Will Meet Classes in Federal Building.

The classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, conducted by Miss Stasia P. Walsh, will be held Monday afternoon and evening in the Red Cross headquarters in the federal building instead of in the library.

Teel Tunnel Work Delayed.

Owing to heavy snow and extreme cold at Albee, the base of operation for the Teel project, everything except work inside the tunnel has been closed down. The sawmill and the steam shovel, which is digging the canal, have both closed down and men are occupying firesides in the camp until warmer weather comes.

Associated Charities Wants List.

Persons knowing of any families in need of food, clothing, or other relief in Pendleton are requested by the Associated Charities of Pendleton to notify Mrs. G. W. Rugg, giving the name and address of the afflicted people, together with the nature of their needs. The society is anxious to relieve any suffering which may be experienced in the city.

Highway Work Forced to Suspend.

Highway work in most of the Eastern Oregon camps has been suspended temporarily, according to word from M. O. Bennett, district engineer, today. There is a two-foot blanket of snow all the way from the Dalles to Pendleton along the Columbia River highway route and in Central Oregon, about Prineville, there are four feet of snow. The camps are not being closed down, however, but the men are forced to cease work until conditions are changed. In a few places rock work is still being carried on.

The Late Mrs. William Kilgore, of Athena, was buried yesterday from the Baptist church at Athena. Mrs. Kilgore died here last Wednesday after a few weeks illness and was a victim of sleeping sickness. Mrs. Kilgore was 60 years of age and leaves a husband and two sons. A son, Edward Kilgore, died of pneumonia week before last.

Oregonian Carrier Freezes Feet.

Harold Anderson, north side carrier for the Morning Oregonian, froze both feet Thursday evening while delivering his papers. Efforts of J. A. Drake, local agent, to get a substitute have failed. Residents of Jackson street and vicinity, served by young Anderson, may get their Oregonian by calling at Griggs' cigar store, Mr. Drake announced. The boy is at home and probably will recover.

Will Arrive on No. 6.

Pendleton ministers who have been attending the Inter Church Movement training conference in Portland are expected to arrive today on No. 6, which will be here at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. Francis Morgan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. H. Cox, pastor of the Baptist, Rev. R. E. Gornall, pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. Robert Lee Bussabarger, pastor of the Christian church, attended the conference from Pendleton.

Not Doing Much Shopping

Local stores report that despite the early closing regulation which requires that stores close at 4 p. m., Pendleton people are not doing much shopping in the morning hours or during the early afternoon. Clerks fear a great Christmas rush because of the reduction of the shopping hours and the fact that so little of the usual holiday shopping is being done. Because of the new regulation, clerks are working shorter hours and have a shorter noon hour.

Will Get Mounts for Seeds.

To aid the teachers of the eighth grade in Umatilla county schools, Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent, has applied to the farm crops department of O. A. C. for identification mounts containing samples of weed seeds and seeds of plants which have economic value. School pupils have had difficulty in identifying the various weeks, such as pigweed, dodder, etc., as well as alfalfa seed. The mounts will serve as a means of identification. The mounts will cost about 75 cents each and will be bought by the school boards, one for each school.

County High Tuition Money Out.

HERMISTON SCHOOL IN SEAL CAMPAIGN

HERMISTON, Dec. 13.—The Hermiston high school students have undertaken the sale of the city's quota of $100 of Red Cross Christmas seals. The school is divided into two sections and the side that sells the highest number of seals will be entertained by the locers. Dewey Payne, sophomore, and Reinhart Buhman, junior, are leaders.

TABOR PAIR EXPECTED IN MICHIGAN MONDAY

LAWTON, Mich., Dec. 13.—Startled by revelations contained in testimony already given, officials conducting the inquest into the death of Maude Tabor, victim of Lawton's trunk murder mystery, are awaiting today the arrival from California of Mrs. Sarah Taborand Walter Tabor, mother and brother respectively of the slain girl. The inquest has been postponed until Monday, when it is expected the mother and broteher will be here.

Sensational testimony was given at the session of the inquest by Alfred S. Warthin, pathologist of the University of Michigan. Warthin asserted, on the basis of a post mortem examination, that Maude Tabor died of an illegal operation at childbirth. But for the operation, indications were that both the woman and the child would have lived.

The testimony of Joseph Virgo, undertaker, who admitted six marriages claiming Maude Tabor as his fifth wife, but who denies knowledge of the circumstances surrounding her death, is being checked up. Officials declare the net of circumstantial evidence involving Virgo is tightening.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK ANNOUNCES RATE RISE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The federal reserve bank has announced another advance in interest rates from 4 1-4 to 4 1-2 per cent on loans to member banks not exceeding 15 days and secured by 4 1-4 per cent United States certificates of indebtedness.

On liberty bonds, victory notes and notes of customers secured by similar forms of collateral the rate of interest was advanced from 4 1-2 to 4 3-4 per cent.

The federal reserve bank also advanced from 4 1-2 to 4 3-4 per cent its rediscount rates for notes, drafts and bills of exchange maturing within 30 days and secured by liberty bonds or victory notes.
