LATEST DOROTHY DALTON FILM IS SPLENDID DRAMA

In "The Market of Souls" a new Paramount-Artcraft picture which will come to the Alta Theatre today, Dorothy Dalton, the popular star, is said to have a dramatic vehicle of the first rank. Thomas H. Ince supervised the screening of the story, which related the adventures of Helen Arnow, a country trained nurse, who comes to New York to follow her profession. There in the town in which her friends the Howells, are leading lights she meets men of both the vicious and really type.

Two brothers, Lyle and Temple Dane, fall in love with her. Lyle is a rouser and attempts to take liberties with Helen. He is foiled by Temple, who is blinded in a struggle with his brother. Helen helps to nurse back his sight again, and a romance is budding, when Lyle renounces himself by telling his brother lies about the girl. Only after the evil brother has died a soldier's death in France does the truth come out and Helen and Temple are made happy.

"The Market of Souls" is from a story by John Lynch and was pictured by C. Gardner Sullivan. Joseph DeGrasse was the director. Miss Dalton is supported by a notable cast, including H. E. Herbert, Philo McCullough, Dorcas Mathews, and Donald McDonald.

ANTI-KISSING CULT LOSES FAIR DISCIPLE

A beautiful girl who does not believe in kissing—two men—the then the girl is kissed in the dark and she finds that kissing is not so bad after all, but—who is the man? This is the unusual theme of the Robertson-Cole Special, "The Beloved Cheater," which features that ace of hearts, Lew Cody.

Bruce Sands (Lew Cody) is the hood of the "deadlier sex," the sort with whom men make friends in self-defense—or at the dictation of their consciences. He is the sort who can't help making love to every girl he meets, but always remains a bachelor.

Then there is "the girl" who becomes engaged without changing her ideas against kissing and her fiancé who is foolish enough to promise to respect her wishes.

The real romance of the girl's life commences when she is kissed and she discovers that it was not her fiancé who kissed her.

Of course she does find the man only to lose him, for the "Beloved Cheater" refuses to let her sacrifice her happiness by marrying a man of her type.

JOURNEY AND MEDAL AWAITS BEST ESSAY

Essays will be judged strictly on a basis of (1) originality, (2) expression, (3) sincerity.

Each school will be the judge of its own produce. The principal of each school will appoint a board of three judges to select one essay as the entry from his school.

Each school will be the judge of its own produce. The principal of each school will appoint a board of three judges to select one essay as the entry from his school. He will then forward the entry, not later than February 27, 1920, to the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 2nd and Oak streets, Portland, Oregon.

The district recruiting officer, Lt.

Col. G. W. Stevens, will appoint a board of judges to pass on the essays submitted by the schools in his district. One will be selected as the best and will be forwarded to Washington as the district's entry.

From the entries of the 55 districts Secretary Baker, General March and General Pershing will select three national winners. These winners may be boys or girls of any color of any age.

Be Rid of Painful Corns

"Get-It" Makes Them Loosen Up So They Lift Off Painlessly.

There's no more pain after a few drops of "Get-It" lands upon corn or callus and instantly dries.

In a day or two you lift the old misery-maker right off without even feeling it. That's the last of Mr. Corn and the last of your misery. Millions who have lost their corns the "Get-It" way say it is the only common-sense way to get rid of the pests.

"Get-It," the never failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Pendleton and surrounding areas at the "Get-It" best drug store by Tallman & Co.

Headaches are caused by poisoning of the blood by toxins, which means that the liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent throbbing pain and distress called headache. You become nervous, dependent, sick, feverish and morose, your meals sour and almost unpalatable. Then you resort to acetaminophen, aspirin or the bromides, which temporarily relieve but do not cure. A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headaches, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of Limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless and sugar.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—The senate adjourned today out of respect to Abraham Lincoln. A resolution followed the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Senator Keyes, who read from the original manuscript in Lincoln's writing, which has been in possession of the Keyes family for many years.

LONDON.—Winning the first prize at an Hford "Whist drive" a woman was given the choice of a bottle of whiskey or a pair of silk stockings. After considerable hesitation she chose the whiskey.

TEA DRINKING BOUT IS HELD IN FAVORITE HAUNT OF HIGHBALL

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—In the tap room of the University Club, where once the Bronx cocktail, the horse's neck, the silver fizz and the Scotch highball were in prime favor and water was not a beverage but a "chaser," there was a tea-drinking bout from 1:20 to 5 p. m. yesterday. Wassail gave way to cologne and the flagon was replaced by the prime china cup, cheering but kickless.

It was the first of the "afternoon teas" to be given daily at the club. Invitations were mailed to members and the number of acceptances was surprising to the club management.

About 25 members visited the tap room in the hours designated as "tea time" and there was much sober discussion of current events as they sipped the unwanted beverage.

There was no camouflage. It was real tea, and most of those who sampled it said they believed they could learn to like it. Waters were served with the tea.

The service cost about the same as mixed drinks formerly cost at the

A Coach of Beauty Adorns This Silent Chalmers THE fine craftsmanship of coach building turned itself loose in this new appearing Chalmers. You observe a high front line and a low rear line, which a well known artist has said is the way a car should look. You find nothing severe, however, about this Chalmers. It has a new elegance, a new grace; and yet a quiet reserve distinguishes the car from others. Particularly does this appeal to you after you've been seated and touch your foot to the accelerator. The silent flow of power, the notable harmony, the ease of the engine engage you. And again you pay a compliment to Hot Spot and Ram's-horn, which tackle the low grade gas of the day and make it perform. Thus the beauty which the eye sees is enhanced by the beauty of action of its master engine; and you, too, say with so many others that Chalmers surely is one of the few great cars of the world.
