(East Oregonian Special.)

PILOT ROCK, Jan. 21.—Thursday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall the ladies of the Rebekah lodge gave a surprise luncheon for the men of the I. O. O. F. lodge. After the Oddfellows initiated two and the session was dismissed the refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in listening to some selections on the player piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of Warren's Music House in Pendleton were business visitors in Pilot Rock, Friday.

A buffalo came down the canyon above Elvery Michaels ranch and made himself at home in their barnyard. Mr. Michaels inquired as to the ownership of the animal and after several days James Alcott, an Indian, living near Cayuse claimed him. With his proof of possession he went to the Michaels ranch and drove the buffalo home. Mr. Alcott bought him in Idaho a few years ago for $500.

Several of the streets in Pilot Rock are in a bad condition. Two cars were pulled out of the mud at the east end of W. W. street, Saturday night but the roads are now being worked under the supervision of Thomas Jacques.

ROADS IN BAD SHAPE FROM FLOODS AT ECHO

The Echo school yard and neighboring residence yards were flooded as the water came down the canyon which the county road follows.

M. E. Esselstyn, bookkeeper of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. at The Dalles has been visiting in Echo since Sunday. He returned to his work, Wednesday.

SLANG AIDS ENGLISHMAN TO COURT'S OBEISANCE

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Sir William Lushington, M. P., one of Lloyd George's secretaries, tells of an amusing experience he had in Budapest.

He was very perturbed as to how to get away. Bela Kun and the bolsheviks were in possession of the city and he could not get a passport or other facilities.

So he went and sat in a train, trusting to luck to escape.

Very soon some bolsheviks approached the carriage and spoke to him, but he made signs that he did not understand. They went away and brought back some high officials, and he was interrogated again.

"This time he felt himself growing pettish, and remarked heatedly: "O, buzz off! Buzz off!"

These words created a great impression. Obeisances were made, a notice put on the window, and the carriage floor was locked with the Englishman alone inside.

The train moved off. At the next station he opened the window and found that the notice read: "This compartment is reserved for Count Buzoff."

DUBLIN POLICE RESCUE COMRADES FROM RAID

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—Police have succeeded in rescuing several of their comrades, besieged in barracks at Drombane, only after a desperate five hour battle with over 2000 raiders, according to advices today. Two policemen captured by raiders were bound together in a barn and later rescued by reserves.

Raiders armed with bombs, blockaded all roads near the police barracks. An attempt to dynamite the building failed.

FIVE BARRELS OF WINE FOUND UNDER FLOOR

WALLA WALLA, Jan. 21.—The sheriff last night captured five gallons of red wine at the residence of Albert Lacooff, who lives well out toward the Yellowhawk. This wine was securely placed under the floor, as if it had been a string of pearls of great price. Sheriff Yates and his posse, however, have become experts at finding the ruby-colored liquor. No diving rod ever held by a water-slick ducked more promptly toward water than the official wand ducks toward the wine.

"I have given Lacooff till Saturday to dig up the fine," said Judge Douglas this morning.

The defendant lives here with his family. It is a matter of $150 with no judge.

Recalling the Past.
"What are you reading there?"
"A handbook on golf," published some years ago," answered Mr. Jaggby.
"I didn't know you played the game."
