

Social and Personal

Announcement was made today in behalf of the club that the meeting set for Saturday at the library club room for the organization of a general women's club in Pendleton has been postponed until better weather is at hand.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Falgout on Saturday evening were Mrs. E. F. Terney and Mrs. A. W. Rusk. White chrysanthemums decorated the living room while pink carnations were used in the dining room where the guests enjoyed a social hour after a business session and interesting program.

Mrs. John Holt, of Salt Lake City, arrived last evening for a visit at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moyer on College street. Mrs. Holt is to be here for a fortnight or so. The Hols are planning a trip to Hawaii early in the new year.

Call Off Story Hour.
The weekly story hour for small grade children was called off today because of the weather conditions. The hour is usually held on Saturday morning.

The home of Mrs. Kenneth G. Warner, 761 Jackson street, was the scene yesterday of an interesting meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church. Hostesses were Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Frank Holdman, Mrs. E. F. Terney and Mrs. A. W. Rusk. BELGIAN FAMILIES CAN NEVER LOCATE HOMES IN WASTE

All Means of Identifying Own Plots in No Man's Land Have Been Shot Away and New Allotments Must Be Made.

BY EDWIN W. HULLINGER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
YPERES, Belgium, Dec. 12.—Thousands of Belgian families probably never will find their former homes in No Man's Land.
All means of identifying them have been shot away.

EASILY TRACED

Thousands who are none too strong trace the present weakened state to influenza or some like-debilitating illness. Such could not do better than try the strength-restoring and body-building virtues of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

This efficient tonic is nourishment in a form that helps build up a healthy resistance. If you are not in your accustomed strength—rich, nourishing SCOTT'S EMULSION will help you. Try it!

The exclusive grade of cod liver oil used in Scott's Emulsion is the famous S. & B. Process, made in Norway and refined in our own American Laboratories. It is a guarantee of purity and palatability unsurpassed.

They will find homes, of course, somewhere in that desolate waste, but on what used to be somebody else's home. But the exact location of their own sacred bit of ground may forever remain a mystery.
Nearly five years of ceaseless bombardment has obliterated the landmarks upon which the pre-war land surveys were based. The oil boundaries which distinguished one farm from another have literally been pounded into the earth—too deep for resurrection.

New Distribution.
New surveys will come in time probably more scientific than the old. Everyone who once owned part of the great battlefield will receive something equal in size and as near as possible to where his former home is thought to have been.
But in another sense, this can never come. Nor can the old peace of mind ever fully return to folk so attached to their own little piece of earth that nothing less than certain death from shell-fire—and sometimes not even this—could induce them to desert it.
This is one phase of tomorrow's human story in that vast, cratered desolation which reaches here beyond e-range in every direction—once one of Belgium's most beautiful farming districts.

Few Return.
As yet, very few home-seekers have returned. Of these, some took one despoiling look at the miles of water-logged shell areas and climbed back in a train for the place from whence they came—to wait a few months more until the process of reclamation has had time to make a little progress.
Others are still searching among the ruined trenches and shell holes, filled with marshgrass and stagnant water for clues to their homes.
The big stone at the corner boundary—land from which, perhaps, all surveys for the entire neighborhood were made—the well in the front yard, the house, the barn, the shade tree over the gate—all have simply disappeared under war's terrible effacement. Nothing remains to indicate where they once were.

What will happen when the real vanguard of the exiled Arcadians finally arrives? Opinions here differ.
Disputes Feared.
Some predict a general scramble to stake out plots on the most desirable—or least undesirable—locations, a mild restaging of some of the incidents in our own American history, such as when the squatters rushed into the middle-west.
And then a long series of disputes and complications when others arrive who believe themselves the rightful owners of the "claims," with probably years of legal entanglements in court. For it is easily conceivable that under prevailing conditions it might be extremely difficult to dislodge a claim-jumper.

FOUND DEAD IN WELL.
WALLA WALLA, Dec. 12.—C. M. Bretherton, 59 years old, prosperous farmer living eight miles south of Prescott and 15 miles from here, was found dead in a well on his farm late Tuesday afternoon. Last seen alive two hours before, it is supposed that Bretherton lost his balance and fell into the well while drawing water for his stock. His widow and five children survive.

GERMAN CAPITALISTS TO OPPOSE WORKERS' VOICE

BY CARL D. GROUT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, Dec. 12.—Germany's capitalists are already laying their plans to thwart the workmen when the workers' council law giving labor a voice in industrial management becomes effective.
As drafted, the law gives workers a right to examine the corporation books at the end of each year. Presumably such a right would immediately lead to demands for greater participation in the company's profits when those were high.
But the big corporations do not propose to have their balances appear big at the end of the year.
May Doctor Balances.
Instead they will show the workmen either "doctored" balances or will form sort of holding companies whose business it will be to take the parent corporations' products at a comparatively low price and to then resell them at a normal rate. On the books of the first corporation—the books which the workmen of the councils will see—the company will appear to have made a smaller profit than it did in reality.
That such plans are afoot was quite openly admitted by one of the nation's prominent industrial leaders, and this statement was confirmed by other men in touch with industrial legislative affairs. In fact, when steps were under way to get the democrats to approve the book-examination portion of the law, interested legislators merely told their democratic colleagues that they "needed" more; the workers would not be able to make a case out of any big corporation books.
To Impress Foreigners.
Part of the planned deception is for the benefit of foreign countries. Of course, in the first instance it is based on the desire of the big industrialists to share their profits extensively with the laborers. But in the second place—and this is by no means a minor consideration with the German industrial captain—the promoter wants to

U. S. SWITCHES FROM POSITION OF "LEADER OF WORLD" TO "HERMIT"

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The United States, in the opinion of Sir Willoughby Dickinson, president of the British delegation at the convention of societies favoring the league of nations, which recently met in Brussels, has suddenly switched from the position of "world leader" to "hermit."
Dickinson today declared: "If America does not care to come into the league of nations, we will find a way to get along without her."
He said South American nations will be glad to enter the league.

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets for a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil in his private practice with great success.

Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and "pick up the spirits." 10c and 25c a box.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bother.
No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.
The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, get about four ounces of Jay Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. The famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer acquires irritating, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jay Salts is inexpensive and non-injurious; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
