MERE DOZEN REGISTER IN ELECTION BOOKS

Not more than a dozen persons have registered with the county clerk this year and only half a dozen have sent in a change of address, according to Clerk R. T. Brown. The books are always open and will be until within 30 days of election.

The primary election and the special referendum election called for by the recent special legislature, take place on May 21. Books will thus be closed on April 21. All persons who have not registered in the precinct in which they expect to vote are required to register or notify the clerk of their change of residence at least 30 days before the election. Persons who have moved to the state and will have had six months or more residence here can also register.

The day following the primary election the books are again opened and remain open to registration until 30 days before the general election on November 2.

Mr. Grinde returned a few months ago from the navy where he served during the war. He and Mr. Bell are entering business for themselves for the first time. They will operate three chairs in their new shop.

Frederick Cody, eastern campaign manager for Newberry told James Swineheart, of New York that Newberry was to "make it a barrel campaign," the latter testified.

Dean F. G. Miller of the University of Idaho, has recommended the setting apart of land adjoining Payette lakes as a "recreational state park."

The French still have nearly 1,000,000 men under arms.

The entire premises are under new management.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash poisons and toxins from system before putting food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the alimentary canal before eating more food.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside bathing.

The late James J. Hill saw great opportunities in the west. His was the master hand that built the Northern road from St. Paul to the Coast without one cent of aid from the government in land grants.

With some 12,000 to 15,000 miles of roads leading west from Chicago, this great Hill System invested $100,000,000 in the North Bank in the early teens to reach the Ocean at Warrenton. Does not this mean a great port at the mouth of the Columbia?

Warrenton Mill Opens

Drudge Makes Turning Basin at Lumber Company's Dock.

WARRENTON, Or., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—The Warrenton Lumber company tonight commences operating its sawmill day and night. This required about 65 additional employees, who are temporarily being provided for with sleeping quarters in every available spare room of resident citizens, while a local committee is busily engaged inducing property owners to build houses.

The Port of Astoria dredge Natoma is now at work making a large turning basin the Skipanon river, which will be alongside the Warrenton Lumber company's dock. The lumber company has now arranged to handle offshore cargo business instead of only rail shipments.

The first cargo vessel will enter the Skipanon river early in March, at which time the Warrenton Commercial club will hold a celebration to commemorate the opening of this Oregon port.

up the government enumerators. Frequent changes of policy on the part of W. A. Terrill, district supervisor, have made part of the volunteer work here worthless, so that if Pendleton shows 7000 persons the committee will be surprised, he said. The system, however, served to add several hundred which will be counted, as some of the government enumerators were found to have misunderstood the boundaries of their territory and whole blocks were uncounted until attention to the fact was called by the association.

Baseball Creates No Stir.

A letter from heads of the Pacific International Baseball league, offering Pendleton a berth, created not a ripple. Professional ball was tried here several years ago in the old Tri-State league and proved to be an expensive luxury, according to older members.

Promise of action on the auto camp ground for tourists was made although no members of the association committee were present. Mayor Vaughan, however, announced that the council committee is ready for action. Efforts were urged to have a suitable park before tourist season opens.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce will likely be invited to make its marketing trip to Eastern Oregon during May if that time is acceptable to La Grande. About 250 men are expected and the counties to be visited will be in best show condition during May, it was said last night.

The association's center parking plan for Main and Court streets was recalled and the mayor informed the members that it would be given a trial as quickly as possible. The ordinance has been delayed by the illness of City Attorney Fee and postponement of one council meeting.

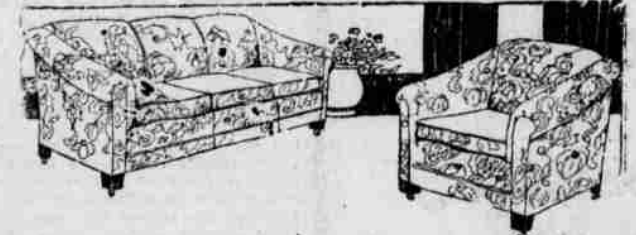

Secretaries Are Coming.

Secretary Cranston asked the cooperation of the association and citizens toward making the convention of the State Association of Commercial Secretaries here a success. The secretaries have chosen Pendleton for their May meeting and Mr. Cranston asked that they be welcomed in the "Pendleton way."

A resolution endorsing the open shop principle and another asking that Pacific coast ships be kept on this coast were read as drafted by the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen. The association declined to adopt similar resolutions but the resolution was instructed to instruct the Legion conveying word of the body's support in its work.

Rex Ellis, Lewis A. Dare and P. M. Collier were elected as members of the association. The report of the treasurer was read, showing a balance on hand of $1724.54. A portion of this balance will be put on certificates of deposit in local banks to draw interest.
