

MILLERAND TO FOLLOW TIGER IN NEW CABINET

Governor of Alsace is Chosen to Position by President Poincare; Will Also Hold Foreign Portfolio.

CLEMENCEAU STILL HEADS BIG COUNCIL

Believed Great French War Chief Will Remain on Peace Council Until Some Problems Are Adjusted.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Alexandre Millerand, governor of Alsace, has accepted President Poincare's offer to head the new French cabinet. Millerand will take the portfolio of foreign affairs, besides becoming premier. Andre Tardieu, former French high commissioner to the United States, refused to remain as minister of the liberated regions.

Still Heads Council

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Georges Clemenceau, the retiring French premier, will continue as president of the supreme council until the Asiatic and other pressing problems are settled. It is believed. Contrary to expectations he hasn't resigned as head of the council. The Anglo-Slav delegates have not received a reply from Belgrade on the tentative solution for the disposition of Fiume, advanced by the council. The supreme council today considered the Russian situation. Marshal Foch and Admiral Beatty, the first sea lord of the British admiralty, attended the meeting.

ASTORIA DOCTOR TO LOCATE IN PENDLETON

Dr. R. C. Ellsworth, for six years a chiropractic physician in Astoria, arrived in Pendleton today and has taken office in the Smith-Crawford building. He has been in Portland during the past week serving on the state board of chiropractic examiners.

Dr. Ellsworth was commander of Edward Young Post, Spanish War Veterans, in Astoria, and was active in the civil life there during his stay. He has been in Chicago for a number of weeks taking a post graduate course and arrived in Portland shortly after the first of the year.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT PILOT ROCK

Nathaniel Kinnison, aged 74, for the past 20 years a resident of this county, died on Friday at his home in Pilot Rock.

Mr. Kinnison was born in Ohio, December 15, 1846. He settled first in Missouri and later came to Oregon. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Sallie Kuhn, and the following children: Miss Mary Kinnison, of Grand View, Washington; Mrs. Leota Pickering, Mrs. Nanna Russell, Mrs. Lillian Casteel, Albert Kinnison, all of Pilot Rock, and Mrs. Clara J. Wild, of Walla Walla. Others who survive are a brother, P. M. Kinnison, of Columbus, Ohio, and 11 grandchildren.

Mr. Kinnison was a Civil War veteran, having served for over two years in the army.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Church of Pilot Rock, with Rev. James M. Cornwell officiating. Interment was at the Pilot Rock cemetery.

TWO FAMILIES ILL, HELIX PUTS ON LID

(Special to the East Oregonian.)
HELIX, Ore., Jan. 19.—Helix schools and public meetings are suspended because of a threatened Spanish influenza epidemic. Two families are suffering from the disease. They are W. H. Shannon and three sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Jean Jensen and three children who live near Helix. Lloyd Davidson also has influenza.

No other cases have been reported, but fearing a recurrence of last year's epidemic, Helix people have quarantined the families and are taking every precaution against the spread of the disease.

Funeral of Mrs. Lane Wednesday

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Lane will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Episcopal church with Rev. Alfred Lockwood officiating. Will Lane, a son of the deceased, is expected to arrive here tonight for the services.

MOTHER STANISLAUS DIED SUDDENLY IN PHILADELPHIA FRIDAY

Rev. Mother Stanislaus, formerly a resident of this city where she lived for 25 years while acting in the capacity of Superior of St. Joseph's academy and Provincial of the western province, died suddenly on Friday at the motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Francis in Philadelphia. A telegram announcing her death was received Saturday at St. Joseph's academy.

Mother Stanislaus was well known in Pendleton to Catholics and non-Catholics as being instrumental in the establishment of St. Joseph's academy and St. Anthony's hospital in this city. She was active also in the founding of St. Francis academy and St. Elizabeth's hospital in Baker, and other schools, hospitals and charitable institutions in the western province.

After leaving Pendleton she was superior for a time in a large school in the east and was then made Mother General of the Community of Sisters of St. Francis.

Much regret is expressed by Pendleton people because of the death of Mother Stanislaus. She was beloved by the sisters with whom she lived and by others for her kindly ways and her acts of charity.

Right Rev. Bishop McGrath today celebrated a pontifical mass of requiem at Baker in honor of the Mother Superior.

100,000 STUDENTS FOR TREATY; VOTE DISTURBS SENATE OPPOSITIONISTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Hitchcock today stirred up a storm in the senate by putting into the record figures on the intercollegiate poll on the peace treaty. The figures showed, he said, that out of 153,000 votes cast by students and faculty members one hundred thousand favored either the unqualified ratification, or interpretative reservations while only 27,000 favored the Lodge reservations.

Senator McCormick asserted that vote among the colleges was "a shipwrecked vote." He declared the League to Enforce Peace had sent speakers to colleges to speak in favor of the league of nations, but the other side of the question was not presented.

"Senators should not forget the result of other votes cast at elections in various states recently," shouted McCormick. "Nor should they overlook the vote in the French assembly where Deschamps was elected president over Clemenceau, who helped to write the treaty."

COURT TO DECIDE REFERENDUM RIGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The supreme court is asked to advance arguments in cases testing constitutional rights of states by referendum to override the action of legislatures in making the motion. The suit was brought in the lower court by George Hawke, a Cincinnati lawyer, seeking to enjoin Secretary of State Smith from submitting the prohibition amendment to a referendum.

OLCOTT WILL VETO STRAIGHT BALLOT BILL

SALEM, Jan. 19.—Governor Olcott has announced he will veto the "straight ballot" bill passed at the special session.

MAY REGULATE ELECTRIC LINES
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The supreme court has decided that the California railroad commission has power to regulate rates that electric companies charge.

INCOME TAX FORMS ARRIVE; FILE QUICKLY

Forms Will be Mailed to All Who Paid Taxes Last Year; New Taxpayers May Obtain Forms on Request.

INCOME TAX LOWER THAN FOR LAST YEAR

Two Government Agents Announce Itinerary for Points in Umatilla County; Time Expires March 15.

Tax forms for individuals who are subject to the government income tax were received today at the office of W. D. Chamberlain, deputy internal revenue collector, and are now ready for distribution.

One of the forms will be mailed to every person who made a return last year for the year 1919. Persons who were not subject to the tax last year, but whose incomes have advanced until they must, at least, make a return this year, are warned by the collectors to obtain one of the forms on their own account.

The time for filing expires March 15 and severe penalties await anyone amenable to tax provisions who fail to file the proper statement before that date. Mr. Chamberlain is urging that the forms be filled out as quickly as possible as there is invariably congestion at the main office in Portland during the last days of the filing period.

Tax Lower This Year

The tax forms for this year show that the rate is lower than that of last year. The new tax is four per cent on the first $4,000 while the tax on any sum in excess of $4,000 is eight per cent. Last year the tax was six per cent and 12 per cent, respectively.

The rules of the income tax law make any unmarried man or woman whose net income is $1,000 or more subject to the tax, while any married man or woman whose net income is $2,000 or more is subject to the tax. The exemption list declares that an exemption of $200 will be given for all children under 18 years of age.

Must Make Return
In some cases, Mr. Chamberlain explains, a man may make returns and not be subject to a tax. For example, a married man with three children may make returns on a net income of $2,000, but because of the exemption rules, he would not be subject to the tax.

To assist Mr. Chamberlain in his work of receiving the returns J. J. Wilkinson, tax expert, will arrive next Saturday. Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Wilkinson have arranged the following itinerary, so that their services will be at the disposal of Umatilla county income tax payers:

Milton, January 26 to 31, inclusive; Albany, February 2 to 10, inclusive; Pendleton, February 5 to 14, inclusive; and March 6 to 15, inclusive; Echo, February 16 and 17, inclusive.

LEGISLATURE REFERS 9 MEASURES TO PEOPLE

SALEM, Jan. 19.—Following are the constitutional amendments and other measures to be submitted to the voters of this state at the special election May 21:

H. J. R. 11, by committee on resolution—Extending road limitation in debtless from 2 to 4 per cent.

H. J. R. 15, by committee on resolution—Relating to the division of counties. Enabling counties to fund their debts.

S. J. R. 10, by Mower and Banks—Relating to succession to governorship, providing president of senate succeeds.

S. J. R. 8, by committee on judiciary—Restoring capital punishment.

S. J. R. 40, by Pierce and Smith—Providing additional taxlevy for operation of soldiers', sailors' and marines' educational aid act.

H. B. 34, by Mrs. Thompson—Levying annual tax of 2 mills for support of public elementary schools.

H. B. 77, by Horne—Levying special tax for erection, equipping and maintenance of institution for blind.

H. B. 86, by Kuhl—Providing tax of 1.5 mills for support of University of Oregon, agricultural college and Monmouth normal.

S. J. R. 17 (adopted at 1919 session) Relating to acquiring of private lands for public purposes.

Round-Up Story in Magazine

The Pendleton Round-Up is featured in a story "Lucky Bill, the Youngest Buckaroo," by Anne Shannon Monroe, which appears in a recent number of the Red Cross magazine. The story is profusely illustrated with photographs taken by Major Lee Moorhouse. Beneath the title is the following sub-title: "Come with us to the Round-Up, where the old reckless West is making its stand, in the heart of America's last great untamed wilderness." The theme of the story deals with a cowboy who wishes to win the Round-Up saddle in order to persuade his mother to permit him to attend O. A. C. Miss Monroe, who is an Oregon newspaper woman and author, visited the 1919 Round-Up.

GIBSON PICKS HER AS HIS MODEL

CLEVELAND—Miss Caroline Mytinger, known as Cleveland's most beautiful woman, has been selected by Charles Dana Gibson as the model for his next pictures. She is posing for other distinguished New York artists. Her photograph was selected to represent Cleveland in a beauty contest at the Panama-Pacific exposition and she is pronounced by artists to have the "ideal face, expressing youth, beauty, happiness, interest, health, goodness and simplicity."

AMERICA MUST BE MODEL FOR WORLD SAYS WILSON TO SOUTH AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The American republic must set up a model for the world in the development of high political and social ideals and abandon all selfish purposes, President Wilson told delegates to the second Pan-American financial conference in a personal letter of welcome which was read at the opening of the session.

"I reduce with you that in these troubled times of world reconstruction, the republics of the American continent should seek no selfish purposes, but should be guided by a desire to serve one another and to serve the world to the utmost of their capacity," he wrote. "The great privileges that have been showered upon us, both by reason of our geographical position, because of the high political and social ideals that have determined national development in all American republics, carry with them obligations, the fulfillment of which must be regarded as a real privilege by every American."

ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS WORK OF UMATILLA COUNTY LIBRARY

One thousand six hundred fifty five returned in this form to the Pendleton public library system during the year 1919, bringing the total circulation to 52,906, according to a report issued today by the county library.

Of the new readers, 631 registered at the central library in Pendleton, while 1,004 registered at the 14 branch libraries. There are also 27 rural school districts which are distributing centers for the county books. The present adult circulation is 12,852 in Pendleton, and 26,164 for the branches, while the juvenile circulation is 6,957 for Pendleton, 9,648 for branches, and 2,543 for the rural schools. The total registration of readers in Pendleton is about 3,500 and in the entire county, 9,500, by conservative estimate. During the year the fiction record in Pendleton was 65 per cent of the total adult circulation.

Number of Volumes Increases
Two thousand one hundred eighty five new volumes were added to the library in 1919, says the report. Of these, 1533 were by purchase, 221 by gift, 142 by magazines bound and 288 from other sources. Nine volumes were lost and paid for, while 59 were out, making the total books in the library today reach 17,271.

Books repaired in the library were 1,129 and books rebound were 481. Of the periodical subscriptions, there are 88 magazines and 14 newspapers. Fifteen magazines and 12 newspapers were individual gifts. Nearly all the others are paid for by the Civic Club of Pendleton. This is the third year that the Civic Club has financed the periodical subscriptions.

Financial Report Given
The financial report of the library shows that of the $2,342.15 funds available for 1919, $7,700.82 has been expended. Expenses are $1,787.95 for books; $14.50, periodicals; $227.92 for binding; $3,285.19 for library service; $1,572.50 for building maintenance, including heat, light, water, insurance, repairs, janitor service and supplies; and $458.39 for contingent expenses, including telephone and miscellaneous, printing and supplies, postage and transportation, and traveling expenses.

The fines account at the Central Library began the year with a balance of .38 and the collections have been $212.22. All of the fine receipts which are not needed for incidental desk expenses are used for Victrola records for the Sunday concerts and are being

Pall Mall Gazette Says Daniels Always Seemed on North Side of Friendly; Look for Disclosures.

PERSHING ALSO MADE J. BULL FEEL BADLY

Objection Was Taken to American General's Statement as to Who Won the War; Say We Should be Thankful.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The "exhibitions" of Secretary Daniels, in relation between the United States and Britain, all along have struck onlookers as being on the north side of the line. The Pall Mall Gazette declared, commenting on Admiral Sims' statement before the senate naval affairs committee, newspapers declared that if congress insists upon an investigation "We ought to have some interesting disclosures."

"Many statements may be made in the United States which 'will be new' to our insular public," the Telegraph said. "Perhaps the first soldier, save as the first blow when he declared that America won the war. Now Admiral Sims hits us in a different fashion by reviving the spirit with which some Americans went in to the fight. We'll let every American thank God it was the Germans they fought, and still let them think they won the war."

BOLSHEVIKI ELATED BY BLOCKADE CHANGE

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Moscow newspapers saw in the supreme council's order partially lifting the blockade against Russia a "great victory for the bolsheviks," an official bolshevik communique said. The newspapers expressed great elation over the resumption of foreign trade. "Those heretofore regarding the bolsheviks as merely a passing phase in the Russian government's communique said, 'now appreciate the fact that bolshevik power is established firmly and that it has accomplished great advances towards the reconstruction which will forever change the physiognomy of our social order.'"

GERMANY DENIES REPORT

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—Newspapers here denied a report printed in Paris, that Germany will send a commission to Moscow to negotiate with the bolsheviks. The mission, according to newspapers is composed of representatives of the red cross and is taking sanitary and medical supplies to German prisoners in Russia. The mission has no political significance it was added.

EMMA ET AL WILL SOON BE IN RUSSIA

HANGO, Finland, Jan. 19.—The 349 radicals reported from the United States reached Viborg, the last station before they cross the Russian border, this afternoon. They left Hango on a special train, guarded by 50 Finnish "white guards" and by American immigration authorities. The "reds" will be escorted to the Finnish-Russian border at Terijoki. Finnish authorities assured the Americans there will be a cessation of hostilities between their forces and the soviet troops, while the radicals cross into Russia.

"I start for Russia with mingled emotions," Emma Goldman said just before the train departed for Viborg. "Of course I want to see what is ahead, but I leave behind that is behind." A search of radicals' baggage before it was put on the train revealed some instances of pilfering of property from the Viborg, which carried the party across the ocean.
