

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

Mrs. G. W. Coutts and Mrs. Luther Goldman, (Edna Coutts), left Wednesday for Spokane where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Averill and family until after Thanksgiving. Mr. Coutts will go to Spokane later to spend Thanksgiving. He will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coutts. Mrs. Averill is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coutts.

Miss Eglantine Mousu, who is attending Columbia University, is convalescing after a recent operation for appendicitis. Miss Mousu is regaining her health and expects to resume her studies soon.

Mrs. William Edwards, Mrs. F. M. Ebel, Mrs. David Nelson, Mrs. Lester Hamley, Mrs. David H. Hill, Mrs. Joseph Cox, Mrs. Emil Doherty and Mrs. Earl Gillanders extended charming hospitality yesterday when they were hostesses for a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church. The affair was held in the church reception room and a vocal solo by Mrs. Edwards was a delightful feature of the informal afternoon. The final hour of which was enjoyed over the tea cups.

Members of the Inspiration Club were guests yesterday of Mrs. J. L. Gibson at her home 711 Cobble street. A reading, one of an interesting series being enjoyed by the club, was given by Mrs. John Greulich, and Mrs. J. A. Lundeen was responsible for a group of delightful piano solos. Mrs. Guy Johnson was welcomed yesterday as a new club member. The next meeting is scheduled for December 2, three weeks distant, when Mrs. C. M. Griswold will be hostess at her home on Bush street.

Mrs. L. D. Ward, who will be remembered in Pendleton as Miss Evelyn Kinnman, is a guest in the city at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Adams. Mrs. Ward is making her home in Bend, Oregon, where Mr. Ward is in business.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen, will meet this evening in Moose hall where a large class of both men and women is to be initiated. The event is one of a series of initiations being held in a membership campaign, 53 new names having recently been added to the roll.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Earl, who left Pendleton recently for a trip East are now in New York. They will visit other eastern cities before returning to this city.

Members of the Current Literature club will meet tomorrow afternoon in the club room of the library with Mrs.

R. Alexander as hostess.

Pendleton folk interested both in the concert of Miss Mary Wylie and in the conference at the Church of the Redeemer this evening, will be interested to know that the events have been arranged so that they will not conflict, the musical hour having been set for 8:30.

For 8:30 o'clock this evening is scheduled the concert of Mary Wylie, contralto. The event will take place in the Presbyterian church and Jean Ballack will accompany Miss Wylie. Keenest interest surrounds the musical hour, a number of local folk having previously heard the southern singer, a Paris student of Jean de Resnais, Polish tenor, and of Oscar Seagle, known as America's foremost baritone. Miss Wylie, who is a sister of Mrs. S. H. Forshaw, of this city, is known for the exceptionally high and low range of her contralto voice.

This evening's program follows:
PART I.
Love Song Brahms
The Maiden Speaks Brahms
The Cradle Song Humperdinck
By the Waters of Minnetonka Kreutzer
The Merry Dance Molloy

PART II.
Mon Cœur s'ouvre à ta Voix
(Samson et Delila) St. Saens
It is Better to Laugh Than to Sigh
(L'opéra de Borgia) Donizetti

PART III.
Le Soir Thomas
Mal Hahn
Vendredette Weckerlin
L'esclavage Lalo
Séquelle (Carmen) Bizet

PART IV.
Deep River Burleigh
De Ork's Amoverin' Gulon
Cradle Song of 1915 Kreutzer
Idyll MacDowell
Love in My Heart Woodman

Miss Irma Scharpf, of Portland, is expected in Pendleton soon to spend a week visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scharpf. She is at present visiting in Pilot Rock, a guest at the Charles Bracher home.

Mrs. Halbert C. Moore and little daughter Kathryn who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Moore's mother Mrs. Hans Struve for the past two months will leave for Roseburg on No. 17 Friday, where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Moore, parents of Mr. Moore. Mrs. Moore will be accompanied by her brother, Detlef Struve who will go as far as Eugene to witness the U. of O.-O. A. C. football game Saturday.

The home of Mrs. W. H. Bishop at the agency was yesterday the scene of a delightful affair when about twenty members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church motored out from Pendleton about 10 o'clock to enjoy a charmingly luncheon and an informal afternoon. Guessing games and music supplemented a short business session. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. E. Redfield.

The party included besides the hostess, Mrs. R. E. Gorman, Mrs. F. E. King, Mrs. W. T. Rigby, Mrs. G. W. Rusk, Mrs. Amy Lee, Mrs. K. G. Warner, Mrs. Jerry, Mrs. J. Brink, Mrs. Lewis King, Mrs. G. E. Hunter, Mrs. D. B. Waffle, Mrs. E. R. Worthington, Mrs. Redfield, Mrs. Emma Goble, Mrs. Emma Hockett, Mrs. R. L. Oliver, Mrs. J. W. Stockman, Miss Grace Aliver, Mrs. Roland Oliver and Mrs. A. W. Ruge.

Decidedly interesting was a meeting of Bushee Chapter No. 13, O. E. S., Tuesday evening when a history of the organization was enjoyed. The chapter received and will accept an invitation from the Western Eastern Star to be their guests on November 28, and another feature was the reception of five new members, three by initiation and two by affiliation. The next regular meeting of the chapter is to be held November 25, when a social session will be enjoyed, Mrs. Mary Avison being in charge of the affair.

The history of Bushee chapter was prepared by Division No. 4, with Mrs. Mary E. Johnson in charge. The organization which dates from January 10, 1912, took its name in honor of J. T. Bushee, pioneer, and father of Glen Bushee, well known Pendleton man. An interesting feature was the reading of the list of worthy matrons and worthy patrons who have served Bushee chapter since its origin. The worthy matrons have been:

Mrs. Anna M. Haley, Mrs. Leona Thompson, Mrs. Maria M. Beagle, Mrs. Pauline Alexander, Mrs. Jessie S. Vert, Mrs. Nancy E. DeSpain, Mrs. Mary E. Johnson, Mrs. Lillie B. Smith, Mrs. Lotta Hasenbruch, Mrs. Jessie L. Perry, Mrs. Lulu Wilson, Mrs. Hattie Stanfield, Mrs. Grace A. Ingram, Mrs.

KING ALBERT WITH WREATH HE PLACED ON THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S GRAVE

The most democratic monarch in the world, Albert, King of the Belgians, is seen here paying tribute to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, one of the staunchest defenders of democracy. This photograph was made as King Albert, carrying a wreath, was approaching the Roosevelt plot in the Youngs Memorial cemetery, at Oyster Bay, L. I. He placed the wreath on Roosevelt's grave. With the king is Lieutenant-Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

Ida B. Bickers, Mrs. Lillie N. Parker, Mrs. Bertha Henderson, Mrs. Estelle Temple, Mrs. Laura K. Tweedy, Mrs. Lillian Best, Mrs. Vashita Saling, Mrs. Mary E. Cooley, Mrs. Phila Miller and Mrs. Leota Brown.

Worthy patrons have been: John Vert, Phelix Mitchell, A. W. Nye, H. J. Bean, R. Alexander, Jeremiah Barnhart, E. J. Murphy, A. J. Owen, M. A. Rader, Bert Huffman, I. U. Temple, J. A. Best, T. J. Tweedy, A. C. Funk, R. C. Bean, Frank Saling, L. B. De Witt, M. L. Peters and Manuel Friedly.

Mrs. N. F. Dean of Chicago, sister of Mrs. R. W. Fletcher, was in Pendleton yesterday en route to Chicago after a visit in Portland with her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Cameron. Mrs. Dean, who formerly lived in Pendleton, has made her home in Chicago for the past two years.

Mrs. George Wright arrived this morning from Albany for a four weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Doherty. Mrs. Doherty and little daughter, Patricia Douglas, returned to the Doherty home last night from St. Anthony's hospital.

Mrs. Sam White of Wichita, Kansas, who has been the house guest of her sister Mrs. J. C. Woodworth for the past fortnight, left this afternoon for Seattle from where she will go to Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Annual observance of the birthday anniversary of her husband was the inspiration last evening for a delightful event when Mrs. Joseph N. Scott was hostess for a charmingly appointed 6 o'clock dinner at the Scott home on Lewis street. For many years November 12 has been observed by the Scott family as the day for "turkey" and a candle-decked cake is also an indispensable feature.

Throughout the rooms chrysanthemums lent their charm last evening and red carnations, in an artistic cluster centered the pretty table, while one of the blossoms was stationed at each card which marked covers laid for twelve.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen and Mr. Homer L. Watts, all of Athena, Miss Flora Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

Leave on Trip to Seattle. J. H. Estes, Guy R. Wyrick and George Stangler left at 1:15 this afternoon for Seattle where they will spend the rest of the week on business. They plan to return Monday.

Is New Stenographer. Miss Edith McCall has accepted a position as stenographer at the law firm of Bynon & Bynon. Miss McCall was formerly employed as clerk at the U. S. forestry office.

McKay Farmer in Town. O. P. Roberts, a farmer on McKay creek, is in town today. He reports that his 15-year-old son, who recently broke his right leg for the fifth time, is improving and hope is held that the break will heal more satisfactorily than before.

Man Held for Prisonville Sheriff. Jay DeFos, wanted at Prisonville on charges of larceny of an auto and issuing worthless paper, was arrested at noon yesterday at Echo by Deputy Sheriff Jake Marin. He is held under telephonic instructions from Sheriff John Combs, who will come for the man probably tomorrow.

Meeting at Episcopal Church. Because of the delayed arrival of train No. 17 today, the morning and afternoon meetings at the Episcopal church, were cancelled as Rev. Fred Fleming of Chicago did not arrive until late this afternoon. All business planned for today's meeting will be transacted tonight at the 7:30 meeting and all members are urged to attend. The conference is for the purpose of making plans for the nation-wide drive for the church.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty

Oh, girls, such an abundance of thick, heavy, invigorated hair; a perfect mass of wavy, silky hair, gloriously fluffy, bright and so easy to manage.

Just moisten a cloth with a little "Danderine" and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this magically removes all dirt, excess oil and greases, but your hair is not left brittle, dry, stringy or faded, but charmingly soft, with glossy, golden gleams and tender lights. The youthful glints, tints and color are again in your hair.

"Danderine" is a tonic-beautifier. Besides doubling the beauty of the hair at once, it checks dandruff and stops falling hair. Get delightful Danderine for a few cents at any drug or toilet counter and use it as a dressing and invigorator as told on bottle.
