OUR DELICATESSEN

We wish to announce to the public that in the near future we are going to have in connection with our grocery department an up-to-date Delicatessen. While we are getting ready for our delicatessen department we will have a few delicacies each day that we hope will meet with your approval. These delicacies will be made fresh every day by one of our men who's direct from Portland and who has worked in the largest delicatessen in that city.

WE HAVE TODAY

Shrimp Salad, per pound 60c
Mayonaise Dressing, per pound 70c
Pimento Cheese, per pound 70c

Building Prospects

Are encouraging at this time. There is a shortage of homes of nearly a million, to which must be added the normal requirements. The pressure to inaugurate and complete delayed construction is felt; the supply of labor is adequate and the resumption of home building on a large scale is possible. We are equipped to handle your building problems. Come in and see our plans and let us explain our facilities to you. We always have plenty of the best Rock Springs Coal on hand.

OREGON LUMBER YARD

(WATCH THIS SPACE)

E. J. Burke Here.
E. J. Burke, prominent wool man, is a Pendleton visitor. He arrived this morning from Portland.

Funeral Tomorrow.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Roy Pamburn will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic church.

Colonel Yohnka Here.
Colonel W. P. Yohnka, of Riverville, Washington, is in the city today. The Colonel is an auctioneer and is in Pendleton on business.

One Drunk Forfeits Bail.
J. W. Hawen, arrested on a charge of being drunk last night, forfeited $10 bail in police court this morning by failing to appear for trial.

Will Judge Debate Tonight.
F. E. Schmidt left on No. 17 for Echo today where he will look after business this afternoon and act as judge in the high school debate tonight.

Dr. Wilson Here.
Dr. E. O. Wilson, formerly with the E. R. Parker office of dentists here, returned yesterday to Elgin after a visit in Pendleton. Dr. Wilson has opened an office of his own in Elgin.

Forest Official Here
E. N. Kavanagh, assistant district forester in charge of the grading department in the Portland office, was in the city today on his way to Spokane to attend a meeting of the National Livestock Association.

Jim Sturgis Returns
James Sturgis returned yesterday from a trip to California. He saw the Oregon-Harvard game in Pasadena while away. Mrs. Sturgis and Mr. and Mrs. George Strand, who accompanied him to California have not yet returned.

Funeral of Mr. McBroom.
The funeral of the late E. L. McBroom will be held on Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Presbyterian church, with Rev. J. Francis Morgan, pastor, officiating. The body of Mr. McBroom arrived this morning from Portland.

Three Have Influenza.
Mrs. Ida Gray, Louis King and Clarence Rosch, employes at the Pendleton postoffice, are suffering from what physicians pronounce as Spanish influenza. Mr. King is quite ill, his temperature reaching 103 last night.

Elks Initiate Three.
Pendleton lodge of Elks last evening initiated a class of three candidates, several others expected having failed to appear. Those who were given the work were: J. W. McGee and W. P. Chisholm, of Pendleton, and J. T. Hubbard, of Echo. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served.

Laman Bonney Honored.
Laman Bonney, a nephew of Charles Bonney of this city and who has visited in Pendleton, has been awarded the block "S" for playing on the Stanford football team this season. Bonney played halfback for the Stanford team. He is a former University of Oregon student.

The company expects to establish agencies in every county in the state. They have for their territory Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California.

Company Increases Capital.
The Pacific Grain Co., of Portland, which has extensive holdings in Umatilla county as well, has filed amended articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, increasing the capital from $250,000 to $1,500,000. John E. Montgomery is local agent for the company.

Ground Frozen; Roads Rough.
The ground in the wheat districts is still frozen about as hard as has been the case for the past several weeks, according to Walter Lehman. The cold is not damaging the winter wheat in the least, however, so long as the ground does not alternately freeze and thaw. The roads are rough in the wheat country, due to the freeze-ups following recent rains and chinooks.

Salvation Army Has New Hall.
The Salvation Army post has leased for a year the hall at 208 East Alta street and will hold meetings there in future. The first meetings will be on Sunday at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. The hall is being remodelled and Captain Jennie Conrad, in charge of the local post expects to open the reading room in another week.

Leaves for East.
