLE SMASHUP PUTS CITY BACK $165

Payment of claims against the city was ordered by the city council last evening in a short session of purely routine work. Among the bills ordered paid was one for $165 for repairs to the traffic officer's motorcycle, recently smashed up in a collision, and another for $50 to C. E. Carter for acting as attorney in the criminal damage suit against the city.

Petticoat was received from Dr. David H. Hill and others for paving Martin street from Main to Madison and Main street from Martin south to the end of the present paving. It was referred to the street committee. The fire committee oked was placed on the two permits for work within the fire limits. The jobs include remodeling of a pool room in the Mallock estate property on Main street and a new window and floor in the front of Hohbach's bakery. The fire committee reported an offer of $50 for the old fire bell tower in the rear of the Field school.
