THE OLD COLONEL'S REVERIE.

By Frank L. Stanton.

"I just sit here, a-thinkin'" said the colonel, "of the days when not a broken demijohn was littering the ways; When we had our morning's 'morning,' where no government man could seize—

The wherewithal responding to—Two lumps of sugar, please!"

No heads-bright decanters
Now greet the morning eye;
A Noah's flood has left us
High and dry!

"When the wind blew cold, back yonder, and we looked across the snow,
I smacked my lips, contented for to let the blizzard blow!
For I'd had my morning's 'morning,' and I talked a cheerful lot,
Till I heard the fire saying, 'That's a hittin' of the spot!'"

"But that was in the old days,
Forevermore gone by;
A Noah's flood has left us
High and dry!"

"Draw up your chair, old comrade of the un-forgotten days;
Though it seems that even the Fire hasn't got the heart to blaze!
And we'll talk about the old times—resignation, by degrees!
And tell 'em, 'Serve the coffee with two lumps of sugar, please!'"

"No use to sigh for the old times,
But the old song's now a sigh,
That Noah's flood left us

A CAMPAIGN STATEMENT.

ECONOMY, efficiency, protection, peace, promotion of agriculture and one flag are the summarized version of principles upon which Frank O. Lowden, governor of Illinois, bases his campaign for the presidential nomination, according to his press agents. The governor sets forth a more detailed list of principles which remind very much of campaign platforms since the art of promising had its inception, but which, if carried out, would approach Utopia.

Reduction of taxes is one of his aims, his press agents declare. Then, too, he stands for an "efficient, economical and business administration." His treaty stand is for ratification with reservations substantially as proposed by the foreign relations committee.

As a state executive, Mr. Lowden has made an impressive showing in Illinois. Realization of all his pre-campaign principles would place him in an enviable position among presidents if elected. Below are the statements which are made for Mr. Lowden by his booster organization:

- He stands for the immediate return to an efficient, economical and business administration of public affairs.
- Reduction of taxes.
- The abolition of the numerous agencies for war purposes which have been continued at an enormous expense in time of peace.
- A protective tariff measured by the difference in cost of production at home and abroad.
- A rigid insistence upon the principle of government by all the people and not by any class.
- The ratification of the peace treaty with reservations substantially as proposed by the foreign relations committee of the senate.
- Encouragement of agriculture and recognition of the principle that it is and must remain our most important industry.
- The exclusion or deportation of aliens who place the red flag or any other flag above our own.
- A stalwart, uncompromising Americanism which puts this country's interests first.
- International friendships, not partnerships.
- A fearless enforcement of law and order.
- A speedy return to normal conditions.
- Justice to all.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestive pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
