Every Man Likes a Fine Tie

AN IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT

The practice of making Christmas Gifts of Neckwear increases year by year. There's a reason for this.

The scarf is the one bit of color that a man may wear and he likes to indulge his fancy. He wants plenty of variety.

But in giving Neckwear, you must be sure it's in good taste and of fine quality.

Our selection of silks this season outdoes any of our past efforts.

You may purchase a tie in our Men's Store at moderate prices, as well as the most expensive—50c to $5.00.

Men's Shoes

On the "level" is the way our shoes are made all through. Good, honest leathers and honest workmanship are in every pair. They are correct in style. The values are not equaled elsewhere at the price, no matter what the price.

FORMER WALLA WALLA WOMAN FATALLY BURNED

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 11.—Mrs. A. B. Archer, age 25, formerly Miss

Ruth Wills, of this city, died in Portland yesterday morning as a result of severe burns suffered Monday morning when her dress caught fire from an open gas heater, according to word received here by her relatives and friends. Although neighbors rushed to her assistance and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, Mrs. Archer was fatally burned and died later in a Portland hospital. Mrs. Archer had many friends in Walla Walla, having attended both grade and high school here and lived here until the last year, when she and her husband, formerly a city fireman, moved to Portland, where Mr. Archer is now a city employee. Her mother, Mrs. Mary H. Wills, East Alder street, was notified of her injuries at once and left for Portland, but did not arrive until after her daughter's death.

PRESSMEN WILL HAVE 44 HOUR WEEK IN 1921

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 11.—An agreement to establish the 44 hour week in 1921 was approved by the members of the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants Union of North America, according to an official announcement here of the results of a referendum vote cast in November.
