Farm Record Books

The occupation of farming is long past the stage of experimenting. Besides being more or less a profession, it is a business proposition from start to finish. Business requires an exact knowledge of facts. Keep a record of facts and you have it. The American National furnishes Record Books which are arranged to fit your farm business, free, as long as the supply lasts. Call, write or phone for one.

Potatoes Will Probably Be $6.
The prospect of $6 potatoes seems certain, say Pendleton grocers. A carload of potatoes is expected here this week and the estimated price is from $5.50 to $6 a sack.

Walla Walla Breeders

Announce Four Sales.
The Walla Walla Purebred Breeders association met this week and made plans for four big sales this year. The first will be a cattle and swine sale February 20; second, dairy cattle and swine sale, about April 1; third, sheep sale during the fair; fourth, beef cattle sale about November 1. W. G. Cordner will be sales manager.

Vegetable Seed Will Be Cheaper.

Vegetable seed will be cheaper this year and there is rejoicing among gardeners. Grass and pasture seed supplies of the United States are so scarce at this time that sharp advances are being forced in the price. Red clover is up 1 cent for the day, while alfalfa has advanced 5 cents a pound within the last week. This higher price and scarcity of offerings is due to the great demand for all grass seeds from France and other portions of Europe. As a rule France sells much clover seed to this country but the trade is now reversed.

Hogs Hold Firmer

With Cattle Mixed.
There were only two loads of live-stock reported in for the Wednesday trade and these were scattered in various departments. Hogs held firmer, cattle mixed and sheep holding.

JAR TO H. C. L. SEEN IN WARNING TO BANKERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Governor Harding of the federal reserve warned the nations noted bankers in conference here yesterday that "further" increase in the discount rates of the federal reserve banks is a contingency which must be reckoned with. This was taken to mean that the government is nearly ready to contract credits and put a brake on speculation, bring business back to peacetime standing. Officials say it would mean the nations currency, vastly inflated during the war, would be contracted. This inflation has been considered the main reason for the high cost of living.

ABBIE'S ENEMIES PLAY CRUEL HOAX AND ELECT HIM PRESIDENT—NEARLY

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—She's a man; or rather he's not a woman—in other words Abbie C. Wisler alleged candidate for the republican presidential nomination in the South Dakota primaries is a husky male living in an unpretentious section of Chicago. Incidentally he is gunning for the joker who notified the secretary of state of South Dakota that Abbie wanted to run for president.

"The fish didn't even spell my name right," Wisler indignantly told the interviewer. "No, I'm not a woman either, and I'm not going to run for president—and that's all. Oh, wait a minute. I could not run anyway, I'm only 28 years old."

It seems that Abbie ran for state representative on the republican ticket in the fifteenth district a couple of years ago. He suspects some of his bitter opponents in that battle of perpetrating the hoax, which has been cluttering up the Wisler mail box with official documents from South Dakota the last few days.

"We're plain Jewish people," said Abbie's mamma, "and we don't like such foolish business. Abbie doesn't want to be president."
