FIGHTING ATHLETES OF NORHLAND WIN FROM CALIFORNIA BY 7 TO 0

Washington Eleven Scores Lone Touchdown From Southern Team; Oregon Trounces Multnomah on Turkey Day.

SEATTLE, Nov. 28.—Eleven fighting athletes of the northland earned a decisive victory from California on Denny field Thursday and 7 to 0 tells the numerical result. Fortune, backed by stellar football, brought the lone touchdown when the third quarter was 12 minutes old, and 18,000 spectators were changed at that instant to a like number of cheering maniacs.

Buel Blake punted from midfield to the shadow of the southern goal posts, California fumbled. Smith of Washington recovered and then, from the 14-yard line the attack began. Butler gained five yards and Fullback Thesen with four straight bucks shattered the Bears' line for the marker. Ted Paulk kicked goal.

Previous to that event, during the entire first half, and for the remainder of the battle, neither team was able to score. California's efforts to pierce the crack Washington line were without avail, and a like fate overtook their stock of trucks, although Eels, Gimble and Murray, all of the invading team unraveled several substantial gains on passes and squirming runs.

The game developed largely into a punting duel, with Blake of the north holding the edge in yardage. The game was played on a field surfaced with oozy mud. While the turf was hard the thaw had brought water to the top and one minute after play was called the men of the opposing teams resembled 22 mammoth reeks.

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—Three goals from the field and a touchdown, all contributed by Bill Steers, gave the University of Oregon a 15 to 7 victory over Multnomah club yesterday in their annual clash here. It was a well played, clean game but only a small crowd was on hand.

COMPROMISE ON PEACE TREATY IS LOOKED FOR BY SENATOR McNARY

Oregonian Believes More Than Two Thirds Want Treaty and That Separate Peace Would be Misfortune.

SALEM, Nov. 28.—A compromise between opponents and advocates of the peace treaty and the League of Nations covenant will be reached soon after congress convenes and the pact will be passed some time in December, in the opinion of United States Senator Charles L. McNary, who returned to this city Wednesday. Senator McNary will spend a week here, then return to the national capital to take up the fight for the peace treaty. More than two-thirds of the members of the senate desire the treaty called, Senator McNary said in an interview here today, with such reservations as will remove from question all doubts and "controversies about the meaning of the covenant of the League of Nations."

League as Experiment. Senator McNary said that he knew of no member of the senate who wished to commit the United States to a course of action in violation of the constitution, therefore the bitter fight on Article X. He said that he, personally, is strongly opposed to the sending of American troops to another nation without the authority of congress, and would hold out for a reservation granting the League of Nations the right to direct troops of one nation to another.

Unless a compromise on the treaty is reached soon after the convening of congress, Senator McNary predicted, a separate treaty with Germany will be negotiated. This is to be regretted, he said, if such an event occurs, as he accepts the League of Nations in the light of an experiment that should be given a trial.

Expects Reservations. The nature of the private conference he had with President Wilson on the eve of the battle over the covenant, which incited much comment throughout the state, was not divulged by the senator further than the president explained the League of Nations idea. "The treaty as it stands will never be accepted," Senator McNary declared. "Although strongly vetoed by the president, it is ambiguous. Why? Because it is so susceptible to interpretations. The United States must know where it stands at all times."

Elderly People Have A Daily Health Problem

(Stomach muscles and digestive organs slow to act as age advances)

MOST people find the years slipping by without realizing it, until suddenly confronted with the fact that they can no longer digest everything they would like to eat. It then becomes their daily task to avoid what they know to be chronic constipation. When exercise and light diet fail it will be necessary to resort to artificial means. Strong physics and cathartics, however, are not advisable for elderly people. They act too powerfully and a feeling of weakness results. What is needed is a laxative containing effective but mild properties. This is best found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts gently and without griping, and used a few days will train the digestive organs to do their work naturally again without other aid.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been on the market since 1892, and was the private formula of Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is himself past 80 years of age and still active in his profession. It can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1 a bottle, the latter containing enough to last even a large family many months. It is a trustworthy preparation. In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over a million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 321 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

ALL NAMED SULLIVAN ARE BAILED OUT FOR DRUM STICK JUBILEE

SEATTLE, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving in all its glory fell on the clan of Sullivan this morning at the city police station.

A red-faced good-natured Irishman, clutching a roll of bills in his right hand, stepped up to the desk sergeant's window and exclaimed: "My name is Florry Sullivan, and I want to bail out every man in jail by the name of Sullivan. This is no day for a Sullivan to be in jail."

Desk Sergeant Warren Smith began poring over the book of arrests.

He found three Sullivans—Peter, Paddy and Thomas—all charged with violating two feet of the brew that cheers on Thanksgiving eve.

"Turn 'em loose," said Sullivan and slumped down $10 for each. When the bewildered trio of Sullivans was brought from the cold cement tank above and faced their benefactor, Paddy Sullivan objected.

"I've got 10 cents," he said, "and I can't have a swell Thanksgiving on that."

"Never mind," another the Sullivan with the money. "I've got plenty."

JAZZING IN KILTIES NOT THE THING; NOBLE MAN WOULD HAVE IT 'KILT'

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Nov. 28.—Highland lassies may have their fling, but "jazzing" isn't suited to a kilt.

The Marquis of Aberdeen has been appealing to the girls here not to be led into the "pernicious" dances which hold sway in London town. He deprecates that form of dancing and is out for the continuation of the good old hielan' fling, with its crossed swords, bare knees, sporrans and kilt complete.

"Don't take my word for it," said Lord Aberdeen. "Take the word of any wise mother or good doctor about the modern dance. They will say it is unsuitable, undesirable, unbecoming and ungraceful. I hope if it shows its ugly face in Aberdeen it will be lumped on."

The hielan' lassies replied, "Och hoo!" and evinced a marked preference for the bare-kneed fling to the bare-faced "jazz."

So everything in Aberdeen's "a licht noo," and Harry Lauder won't need to seek other inspiration or his songs.

After pocketing his for the congratulations of the minister officiating at a wedding are genuine.

Jack Frost is such a lucky dog! The pretty girls he seeks; And there is never any stir; No one calls out, "How dare you, sir!" When he starts kissing cheeks.

ABSENCE OF U. S. OFFICIALS CAUSES BERLIN CONFUSION

BY CARL D. GROOT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Lack of American official representation in Berlin is causing American travelers considerable embarrassment.

The Spanish embassy representing American interests can sometimes help the traveler but more often not. It has too much business to handle. And red tape unwinds slowly in Germany.

As a result of this situation, Americans coming here are considerably inconvenienced. England and France are liberally represented on missions here. America has none. And its interests have to be conserved mainly by the American legations in the Hague and Copenhagen.

Two standard American sailors reached town recently expecting passports here. They were penniless but expected a lift here. They couldn't get a passport right away maybe by waiting long enough they might have had one through the Spanish embassy. Probably they passed the line somewhere "on their own." It can be done, but it's unpleasant.

And, at the same time an American business man arrived in with a perfectly good pass, but found he needed to travel to Coocho-Stovalin to complete an important deal. Could he get his pass amended here? No, he had to travel to Copenhagen and run risk of losing his business deal through the delay.

These are only sample cases. Daily Americans with difficulties as bad or worse than these above cited are here, and find that the U. S. A. isn't among those present. They say it should be.

It is hard to down an upright citizen.
