

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

At a 10 o'clock marriage service this morning Miss Edna Hamilton became the bride of William Alfred Breeding, the service being read at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. J. Hamilton, by Rev. J. Francis Morgan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Pauline Breeding was chosen as the maid of honor, while Dr. Harve Hanovan attended the groom and the service was read in the presence of members of the two families, the double ring ceremony being employed. The bride was attired in a tailleur of blue panne velvet, worn with a becoming hat to match. Miss Breeding also wore a tailored costume of blue, her suit being of velour.

Following the service the couple left for a short motor trip to Walla Walla. Upon their return they will be at home at 516 Market street.

The groom is a prominent young Umatilla county farmer and his bride, a popular girl and native of Pendleton, is the only daughter of Mrs. C. J. Hamilton and a granddaughter of Mrs. Frank Whetstone. She was employed for two years by the Western Union Company here and has recently been connected with the dental office of Dr. David B. Hill. She attended both the public and high schools in Pendleton.

The D. A. Peebler residence, 701 West Court street, was last evening the scene of a pretty home wedding when Miss Ruth Aura Peebler became the bride of Lee C. Cantwell. The ring ceremony was read at 7 o'clock by Rev. Robert E. Gornall, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of only members of the families and neither of the couple was attended.

Chrysanthemums and ferns decked the rooms of the Peebler home and preceding and throughout the service wedding music was played by Miss Katherine Grandholm. The bride chose a becoming costume of blue cut on tailored lines and she carried a cluster of Ophelia roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell have departed for a short motor trip to Heppner but after a fortnight the popular young couple will return here to make their home where the groom is associated in business with the Western Auto Company.

Brimfall of Hallowe'en surprises, pranks and mysteries, the informal evening for which the Epworth League of the Methodist church was responsible last night, gave hospitality to a hundred guests. Corn stalks and bright yellow pumpkins backed the church rooms where the affair was held and ghosts galore mingled among the guests. Fortunes were told, Miss Rita Ferguson in appropriate, forecasting strange futures, and after several merry hours doughnuts and elder in abundance brought the evening to a close. The affair was in charge of Miss Dorothy Fiegel.

H. W. Collins returned this morning from a business trip to Portland Raymond Hatch left this morning for Hermiston to attend the Hermiston Dairy and Hog Show and State Dairymen's Convention.

Many Pendleton friends of Miss Ruth Strom will be interested to learn that cards have just been received announcing her marriage to Mr. Albert Goddard of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Goddard leave shortly for a trip to the Orient, visiting the Hawaiian Islands, China, and Japan. Mr. Goddard is in business in Seattle and on their return they will be at home at 497 Chelsea Court, 629 Olympia place. The best of good wishes from her Pendleton friends will follow her to her new home.

Mrs. O. E. Coe, mother of Mrs. W. D. Humphrey, who has been her house guest for the past six weeks, departed yesterday for her home in Lavina, Montana. Mr. and Mrs. Coe came to Pendleton together, Mr. Coe remaining only a fortnight over the Round-Up. Another guest at the Humphrey home has been Mrs. Humphrey's aunt, Mrs. A. J. Harper of Sioux City Iowa, who departed Tuesday for Portland, where she will spend the winter with her son and later visit in California before returning home.

Miss Juanita Freidly and Miss Simpson, two of Umatilla county's rural teaching force, went to Walla Walla today to spend the week end.

Guests at the home of Mrs. A. F. May are Mr. and Mrs. Richard May of Jamestown, North Dakota, and son Richard May, Jr. The guests arrived yesterday and will visit for a week or so en route to Long Beach, California, where they plan to pass the winter. Mr. May is a brother of the late A. F. May.

A charming musical event was the recital last evening in which Mrs. Bert Allen McDonald presented her pupil, Dorothea Dodge, assisted by Miss Esther Earl, voice pupil of Mrs. S. H. Forslow. Little Miss Dodge, who is but 12 years old, played a difficult program all from memory and showed a technical skill and artistic finish worthy of a much older student. Especially pleasing was her tone work displayed in the Prelude of Chopin and "Sung Outside the Prince's Door" by McDowell and she played the A major Solenne of Chopin with dash and brilliancy and a breadth of tone quite remarkable. Miss Earl has a lovely soprano voice and sang two songs charmingly, adding much pleasure.

Mrs. Albert Eklund was a charming hostess at her home at 209 Loo street when a number of guests were invited to spend an informal afternoon in sewing and conversation. Flowers in autumn colors were used about the room, and a clever innovation was the presentation of Hallowe'en's fortunes, enclosed in walnut shells, with the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess.

BULLS AND BEARS RECOGNIZE HIM

WASHINGTON.—The bulls and bears of Wall Street naturally are much interested in Boise Penrose, new chairman of the Senate finance committee. They watch his every move. Even the bulls and bears of the National Zoo seem to recognize him. The bears stand on their hind legs when he comes into sight. The buffalo bulls eat out of his hand as the picture shows.

We are showing on our floor a beautiful BED ROOM SUITE

This is a beauty and by far the finest ever shown in this city. It is made of solid ivory, has twin beds, with specially made box springs, large vanity dresser with three lovely mirrors and a night table.

If you are looking for something a little better than the ordinary and something with a lot of class, do not fail to see this set—it will pay you.

See that pretty new William and Mary
