

Social and Personal

One of the most important events of interest to members of the Eastern Star was the open installation Tuesday evening, the ceremony being beautiful and impressive in every detail.

The officers were installed by Past Patron E. T. Avison, Mrs. Clara Burroughs, marshal; Mrs. Anna Ireland, chaplain, and Mrs. Maye Hazar, musician.

A flag ceremony with lectures was impressive and Mrs. Tom Robertson sang two solos, "My Rosary" and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Following the first half of the service, Mrs. Hazar sang the installation solo, "The Star of the East." Mrs. Robert Radd accompanied her at the piano, and at the close of installation Mr. Avison gave an interesting talk on the work of the lodge, highly complimenting Bushee chapter on what it has accomplished. At the close of the program, Joseph N. Scott sang the solo, "Out On the Beach," with "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" for an encore.

As a complete surprise and tribute to the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Lesta Brown, she was escorted to the worthy matron station and presented with a gold chain and canon brooch. The presentation to which she replied in a charming way was made by Mrs. Pauline Jones Kay, the matron installed.

The elective officers which took their new positions Tuesday evening are Mrs. Kay, worthy matron; J. C. Woodworth, worthy patron; Miss Emily McBroome, associate matron; Mrs. Edna Woodworth, conductress; Mrs. Mary C. Baker, associate conductress; Mrs. Mary E. Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Anna Storie, treasurer.

The appointive officers for 1920 are: Mrs. Helen Mathews, Adar; Miss Rita Ferguson, Ruth; Miss Eula Simpson, Esther; Mrs. J. Glen Miller, Martha; Mrs. Elvira Baker, Electa; Mrs. Tom Robertson, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Conroy, vander, and C. H. Conroy, sentinel.

Nearly 100 Eastern Star members and their invited friends attended the installation service and enjoyed an informal reception given by the new and retiring officers. Adjoining to the dining room a light buffet supper was served, appointments being developed in pink and delicate pink streamers forming a drop ceiling overhead.

Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. Jessie Perry, Mrs. Kay and Miss McBroome.

DOES PREFERENCE FOR GOLF INSTEAD OF WIFE CONSTITUTE CRUELTY?

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Does a husband's preference for golf, instead of his wife's company, constitute legal cruelty?

That is one of the knotty questions Justice Sheppard, a lord of legal talent, and London newspapers are striving to answer. And, incidentally, the administrator of the law must decide whether golfing propensities of a husband entitles a neglected wife to separate maintenance or divorce.

The problem arose out of the separation suit of Mrs. Madeline Violet Hadden, wife of Harvey Hadden, who in her petition alleged that her husband spent practically all of his spare moments on the golf course instead of at home.

Hadden, who is quite wealthy, with a yearly income of about $50,000, has employed an imposing corps of legal talent, including the Hon. Holman Gregory, M. P., and others, all of whom are ardent devotees of the links.

Even the judge has confessed being acquainted with the "considerable attractions of the golf course at Bodeligh Salterton" where the defendant is alleged to have spent the time demanded by his wife.

Leave Baby on Doan's. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 8.—A 3-year-old baby boy was left by unknown persons on the doorstep of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Baker, last evening. The couple found the babe at the door in a leather bag and have decided to keep the wee one.

Army Stores Burned. NANTUCKET, Jan. 8.—Vast stocks, including army stocks on St. Anne Island near the state railroad station were destroyed by fire last night with their contents.

SILK SWEATER

A silk navy blue sweater is a comfortable and attractive garment which keeps warmth in the body and at the same time does not burden with its weight. It corresponds to the "smoking jacket" of a man in the house, for comfort, and on the street, worn underneath a coat, is an attractive addition to the dress, as well as an added protection. White frilled collar and cuffs add to the attractiveness of the sweater for indoor wear.

WAR ON DIVORCE LAW

LONDON—Making infidelity the sole ground for divorce in England is being fought by the Divorce Law Reform Union, secretary of which is Mrs. M. L. Seton-Friedman (upper right). She cites the case of Lady Lawson (left), who cannot be divorced because infidelity cannot be proved. Adrian H. Hassard-Short, (lower right), secretary of the "Poor Persons' Division" of the divorce court, seeks to make divorce proceedings cheaper to afford use of these courts by the poor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Lady Marie, Soviet "ambassador" is hiding in Washington, department of justice officials believe today. His "embassy" here is preparing a statement which Martens hopes to make before the sub-committee of the senate foreign relations committee.

LISTS OF GUILTY ARE FINISHED BY ALLIES

PARIS, Jan. 8.—The interallied commission charged with fixing the methods of procedure in the trials of Germans guilty of war crimes is in session today to assist the allied armies to each country for trial. Pull lists have been completed.

Due to the fact that French senatorial elections will begin Sunday, in connection with the resignation of the cabinet and the formation of a new cabinet January 15, France will postpone to the future, it is understood that it is impossible for the present government to undertake additional peace problems which cannot be decided before that date. Hence, all remaining problems will be left to the new conference, in which the French cabinet will participate.

FOLK-LORE STORIES IN "MY HONOLULU GIRL"

Alfred Amann, leader of the troupe of Hawaiian musicians, dancers and singers with Norman Friedman's musical comedy, "My Honolulu Girl," which comes to the Oregon Theatre, Sunday Jan. 11, tells many folk-lore stories of the volcano Kilauea which is shown in action during the progress of the play.

"That volcano is almost human," he says. "When I was a child I often sat at my mother's knee while old Kilauea was rumbling and belching forth lava and listened in exquisite terror to the tale of 'Pelo,' the Goddess of Fire. According to the story, 'Pelo' lived deep in the bowels of the volcano crater and the rumbling was her voice raised in anger."

"We were told that in the olden days before the Americans came to enlighten us, the natives, hearing the rumble of the volcano, would seek to appease the wrath of the mythical Goddess of Fire by throwing live goats and sheep into the crater. Occasionally they sacrificed a child."

a uniform method of handling temporary license numbers for automobiles. Much abuse of the present system has been reported and dealers as well as the traffic officials brand the issuance of the paper "license applied for" signs as unsatisfactory. Mr. Simpson asked the council to consider the system in use in Portland, which requires buyers of new cars to get a 10-day permit from the police department for use until the state license and plates are received. City Attorney Fee was instructed to look into the legal phases of the proposition.

Auto Camp Discussed. C. E. Cranston, commercial association secretary, presented before the council the matter of a permanent auto camping ground for tourists and invited the cooperation of the council with the association and with the automobile association. A committee consisting of P. J. McMenies, William Dunn and Claude E. Penland, was appointed by Mayor Vaughan to work with the other committees.

An ordinance was passed providing for the payment of $215 for the city's street flusher. Twenty-five hundred in cash is to be paid now and a warrant drawn for the balance, $185, to draw interest from date and be payable on or before April 19, 1920. City Attorney Fee was asked to ascertain whether the city must purchase a state license for the flusher. If that is necessary, the cost will be $105 under the new schedule. Municipal vehicles are understood, under provisions of the law, to be exempt.

Sewer made in the east end of the city were mentioned and the committee on sewers instructed to view conditions in the Turner street vicinity, where a sewer will be necessary as soon as work can be undertaken.

Gets Leave of Absence. Councilman Henry J. Taylor requested and was granted a leave of absence for the next two months, during which time he will be in California. Among the reports which were filed were the annual reports of the fire chief, library board and recorder. The December fire report showed that there were six fires during the month with a total loss of $5100.
