233 AMERICAN WOMEN SERVED AS TELEPHONE OPERATORS FOR A. E. F.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—There were 233 American women serving as telephone operators in the American Expeditionary Force in France during the war. It is reported by the Chief Signal Office of the Army. They had charge of telephones in the largest central stations.

DEFEATED NATION IS REACHING STAGE NEAR STARVATION

BERLIN, Feb. 2.—Germany is absolutely dependent upon foreign sources for its immediate food requirements, says Paul Manktelwitz, a director of the Deutsche bank.
"We need the courage to acknowledge these facts," the banker declares. "It is intolerable that the minister of economics should tell the world that Germany's food supplies are safeguarded, while on the other hand we are forced to admit in the conference of international bankers that Germany is facing a fresh era of hunger unless the banks of the country take hold of the situation."
Herr Manktelwitz supports the current conviction that a long time credit of a large amount is imperative, and he suggests the formation of units, comprising various branches of industry, which would be co-operative with similar units in America for the purpose of obtaining American products. Those, he says, would be offset in a greater part with German commodities the balance to remain pending until the German economic situation bettered itself.

CHINESE FATHER, WITH 17 CHILDREN, LAUGHS AT WORRY OVER H. C. O. L.

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 2.—Lee Kong Kee, Chinese storekeeper, father of 17 children, 14 of whom are living and have received or are receiving every educational advantage, laughs at the high cost of living.
Lee still is supporting the seven younger members of his family and some grand-children as well from the proceeds of his small shop in this city.
Four of his sons served the United States during the war, two as commissioned officers in the army, one in the navy and one as a private in the
