

Social and Personal

A charming event of yesterday was the bridge luncheon for which Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. C. F. Coleworthy, Mrs. Sylvia Cohn and Mrs. Lyman Rice were hostesses at the attractive Rice home on Wilson street. Guests found their places at 1 o'clock about blossom-decked tables, each board being centered by a cluster of Ophelia roses and Maidenhair fern. Marking the covers were dainty buttonholes of the fern and ruscias.

At the cards which followed in the afternoon hours, Mrs. Laura D. Nash was awarded a pretty trophy for her score.

Hidden to share the delightful affair were Mrs. S. R. Thompson, Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Mrs. James Johns, Mrs. James S. Johns, Mrs. G. A. Hartman, Mrs. Lena Sturgis, Mrs. J. R. Haley, Mrs. C. S. Jerard, Mrs. Alvin Shusher, Mrs. Dale Shusher, Mrs. J. B. Perry, Mrs. H. I. Keator, Mrs. H. J. Warner, Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones, Mrs. Northrup Beckley, Mrs. J. B. McCook, Mrs. F. E. Fudd, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Reuben Alexander, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mrs. F. E. Boyden, Mrs. H. D. Sayers, Mrs. Neva Lane, Mrs. R. L. Burroughs, Mrs. H. W. Collins, Mrs. James Sturgis, Mrs. J. F. Robinson and Mrs. E. T. Wade.

Announcements are being received in Pendleton today of the marriage of Miss Maude Elizabeth Downs of Louisville, Ky., and Earl Fleischman of Pendleton, the service having occurred in Louisville on Thursday December 23.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Downs of Louisville, Ky. Mr. Fleischman is a graduate of the University of Oregon, is instructor in English in the Pendleton High School. He also serves as musical director, military instructor and athletic coach. Mr. Fleischman came to Pendleton in September and with his bride will return to make his home here. He departed for the South the middle of December and although intimate friends knew his destination the news of his wedding comes as a general surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton of La Grande will be New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rice at their home on North Main street.

The Order of Eastern Star is preparing to hold an open installation on Tuesday, January 4 to which all members of Eastern Chapter are asked to invite a friend, and also a called meeting for Jan. 3 for the hour of 7:30 at which all present officers and officers to be installed are asked to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Walter of Walla Walla, and Mr. Walter's brother, George Walter, of Michigan, are visitors in Pendleton for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Hook left today for a two month's stay in Spokane.

Royal Neighbors of America will install officers on New Year's evening, a regular session of the lodge being called for 7:30 o'clock tomorrow in Moose Hall.

The birthday anniversary of A. M. Winn was made delightful yesterday when a group of friends were asked in to a 6 o'clock dinner to surprise him. U. S. Wennerstein, S. Geiss, Kenneth McLean, George Ferguson and J. C. Woodworth share the pleasure of the event with the honor guest and found places about a table made charming in dainty appointments of red and white. A central cluster of crimson carnations was replaced for the final course by candle-decked birthday cake.

Kill Kare Klub members will enjoy a New Year's day dancing party tomorrow evening when they meet in Eagle-Woodman hall for the first 1920 number of their series. Mrs. Charles Gredlich is chairman of the hostess committee and the party plans to assemble at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Vaughan are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter. The little maid who arrived Monday evening weighs nine and one half pounds.

Beneath a bower of pink and white carnations banked in a profusion of feathery green, Miss Malinda Marguerite Eggers and Joe C. Hawkins were united in marriage at the H. G. S. Eggers residence at 400 Jackson street at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. A. Hlasberg, pastor of the Lutheran Church officiated and the couple chose as attendants, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

The bride's gown charmingly combined satin with ivory toned crepe de chine and she wore a veil caught up by a band of orange blossoms. Her train of honor was attired in a becoming costume of crepe de chine in gray.

A dinner at the Eggers home followed the marriage ceremony and covers at the attractive table were laid for 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins are to make their home near Cold Springs where the grove is farming the Eggers ranch ordinarily known as the Cole place. He is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College and came to eastern Oregon from Corvallis after receiving his degree in 1917. He was in government service until recently.

His bride who formerly attended school in Pendleton returned two years ago after having specialized in a business course at Long Beach, Cal.

Among wedding guests was Mrs. R. H. O'Neil of American Falls, Idaho, a sister of the bride.

Ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary society will meet with the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church as hostesses on Friday at 2:30 in the Methodist church.

Pink and pink in a myriad of dainty streamers fluttered over scores of dancers in Eagle-Woodman hall last evening when the girls of the Phoenix club were hostesses for their annual holiday ball. The festoons, caught up to the central electrolite extended to the bordered walls and balcony, and wreaths of fir and holly encircled windows, low-backed kowpies which fitted with the dancers with surprising frequency from nook and cranny.

The grand march was led by Miss Helen Idleman and Claude Snow. Four little maids in fluffy frocks of pink and blue distributed programs to the guests. They were Kathryn Furnish, Roberta Morrison, Jane Isaacs and Florence Fletcher. The little assistants later dispensed punch to the dancers and distributed kowpies, horns and balloons during a unique feature number.

Patronesses for the event were Mrs. H. D. Jones, Mrs. L. D. Adelman, Mrs. G. M. Morrison, Mrs. F. J. McMonie, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mrs. W. C. Minnis, Mrs. C. R. Isaacs, Mrs. E. S. Wilkes, Mrs. W. D. Humphrey, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Mrs. W. M. Kirtley, Mrs. W. D. McNary, Mrs. E. M. Temple, Mrs. G. Edmonds, Mrs. W. W. Fletcher, and Mrs. S. H. Porshaw.

Miss Esther Cole and Miss Gladys Sprague, popular young ladies from Joseph are spending the holidays visiting Miss Cole's sister, Mrs. Percy Carmon.

Richard Rice is to be host this evening to a party of friends, several couples having been asked informally to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rice, on Wilson street, for an evening of dancing.

Carl Cooley returned yesterday from Portland where he spent Christmas with relatives.

Joseph B. Williams, of Sweet Water, Idaho, is in Pendleton today on a visit.

Miss Maude S. Moore, of Cayuse, was shopping in Pendleton today.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Gray and son, Rexford Jr., left this afternoon for Helix where they will spend New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Garlen Gray.

P. J. Bauer, of Wallula, was a business visitor to Pendleton Monday afternoon.

Wants Whole World to Join America in Singing "Sweet Dry and Dry"

Ernest Hurst Cherrington, head of the World League Against Alcoholism, Ernest Hurst Cherrington wants every last mortal on earth to join the United States in singing the chorus of "In the Sweet Dry and Dry." The league was organized to establish world-wide prohibition. One of Cherrington's associates, William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson was mobbed recently in London by students who rode him on a plank through the streets. One of Johnson's eyes was so badly injured during the anti-prohibition demonstration that it was removed to save the sight of the other.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PRESS URGES AMERICANIZATION

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 31.—The broader scope of its Americanization work the St. Louis Association of Foreign Language Newspapers, 323 Walnutwright Building, has decided by a unanimous vote of its members that each paper shall contain an "Americanization Column," which will be edited by Hagibasar K. Haghdjian, director of Americanization for the Women's Chamber of Commerce.

MILADY IS VERY MUCH RUFFLED THESE DAYS

BY MARGARET RHODE (Written for the United Press.) Belinda is very much ruffled these days.

Up one side, down t'other and devious ways, And not just her garments are ruffled 'tis true Belinda's sweet temper is oft ruffled too.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—An eruption of ruffles has become almost a universal epidemic in the fashionable world. They are breaking out on all sides—feminine sides of course—and flaunting their flamboyant fluffiness with fetching fascination.

Ruffles are used most effectively as a first aid to hips-sort of reinforcements on the side lines. They run up and down, in diagonal cascades and fanning their flamboyant fluffiness, with fetching fascination.

Ruffles are no more confined to light and fluffy materials either. Designers this season are ruffling divyets, velvets, serges and gabardines with unbiased impartiality, but often biased ruffles. A Pompeian red divyets with cascade ruffles over each hip extending to the knee shows the edges of the ruffles revealed to a depth of an inch and a half. The short skirt is ruffled on the edge as are also the edges of the short tight sleeves.

NEW CURB IS PLACED ON VICIOUS RADICALS

ALBANY, Dec. 30.—Added protection against the bomb thrower and carrier of concealed weapons is expected to result from the amendment to the penal law which recently became effective.

explosive substance with intent to use it against the person or property of another is guilty of a felony. Under the new statute, aliens are not to be given permits to carry concealed weapons. The new law defines a weapon that can be concealed as a blackjack, bill, club, sandbag, metal knuckles, bludgeon, dagger, dirk, dangerous knife, razor, athletic pistol or firearm of such size that it can be concealed about the person.

AUTOGRAPHIC BROWNIES

Whoever may be reading this advertisement—whether it be some little tot who is laboriously spelling out the words or whether it be grandma who has called in high-powered glasses to her aid—you, anyone can get good pictures with a Brownie.

The Folding Autographic Brownies work very much like Kodaks—in fact they are made in Kodak factories by Kodak workmen. Like the Kodak, too, they are autographic, enabling the user to write the date and title on the film at the time.

They range in price from $10.18 to $19.95. Box Brownies, $2.86 to $5.97.
