7000 STUDENTS MEET IN DES MOINES CONVENTION

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 8.—Plans for furthering the Christian evangelization of the world are being laid by more than 7,000 students and missionaries here this week; delegates to the quadrennial conference of the Students' Volunteer Movement. The plans were to be outlined by prominent laymen of the Presbyterian and Methodist denominations.

Nearly every large American and Canadian university and college was represented. The missionaries came from all parts of the globe.

The conference was not to be held by any set program, leaders said, but would choose its speakers, daily, from its audience.

Among the prominent workers in the missionary field to be present are: Rev. Samuel M. Werner, editor of the Mission World, and for twenty-two years a missionary in Arabia; Dr. John R. Mott, noted scholar and diplomat; Mr. Robert E. Sprague, senior secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church of the United States; S. Earl Taylor, one of the co-ordinate corresponding secretaries of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church of the United States, and George Sherwood Eddy, missionary from India.

Joseph Frisco, said to be 102 years of age, is dead at Walla Walla. He was a Hungarian by birth and fought in the Komuch revolution and with the Union forces in the Civil war. He had resided at Walla Walla since 1872.

SON OF CORNELL DEAN BREAKS PAROLE, GIVEN PENITENTIARY TERM

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Charged with violating his parole by forging checks, committing thefts and getting drunk, Donald Hammond, age 24, son of William Hammond, dean of Cornell university, was sentenced today to a term of three and one-half to seven years in state prison. Hammond was placed on probation under a suspended sentence last August after he had pleaded guilty to forging a check for $2000.

Hammond's escapades since being placed on probation took him to Atlantic City, Maine and New Hampshire. Finally his friends virtually deported him to Canada in an effort to make him "go straight." The life in Manitoba proved too tame for him, however, and he went to Boston, where he stole $15,000 worth of bonds, pleaded guilty to the name of an alleged murderer he met in the Tongs and succeeded in obtaining a suspended sentence under that name.

Hammond has a long war record. He enlisted in the Canadian army in 1914 and was wounded at Ypres. He came back to this country without being discharged and later returned to England where he joined the royal air force and was again wounded.
