KAISER MONUMENT NOW IS AMERICAN MEMORIAL

TARNOPOL, Poland, Dec. 8. —The German monument erected in honor of the Kaiser's visit to Harnopol in 1917 has been turned into an allied memorial. Instead of destroying the monument, as the Germans did with all allied memorials, the Polish people have simply added their inscription to that of the Germans and turned the monument into one of praise for the allied forces.

During the occupation by the German troops the huge monument was erected, bearing the inscription, "William II, Emperor of Germany and King of Prussia, stopped here on July 28, 1917."

It was a division of Polish-Americans, members of the French army, that took the town for the Poles, and they simply added this inscription, "and on July 4, 1919, Sixth Division of American Chasseurs entered the town. They stayed."
