ACCUSED INDIAN IN 30-MILE CHASE FAILS TO OUTWIT OFFICER

THE DALLES, Jan. 10.—After a sensational chase covering more than 30 miles in which Sheriff Christman of Wasco county and a host of others were pursuing, Charles Boyce, an Indian and alleged forger of more than $700 worth of checks on the Maupin State bank is here behind the bars, following his escape from Christman at Yakima while the sheriff was purchasing transportation for himself and Boyce to The Dalles.

The chase led over the hills adjacent to Yakima and the handcuffed Indian, with all the cunning of his race, leaped into the swollen and cold Naches river and swam to the other side to evade pursuit. He nearly perished in his exploit. On foot, on horseback and with automobiles, the Redman was followed and surrounded about 25 miles out of Yakima. He was brought safely here by Christman, who has upheld his record of never having lost a prisoner during the 14 years he has been Wasco sheriff. Bonds for the Indian were placed at $500, which he was unable to raise.

"MY HONOLULU GIRL" IS SINGY-SONG SHOW

That delightful original piece, "My Honolulu Girl" with its Hawaiian setting, its beautiful costumes, its remarkable scenic effects, its native dancers, singers and instrumentalists and its hosts of pretty girls, comes to the Oregon Theater, Sunday, Jan. 11, and Manager Wright firmly believes the house record for attendance will be broken.

"My Honolulu Girl," with its company of thirty-five artists in this season's big musical success. It is a mélange of smart dancing, weird haunting, Hawaiian melodies, clean comedy, and pretty girls. It has been frequently called a "Singsy-song show in a class by itself."

The Hawaiian atmosphere which pervades the entire show; the real live natives playing ukeleles and steel stringed guitars, the dances of the flower blessed islands and the scenes from the land of enchantment, all serve to place "My Honolulu Girl" in the front rank of musical comedy successes. Norman Friedenwald who produced "My Honolulu Girl" believes it is the best piece of stage craft he has conceived.
