News of Pendleton

Hamleys Buy Power Showcases.
Showcases and a portion of the stock carried by E. L. Power were purchased today by Hamley & Co., and moved to their store. They did not purchase the chief part of the stock, which consists of leather goods, however.

Annual Meeting This Evening.
The annual meeting of the directors and stockholders of the American National Bank will be held this evening at 7:30. At that time a new assistant cashier will be appointed in place of R. M. Mayberry, resigned.

Couple Fined $50 Each.
John Doe, white, and Jeannette Thomas, Indian, were fined $50 each in police court this morning for alleged violation of the immoral acts and practices ordinance. They were arrested last night in a one-man moral squad raid.

Simpson to Head Committee
Robert L. Simpson was appointed today to head the committee from the Pendleton Commercial Association which will cooperate with the city council and the automobile association toward the building of a permanent auto tourists park before the coming summer. He will choose his associates when he returns from a trip on which he is now.

School Board Orders Coal
Another carload of coal was ordered for the city school by the board last night at its regular monthly meeting. The recent cold yeather made larger inroads on the coal supply then in normal times and an additional supply was found necessary. The other business consisted of auditing bills.

Is In Hospital Again.
John McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin of Echo, is in St. Anthony's hospital as the result of breaking his kneecap. Young McLaughlin has been on crutches ever since last haying season, when a boom fell upon his leg and crushed it. The second accident happened a few days ago when the boy slipped on the ice.

Clear $50 With Dance.
The sum of $50 was cleared by the Umatilla Farm Bureau at a dance given Saturday night by Umatilla women. The money will be used for hot lunches for Umatilla school children. A range has been purchased and other arrangements made so that the lunches can be served in the near future. Miss Ella May Harmon, county demonstration agent, who organized the women's branch of the bureau, will go to Umatilla on Friday to visit the organization. Mrs. Alice Nugent is secretary.

Repairing P. O. Doors.
Doors at the entrance of the Pendleton post office are being repaired today. The doors have been out of order and it has been necessary to use the storm doors.

Leaves for Yakima Valley.
C. P. Watson, of the United States Biological Survey, left today for Washington on afield trip for the local office. He will visit the trappers in the Yakima Valley.

New Priest Arrives.
Father Paul Kern, who has been in charge of a Catholic parish at Kechikan, Alaska, has arrived in Pendleton to have charge of St. Mary's church here.

Daughter Is Ill.
Mrs. Genevieve Gwynne of the Peoples Warehouse, returned yesterday from La Grande whre she had been called by the illness of her daughter who has been sent to Portland for treatment.

Good Feeding Weather.
The present weather conditions are extremely favorable for stock feeding, says Henry Lazinka, Umatilla county cattle man. Mild days and cool nights help in the fattening of cattle, he states. In Mr. Lazinka's opinion, the stock are looking fine considering the bad weather in the past.

Funeral of Harry O'Brien.
The funeral of the late Harry O'Brien, aged 84, was held this morning from the Folsom chapel, with Father Kem of St. Mary's Catholic church, ofifciating. Mr. O'Brien died at the State Hospital, having been committed there several years ago from Long Creek.

Army Store Has Big Trade.
Out of 1,000 cases of canned tomatoes which arrived Monday for sale at the army store, 700 were sold before the goods arrived. Two hundred fifty out of 500 blankets were sold, while many advance orders for bacon were given. Bacon, tomatoes, blankets, overshoes and sox comprised the two carloads of goods for which local people clamered. A few helmets will be sold as souvenirs.

Will Hold Food Sale.
The local post of the Salvation Army will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday at the Allen-Knight store on the corner of Main and Alta streets. The sale will be for the purpose of raising funds to furnish the Salvation Army hall. Real Salvation Army doughnuts will be among the things sold at the sale. Captain Jennie Conrad, in charge of the post, has made thousands of doughnuts and will use her skill in making the fried cakes for the sale.

Umatilla County Men Appointed.
J. T. Hinkle of Hermiston, was appointed a delegate to go to Washington to assist in obtaining the $250,000,000 appropriation for irrigation, at the closing meeting of the Oregon Irrigation Congress. J. Frank Spinning of Echo, was elected secretary of the congress. James M. Kyle of Stanfield, was made chairman of the executive committee, and Asa B. Thomson of Echo, was chosen as a member of the federal aid committee for the John Day project.

Peaches Only Crop Damaged.
The peach crop is the only fruit crop which is believed to have suffered irreparable damage in the Milton-Freewater section, according to J. H. West, deputy sheriff from Freewater, who is in Pendleton today attending court. Other trees suffered from the cold but the crops will not be seriously damaged he said. The snow has all gone now without any flood and last night there was not even a freezing temperature in the east end.

Jealous Wife Is Sued.
Alleging that his wife has been jealous of him ever since they were married and accused him of paying attention to other women, Clinton C. Graham today filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Vivian Graham. He charges her with calling him abusive names and states that she left him on January 1, 1920. He is represented by S. D. Peterson.

Would Recover Price of Lots.
Suit to recover from Andro Poznich the $119.34 and interest, due on the payments for 11 lots in the reservation addition, was filed today by Mrs. Anna C. Basler et al. The plaintiffs allege that the defendant contracted to buy the lots for $450 but that after September 5, 1914, he ceased to make payments and to pay taxes on the property. Stephen A. Lowell and Percy M. Collier represent the plaintiffs.

Poison is Successful.
The rabbit poisoning campaign in the west end of the county was decidedly successful, according to reports which have reached the office of Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent. It was noted, however, that in localities where rabbits were accustomed to eating alfalfa, the poisoned alfalfa was extremely popular, while in the grain growing localities, the rabbits appeared timorous and suspicious of the green poison. Some farmers have therefore decided to use the heads of wheat hay for distribution of the poison. This plan has been used to a slight extent and will be tried again. Mr. Bennion will leave tomorrow for Echo where he will further investigate the results of the campaign.

EDUCATIONAL FUND PROVIDED IN WILL OF LAKEVIEW MAN

LAKEVIEW, Ore., Jan. 13.—Creation of the Bernard Daly educational fund, income from which is to assist young men and women of Lake county in obtaining college education, is provided for in the will of the late Dr. Bernard Daly, which was filed today in probate court. Directors of the bank of Lakeview and presidents of Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon are to have charge of the fund, to which is bequeathed all property of the $1,000,000 estate not otherwise disposed of.

Among bequests made in the will are: $1000 cash each to near relatives; $1000 cash and $2000 per year during life to Miss Pearl Hall; $1200 annually to public hospital for a period of ten years. The building occupied by the bank of Lakeview is to become the property of that institution, of which Mr. Daly was president.

Dr. Daly's funeral was held Sunday under auspices of officers of Klamath Falls lodge of Elks, and was largely attended by friends from northern California and southern Oregon.
