CENSUS TAKING WILL START ON JANUARY 1, 19 QUESTIONS COMING

All Must be Answered Correctly. Residents Are Advised Now to Brush up on Knowledge of Family History.

Better brush up on family statistics for the census man will be around soon. He has 19 questions to be answered and they must be answered. Uncle Sam provides a heavy penalty for refusal to see the enumerator or to answer his questions. Uncle Sam wants statistics about every member of every household and he will start getting these statistics about January 1. In the case of foreign-born residents it is absolutely necessary that all papers relating to naturalization should be left in the house during the month of January so the enumerator can see them. This applies not only to members of the family but to all other persons who reside there permanently.

Has any member of the family or person residing permanently with the family been naturalized or declared his intention to become a citizen? 8. If so, give the date of naturalization if full citizen; date of first papers if declared intention. 9. Has any members or person residing there permanently attended school of any kind since the first day of September, 1917? 10. Is there any member of the family or other person residing there who cannot read and write some language? 11. Give birthplace of each person, including members of the family who reside there permanently, and their native tongue if foreign-born. 12. What is the occupation or profession of each person, including members of the family residing there permanently? 15. Disillusioned. There was once a politician, formerly a farmer, whose reputation was such that a colleague, meeting an old man from his district, asked confidentially: "What do you think of his down your way? Is he an honest man?" The countryman stroked his whiskers and smiled. "Would you call him a liar?" asked the other. Another stroking of the whiskers, then he replied: "Well, now, I don't know that I'd go so far as to call him a liar, but those as know him down our way do say that when he wanted his pigs to come for their feed he had to get somebody else to call 'em."—Boston Globe.
