AN OVERSEAS DIARY

(By Rev. J. E. Cornelson who served with the Y. M. C. A. overseas.)

Monday, Sept. 7.—Have divided our stock and Bob Westfield and I went to establish a canteen near Winceseele for the 3rd battalion. The men were exceedingly glad and almost bought us out by night. We are in an old barn where the men are billeted. These soldiers are a pretty jolly bunch. They are rather rough and somewhat vulgar in their talk, yet not awfully bad. The real man and the gentleman shines through on the least provocation.

I am compelled to sleep in pants, at least tonight. The reason is that I am a sort of cash register. In one pocket are 50 francs; another 20 francs; another 10 francs, another 5 francs bills. They are buying so I can't expect a very comfortable sleep, but I have no earthly place to put them as the men's beds join right against my cot.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, January 10, 1892.)

A young unbranded horse was stolen on Friday from the pasture of S. P. Hutchinson near Pendleton yesterday in broad daylight.

H. O. Mousu is building a residence on lower Webb street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Parkes are both confined to their home because of sickness.

Wesley Matlock has returned from Portland. He was accompanied by J. E. Jones, a young man from Portland who is en route to his home in the east.

Miss Laura, Miss Verdi Turner and Miss Anna Marshall, who have been spending the holidays in this city, returned yesterday to resume their studies at St. Helens hall. Miss Turner was accompanied by her brother, R. M. Turner, who will remain a day or two in Portland.

YOUNG 1920 SPLASHES INTO CHICAGO THROUGH RIVER OF HIP BOOZE

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Young 1920 splashed into Chicago through a river of hip booze. While the celebration was rather tame compared with previous years, there was no particular shortage of red liquor.

Cabarets and cafes had to lock their doors early when all available accommodations were gobbled up. Police had orders to take names of hips. They turned in note books to those who carried liquor on their hips. They turned in note books today filled with Smiths and Jones and at least two large families had headaches.

HUSBAND SURVIVES WIFE BY ONLY A FEW HOURS

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—Happiness reigned in the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Boetter. On January 14 they were to celebrate their 54th year of married life, and plans were made for the proper observance of the occasion.

Boetter walked into the kitchen. Suffering an acute attack of nephritis, he fell unconscious. Mrs. Boetter ran to him. The shock was such that she collapsed in a chair.

Mrs. Augusta Wiese, a daughter, found them. Both were unconscious. Mrs. Boetter died at 7:30 o'clock and Boetter a few hours later. They were buried in the same grave.

The husband was 51 years old; the wife 71. He was a retired dry goods merchant.

PIE CART DRIVERS WILL MAKE 90 DOLLARS PER WEEK

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—It's pie to drive a pie cart. Under a new agreement made by the bakers' union today, pie cart drivers will make as high as $90 a week.
