ARE YOU LEGALLY MARRIED?

Following is a fac-simile of what Mr. J. A. Quinn said about the picture and its worth.

Office of J. A. Quinn QUINN'S REALTY 812 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal. April 18, 1918.

Mr. L. J. Meyberg, Successor, Picture Company, Culver City, Cal.

Dear Sir—The production, "Are You Legally Married?" is founded on unquestionably authentic facts that every man, woman and child in the United States should know and in which everyone is vitally interested.

It satisfied my audience during the phenomenal run of four weeks at my theatre in Los Angeles, and I can assure every exhibitor in the United States that it is a positive, sure-fire box office attraction.

If I can be of any assistance to you, or if I can help any exhibitor toward making this production the success it deserves, I will be only too glad to have either you or the exhibitor call upon me.

Very truly yours, QUINN'S REALTY THEATRE, By J. A. Quinn.

Verdict of press and public on "Are You Legally Married?" conceded to me: "The picture sensation of the century."

Florence Lawrence, of the Los Angeles Examiner, says: "Has a distinct appeal; packed to the doors at every performance."

Grace Kinsley, Los Angeles Times, says: "Human, potent and appealing—wholesome and amusing."

"Destella Lawton Lindsey, former Los Angeles Councilwoman, says: "A revelation of astonishing legal facts no one can afford to miss."

In discussing "Are You Legally Married?" Dr. Jessie Russell, president of the California Congress of Mother and Parent-Teacher Associations and prominent newspaper writer and author, said for publication: "It is a masterly exposition of the chaos resulting from marriage laws being made by the states. Everybody should see it."

William F. Quinlan, Rector, St. Andrew's Rectory, Pasadena, Cal., wrote to the author relative to the story: "I wish you every success. I am convinced you will accomplish a vast amount of good, bringing out, as it does, so forcibly the necessity of taking a strong stand against the terrible evil that is eating into the very vitals of our American life. You have my best wishes and prayers for its success. Sincerely yours, (Signed) William F. Quinlan."

Miss Dell Gray, the young dramatist of New York, gives her impression of "Are You Legally Married?" after seeing it at Quinn's Realty, Los Angeles, during its phenomenal four

Children's Colds

Every parent can add to the health of the community and his or her peace of mind by guarding against coughs and colds. When your child has sniffles or watery eyes don't hesitate to take him from school for a day or two so that you may break up the cold he has contracted. You are perfectly safe in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children as it contains no opium or other narcotic. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, helping the system to throw off the cold.

A Cough Medicine of Merit

The value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of colds and coughs is well known and admitted by those who have used it and are in position to know its real worth. Mrs. Thomas Breaching, Andrews, Ind., says "During the winter my husband takes cold easily. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks. You could not get him to take any other."

For Constipation

For this disorder you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. When the proper dose is taken you hardly realize that the effect is not natural instead of having been produced by a medicine.

weeks' run, wherein it made all Los Angeles gasp. This young writer always sees more in a play than is there, but in this one she declares All there is, is there. Her own words:

"A legal secret has been lifted right out of the Supreme Court of Justice of the United States and laid bare and fully before the innocent public—the secret that hangs like a poisoned dagger over every man, woman and child in this United States. It sounds like Common Law Marriage. No! It is about an Uncommon law that covers marriage and is illegally legal. The picture brings out this secret of our Court of 'Injustice' like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, and you literally feel halibutons on your head and chills down your spine from their icy contact. And, mind you, this 'thunderbolt' is not fiction, but reality! If you are not married, you will think twice before you are—if you are married, you stay married! And if you are divorced—God Help You!"

The Los Angeles Record speaks of "Are You Legally Married?" on the front page over the caption and on the right-hand column, front page, saying: "Are You Legally Married?"

FRIDAY THE 15TH CAUSES TROUBLE FOR DOROTHY GISH

Would you accept a man who proposed to you on Friday, the 13th? Dorothy Gish does in "Out of Luck," her new Paramount picture, which is coming to the Alta theatre today. The old jinx starts working immediately, but it is helped considerably by the character played by Miss Gish, is a superstitions person. When Malcolm her fiancé, dines out with a friend and his daughter, Frances jumps at the conclusion that the girl is the strange blind lady who the fortune teller had warned her was to ruin Malcolm's life. So there is a couple and matters get into a jolly mess, until a Newbyred and two enterprising burglars straighten out the tangle and unite the two sweethearts.

"Out of Luck" is one of the funniest of all the Gish comedies starring the vivacious little comedienne in a part that fits her like a glove. Supporting Miss Gish is an unusually strong cast, including George Fawcett, who has appeared in character parts in the past three Gish successes, Vivian Montross, Ralph Graves, Rodolph Valentino, and Emily Chichester. The chief requisite of a player in a Gish film is that they either produce laughs or add materially in their production, and the aggregation of funmakers in "Out of Luck" is said to include only comedians of the first rank. Elmer Clifton supervised the screening.

ATHLETIC TRAINING SAVED SERIAL STAR

William Duncan, star and director of "Smashing Barriers," the new Vitaphone serial now being presented at the Pastime Theatre, has his skill as an athlete put to a severe test during a bit of action of the eleventh episode, to be shown at the Pastime today. Duncan, in the role of Dick Darling, the roush and ready young lumberjack, is suspended from a point along the side of a steep cliff making his escape from a gang of outlaw lumberjacks.

Hanging in the air he is the target for the shots of Bullhead Bulker (Joe Ryan), leader of the gang, who is endeavoring to cut the rope with a bullet. Bullhead finally hits the rope before Duncan could possibly clamber to the bottom and a rather high and nasty fall is the lot of the athletic star. While in making this scene Duncan only dropped a matter of about fifteen feet, his descent was so sudden and his landing place so rough that only his ability and good condition as an athlete saved him from painful, is not serious injury.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF MRS. STURDIVANT

(East Oregonian Special.) UKIAH, Jan. 21.—Funeral services were held Thursday at the church for Mrs. Carl Sturdivant, who died Wednesday morning at 4 a. m. Rev. Sinclair and Rev. Herbert officiating.

A large number of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends followed the remains to the cemetery on the west side of the valley, where the body was laid to rest. Beautiful floral offerings were sent from Pendleton by friends.

Mrs. Sturdivant was 29 years old and was married and a member of the Ukiah Presbytery church. She was loved by all who knew her. The pall bearers were Henry Slaughter, Wesley Slaughter, Perry Simpson, Frank Simpson, Ivan Sturdivant and Albert Peterson.

The schools closed Wednesday evening for the rest of the week on account of the death of Mrs. Sturdivant. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kirk, Mrs. Nora Osborn and Mrs. Lena Johnson were down Thursday from the Teel saw mill to attend the funeral. Oscar Hilbert, Jesse Hilbert and Sanford Chilson of Bridge creek came over to attend the funeral.

Clyde Helmick left for Pendleton Friday morning on business.

Trace Baker of Pendleton, made final proof on his homestead claim before J. D. Kirk, U. S. land commissioner, Tuesday. E. L. Thrasher and Clyde Helmick were his witnesses.

Mel Conger and family of Long Creek, were in town Friday night on their return home.

Mrs. Alma Bolla was called to Pendleton Monday night on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. William Holmes.

Mrs. Jennie Chamberlain left for Pilot Rock Saturday for a few days' visit with relatives.

Emil Revard, while hunting bobcats last week, killed a large bear.

Fred Grooms, ranger of Sumpter, was a guest at the Ukiah hotel Friday night on his return from Grant county where he had been for a week on business.

Frank Hilbert returned from Pendleton Friday.

J. D. Kirk came down Tuesday from the Teel saw mill on official business. Born near Lebanon, Oregon, Dec. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nichols, formerly of Ukiah, a son.

J. T. Brown of Pendleton, was in Ukiah Friday, and in company with George Ness, A. S. Quant and John Kendrick, appraisers of the late James Oatley estate, visited the Oatley farm Friday afternoon.

Ed Thrasher of Nye is in Ukiah for a few days on business. He purchased some young horses while here, of Frank Hilbert, which he will take back with him. He will use them on his newly purchased farm.

Mrs. Jennie Moore left Thursday for Pilot Rock for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Selber.

Miss Frankie Sturdivant and Cloyd Sturdivant of Portland, arrived in Ukiah Tuesday in response to a message of the serious illness of Mrs. Carl Sturdivant.

Phil Fairbanks, owner of the Long Creek stage route, was seriously hurt last week when a load of hay turned over throwing him off in such a manner as to dislocate his hip and skinning his face, up badly, as he struck the frozen ground on his face. He laid on the cold ground for several hours until the Long Creek stage driver found him and took him, back to the Baker place. A doctor was sent for and is treating him.

That rocket to the moon may prove the opening shot in an interworld warfare.
