Wheat Men Like Weather.
The present warm days and frostless nights are causing wheat men to smile. The grain planted last fall on the reservation, even though very late, is sprouting and looks very healthy, Will Wyrick said today after driving over the reservation as far as the Cornell country. There has been little frost in the ground of late and the melting snow this time has not run off so rapidly, thus leaving considerable moisture in the soil. The grain men are hoping for a continuance of the mild weather conditions.

After the program and the business meeting, the members enjoyed a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

BUT ARE THEY SURE THERE'LL BE "LOSS?"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The first step in congress to reimburse holders of large stocks of liquor, now virtually a total loss was taken by Representative Sabbath who introduced a bill ordering the bureau of internal revenue to pay brewers and distillers the actual cost of producing stocks now on hand and to refund the taxes paid on liquor that cannot be sold.

ENGINEMEN WILL WAIT ACTION BY DIRECTOR

CLEVELAND, Jan. 17.—Demands for an answer on the wage increase asked by the brotherhood of locomotive enginemen will be deferred for a "reasonable time," pending action by the railroad administration, Timothy Shea, acting president, declared. He said he expects Director General Hines to take some action before the end of the month.

THOMPSON REPRESENTS PORTLAND AT MEETING

PORTLAND, Jan. 17.—In response to an invitation of the federal reserve board, the Portland Clearing House association has elected W. L. Thompson, vice president of the First National Bank and president of the American National bank of Pendleton, as its representative to attend the second conference of bankers, which will be held in Chicago, January 23.

On January 6 the federal reserve board called a meeting at Washington of bankers representing clearing house associations in all parts of the country to take action on the question of interest rates on bank balances, at which time they failed to take final action. As a result, the federal reserve board issued a call for a second conference, to be attended by three representatives from each federal reserve district.

The purpose of the Chicago meeting as stated in the resolution, will be "to consider the whole question of interest on balances in order that some basis may be agred upon that will be mutually satisfactory, conducive to conservative banking and benefit the entire business and banking community."
