TWO YOUTHS DRAW LIFE SENTENCES IN PRISON

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Judge Nott yesterday in General Sessions sentenced Edward Earle Paige, nineteen years old, and Edward O'Brien, sixteen years old, to life terms in Sing Sing for the murder last summer of Gardner C. Hull, aged stationer, in his office at No. 108 Fulton street.

The youths were indicted on charges of murder in the first degree, but when arraigned before Judge Nott they pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree. Through good behavior they may be released from prison in twenty years. When they were arrested, several days after the slaying of Mr. Hull, O'Brien admitted he struck the aged man on the head several times with a hammer to permit Paige to rob him of about $200 in coins and bills which the stationer had spread out in front of him on his desk. They declared they did not intend to kill Mr. Hull, but merely intended to stun him so that he would not interfere with the robbery.

FACULTY TO CONFER ON LIVING COSTS TO DETERMINE PAY

PULLMAN, Jan. 1.—Organization of the faculty members of Washington state college for the purpose of collecting data on increasing living costs with a view to asking again for salary increases by supporting agitation for salary increases was announced here today by Professor H. W. Cordell, secretary of the executive committee named by the teaching force.

MOSCOW KAPPA SIGS EAT TURKEY BUT PAY PRICE WHEN PRESSED

MOSCOW, Idaho, Jan. 1.—Charles Chestnut lost 15 geese before Thanksgiving. Chestnut lives about two miles from town. He appealed to the Moscow mayor, and City Marshal Robbins was not on the case. Robbins investigated. Tracks in Chestnut's field led toward the University of Idaho. Robbins telephoned the Kappa Sigma fraternity home, remarking that the geese must be paid for by a certain hour. Before the hour set a check for $47.50 reached Robbins, $3 each for the geese and $2.50 for the marshal.

Never judge the complexion of a man's wife by the stray hair you find on his coat sleeve.

WARMER WEATHER AIDS INSTALLING OF PUMPS

PASCO, Jan. 1.—Engineers in charge of the work of installing the new unit and pumping plant for Franklin county irrigation district No. 1 have reported that since the coming of warmer weather the work is progressing satisfactorily. The manufacturers reported that the pumps would be delivered on schedule time.

Workmen have started building the canal, which will carry water to the additional lands to be irrigated. Unless unusual weather conditions should interfere, the system will be completed in time to irrigate many new acres this coming season.

VULTURE ENDS POULET FLIGHT IN AIR RACE

MULMAIN, Burma, Jan. 1.—Lieutenant Edmond Poulet, the Frenchman who recently yielded the Paris-Australia air race to Captain Ross Smith is safe here today after an adventure in the air with a huge vulture, which broke a propeller of his machine and forced him to land on a small plateau in the mountains.

Lieut. Poulet left Bangkok, Siam, on December 6, ten hours after Captain Smith and direct word of his fate had been lacking until last night, when he landed here in his machine. The vulture, doubtless drawn into range of the propeller blades by the suction, was killed.
