

News of Pendleton

Drive From Hellix in Snow.

Fred Moss and Carl Engdahl, of Hellix, drove in from the neighboring town last evening through 20 miles of snow. They reported the going rough and at times had difficulty keeping to the road.

Mrs. Bishop Speaks.

Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, formerly of Pendleton, now of Portland, addressed a meeting of the University of Oregon student body this morning at Eugene on the college campus. The talk was in connection with the campaign for funds for the University of Oregon Women's building.

Snowfall of 1916 Recalled.

The heavy snowfall of the winter of 1916 is recalled by a colored photograph of East Court street in February, 1916, showing snow piled high on the sides of the thoroughfare. That year there was close to four feet of snow. The picture is in the window of Major Lee Moorhouse's office.

Keator to Attend Convention.

District Attorney Roscoe I. Keator left today for Portland and Salem where he will attend the annual convention of district attorneys of Oregon, opening today. On Monday he will appear before the state supreme court to petition for a rehearing in the case of the State of Oregon vs. M. Z. Moss, wealthy Lake county stockman.

Councilmen Occupy Firesides.

Five councilmen occupied the family fireside last night instead of venturing out to do their duty by the city. As a result no quorum could be raised and there was no meeting held. There was little of importance to be acted upon and this business can wait over until the coming Wednesday.

Gasoline Lamps Dangerous.

Warning against allowing gasoline lights to burn all night in store buildings was issued today by Fire Chief Ringold. The lights, which are for emergency use only, are dangerous if left burning too long and will often explode or flicker and set fire to nearby objects. Fire was narrowly averted in a local jewelry store at 5 o'clock this morning by the firemen rousing the proprietor from bed to open the building and extinguish the light, which was flickering and menacing the wall paper.

Is Taking Vacation.

E. S. Koek, clerk in the United States Biological Survey office here, is spending a 12 day vacation in Ukiah. He is the guest of survey trappers.

Rearrangement Pleases Students.

The manual training department of the high school, under the direction of Orville Reeves has rearranged the lockers in the locker rooms. The new arrangement is much more satisfactory than formerly.

Dr. Waincott Here.

Dr. C. O. Waincott, of Hermiston, was in the city yesterday. Dr. Waincott recently returned after service in the medical corps of the army and was the first Umatilla county physician to enlist in the service.

Rabbit Poisoning Commences.

The rabbit poisoning campaign started in the west end of the county. The farmers put out poison on top of the snow. The rabbits are attacking the hay stacks, say farmers, and Butter creek farmers are putting up rabbit tight fences around the stacks and then putting poison out.

Chauncey Olcott on Train.

Chauncey Olcott, who will appear in Portland tonight in "Macushia," passed through Pendleton this morning on train No. 19. The Irish actor says that his company has suffered much because of railroad tie-ups. He has just completed a tour of Canada.

Knights Call Off Jaunt.

The pilgrimage of the local Knights of Pythias to Walla Walla today to meet Supreme Chancellor Charles R. Davis was postponed on account of the snow and cold. Autos were to have been used on the trip but these were found impracticable and there is no train to substitute.

Women Making Dress Forms.

Pilot Rock Women are showing great interest in the making of homemade dress forms, says Miss Ella May Harmon, county demonstration agent, who returned from Pilot Rock yesterday. Miss Harmon announces that anyone who is interested in this work may get the information from the women in charge in the various communities.

Causal Pictures Shown.

Motion pictures taken by William Finley were the best feature of the meeting of the Oregon Sportsmen's League in Portland recently says Stephen Jewett, who returned from Portland yesterday after attending the meeting. The pictures showed the "Parson" and coney of Mt. Rainier and were unique in that they were the first pictures of partridge and coney ever shown.

"Miracle Man" Delayed.

Owing to uncertainty of the electric light supply, the failure of the picture to reach here from Portland and the small patronage of shows because of transportation difficulties, the "Miracle Man," booked for the Arcade theater today, has been postponed until a later date. Until a picture is received from Portland in its place, the Arcade will be dark. The Pastime and Alta will continue to operate, however.

Has Distinguished Service Cross.

Hursey Dakin, of Freewater, who has a distinguished service cross for service in France, was in the city today to confer with R. G. White, federal vocational advisor. Dakin has decided to take up vocational training. He received shrapnel wounds and was gassed. He received a citation and the cross for gallant action as a member of the gas and flame corps in the St. Mihiel, the Argonne, and the Verdun sectors.

Here to Confer With White.

A. G. Stephens of Heppner, Ray C. Rehburg, of Albee, and William N. Spurlock of Heppner, were among the out-of-town ex-service men who were in the city to confer with the Red Cross and with R. G. White, federal vocational advisor, who was in the city for two days. Because of the stormy weather, the number of men who conferred with Mr. White was smaller than expected.

Carnival Plans Complete.

Plans for the high school athletic carnival, which comes tomorrow night are practically completed, even to sprinkling ashes on the sidewalk, in order that the crowd may climb the hill in safety. The ticket sale has been good and all indications point to the success of the affair. John Simpson and Roland Morrison as "clowns" from the boys' cadet corps and "Coco" from the boys' cadet corps and "Coco" from the boys' cadet corps and "Coco" from the boys' cadet corps are said to be features of the entertainment.

Title Between Rooks and Juniors.

In two fast, clean games of basketball the juniors beat the sophomores and the rooks beat the seniors at the high school last night. The juniors and freshmen will play in the finals Friday night at the athletic carnival. The series of class games started Monday evening and the results to date are as follows: Juniors won three, lost none; rooks, won two, lost one; seniors, won one, lost two; sophomores, lost three, won none. The games have all been refereed by Coach Earl E. Fleischman. No serious injuries have been sustained by any players though the games have been fast and furious at times. Good refereeing helped to keep the contests clean.
