

Social and Personal

The Epiphany festival was celebrated by the Church of the Redeemer last evening with a tea at the rectory, the Twelfth day, January 6 or the twelfth day after Christmas being kept in the church calendar in commemoration of the coming of the Magi to Jesus at Bethlehem or as others maintain the appearance of the star to the Magi, symbolizing the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

A Christmas carol sung at the Yuletide service by Robert La Dow was repeated by request at the tea last evening and Miss Sophia Anderson sang a group of charming solos while Miss Dorothy Lockwood gave a short instrumental program.

At the tea table, Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones and Mrs. J. C. Snow presided and a feature unique to the festival day, was an Epiphany cake, containing the ring, thimble, peas and beans with which tradition has endowed it, to the caper of the ring falling the lot of entertainment with the next Epiphany tea. Mrs. E. J. Murphy won the trophy. The cake made its appearance at the tea table gaily decked with gleaming candles.

How Competition Helps You

The competition that exists among the hundreds of meat distributors, large and small, means

Rivalry in Prices
Rivalry in Service
Rivalry in Economy
Rivalry in Quality

Swift & Company sells meat at the lowest possible price, consistent with quality and service. Our profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products is evidence of keen competition.

Swift & Company must provide the best service to your dealer or he will buy from our competitors. This means a supply of fine fresh meat always on hand for you at your dealer's.

Swift & Company must keep down manufacturing and selling costs, and use all by-products to avoid waste, or else lose money meeting the prices of competitors who do.

Swift & Company must make its products of the highest quality, or see you turn to others. This means better meat for you and a greater variety of appetizing, wholesome food.

We are as glad for this competition as you should be. It helps to keep us on our mettle.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood, and purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does, without any of the bad after effects. Take one or two every night for a week and note the pleasing effect. 10c and 25c a box.
