CHRISTMAS.

Ring out, Glad Bells, 'tis Christmas Day! With joyful peal and lingering chime Make glad our hearts, that joy sublime May be with us this Christmas time.

Ring out, Sweet Bells, 'tis Christmas Time! Though Memory aches, and teardrops fall, Make glad our hearts—for He rules all, And weighs our burdens ere they fall.

Ring out a Challenge staunch and brave— Cheer every sad and aching breast, Give peace and joy to the distressed— Give comfort to a world oppressed.

Ring out, Ye Bells, ring loud and clear— We honor now our Lord and King, Let every heart His praises sing.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

THE Reds who were deported on the Buford did not want to go, strange to say. "The czar in his worst days never did anything like this," said Emma Goldman.

Indeed not. The czar sent his prisoners to Siberia. Uncle Sam is sending these alien radicals to the anarchist's heaven—to Petrograd or thereabouts.

That is the land the radicals have been exploiting and asking America to emulate. Then what kindness in sending them there? But the Reds did not want to go. They cried bloody murder or words to that effect.

But the proof of the pudding is in the eating and if the radicals do not like Russia under anarchistic rule their argument for bolshevism in America goes a-glimmering.

Christmas is the great children's holiday and we all come in that class for men and women are but children grown.

A concluded peace treaty and a League of Nations would have been a fitting present for a war worn world and it will be forthcoming sooner or later.

We need more reservoirs to conserve this Eastern Oregon flood water for irrigation purposes.

Merry Christmas and many of them.

William Desmond in

"The Blue Bandanna"

A rollicking good story wherein Desmond turns crook, bandit and detective for love of a girl. How he cleverly unearths a stage robber gives this photoplay an unusual twist.

Chevrolet "Royal Mail" (Model FB) Roadster, $1110 f. o. b. Flint, Michigan

"Royal Mail" (Model FB) Roadster

THE new "Royal Mail" (Model FB) Roadster possesses all the advantages of the two-passenger car design together with many of the comforts and pleasing appointments found only in larger cars.

Every detail of its appointment reflects unusual appreciation of the needs of those who motor. It is comfortable in the extreme.

In the rear of the body a spacious compartment has been provided with ample capacity for several large suit cases or other such articles, which can be stored away out of sight and yet within convenient access. Furthermore, at the top of the seat in the inside, is another compartment which furnishes a very convenient receptacle for the side curtains or small packages. The exterior appearance is equally pleasing.
