DEVEREUX COMPANY IN GREATEST COMEDIES

It is only on rare occasions that celebrated actors with their companies come to Pendleton for two days, yet this has been accomplished and will be an actual fact on Thursday and Friday, January 22 and 23 when Clifford Devereux and his talented company will present two comedies at the Oregon Theatre. On Thursday evening they will play "The School for Scandal" by Richard Brinsley Sheridan and "She Stoops to Conquer" by Oliver Goldsmith. This company is the very last word in dramatic ability, and it is well known in all the leading cities of the United States. They have just completed a week's engagement in Portland and on their way east; they have been induced to stop off here and give the citizens of Pendleton an opportunity of seeing some of the best style of dramatic art.

The two comedies they will present are admitted by all authorities to be the greatest comedies in the English language, and all lovers of the theatre will enjoy the performances which are to be given by the Devereux Company. There are fourteen people in the company and they come to the city with the finest of recommendations. It is not usual for a company to say here two days but it was thought that those who see "The School for Scandal" on the first night will want to see "She Stoops to Conquer" on the second night, and that the people of Pendleton will appreciate the plays to the fullest extent. These comedies will appeal to all classes of people and everybody should see them. Those who rarely go to the theatre should not miss them, for they will find that these comedies are light and clean and forceful, and absolutely free from all suggestion, all the witnessing of these plays will leave a pleasant memory. Those who do go to the theatre will likewise welcome the en-

HAS 112 DESCENDANTS

MRS. MARTHA J. SUITT
Mrs. Martha J. Suitt of Durham co., North Carolina, pausing on passing life's 91st milestone glanced about, and then counted 112 immediate descendants. There were eight living children, 41 grandchildren and 55 great-grandchildren. The oldest child is 67 and the youngest 49 years old.

Children's Colds

Every parent can add to the health of the community and his or her peace of mind by guarding against coughs and colds. When your child has snuffles or nasty eyes don't hesitate to take him from school for a day or two so that you may break up the cold he has contracted. You are perfectly safe in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children as it contains no opium or other narcotic. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, helping the system to throw off the cold.

A Cough Medicine of Merit
The value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of colds and coughs is well known and admitted by those who have used it and are in position to know its real worth. Mrs. Thomas Breeding, Andrews, Ind., says "During the winter my husband takes cold easily. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks. You could not get him to take any other."

For this disorder you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. When the proper dose is taken you hardly realize that the effect is not natural instead of having been produced by a medicine.
