"I Have Money In the Bank-- and it is Mine"

Such a statement sounds always good, and why? It must come from a person who meets his obligations, is thrifty and in good repute, and usually has a good credit reputation.

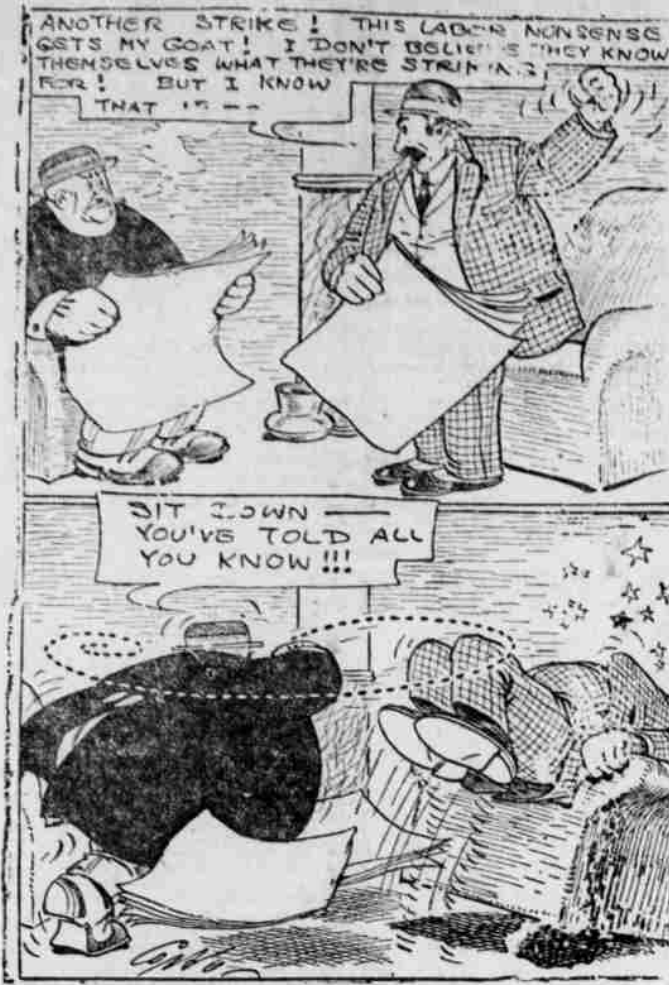

You can have MONEY IN THE BANK by opening a savings account, no matter if it is not a very large sum to begin with, for any amount can be added to it anytime and it will yield a liberal rate of interest.

THE REPORTER'S BRIDE

RACHEL LITTLETON NEW YORK—The sister of Martin W. Littleton, former Congressman, will be the bride of the dilettante reporter, Cornelius Underbill, Jr. The engagement just announced.

The Chicago Kind.

Mr. Packington of Chicago, visiting New York, was introduced to a lady as from that grooving town.

"Ah," she smiled, with keen cynicism of the effete East. "From Chicago? I suppose you have Indians out there?"

"Yes, madame, some," he replied humbly.

"Ah! Aren't you afraid of being scalped?"

"Not now, madame; not now," he responded, with profound sincerity.

"I was before I came to New York, but having been skinned as I have been by these New York Indians, I consider scalping by our Chicago breed as a mere bagatelle." Then there was a lull in the conversation.
