CHINESE LAUNDRY TICKETS JUMBLE OF LEGENDS BUT WASHING IS DELIVERED

It appears that Chinese laundrymen have a system of ticketing a bundle of soiled clothes based on the many gods and goddesses of China. Though it is complicated, the washerman seldom delivers a bundle of washed clothes to the wrong person. Moreover, if the ticket is lost, the chances are that one will not get his lines unless he is a particular friend of the proprietor. Instances are of record where an American has gone to court to force the Chinaman to yield up the lines, but the judge was not convinced that the case of the white man was a good one. The Chinese laundryman of the beginning of each week makes out a batch of checks in duplicate to be used as wash tickets. He selects the name of some god or goddess or of some object as the sun, the moon or the stars. To this name he prefixes a number, as "Moon No. 1," "Moon No. 2" and so on. In the space between the two legends—for the signs are repeated twice—he has his own name, as for instance, Kong Loo. When a customer takes a bundle of washing to the laundry the Chinaman first tearing a ticket in two in a ragged fashion, puts one-half on the packet for reference, the other half he gives as a receipt.

BOXING BOARD WILL HEAR CHARGES AGAINST DEMPSEY

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Various

posts of the American Legion, who have adopted resolutions condemning Jack Dempsey as a slacker, and others who have joined in the movement against the world's champion, will be given an opportunity to present evidence to substantiate their charges by the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control. The hearing of evidence in the Dempsey investigation has today been held up pending the arrival of Dempsey's draft questionnaire and other documents. Members of the investigation commission of the boxing board and that charges against the world's champion, so far as they have been able to discover to date, have been based on hearsay. All future sessions of the committee will be open to members of the press. In case some of Dempsey's accusers appear before the board to present evidence, it is believed the champion will be required to come to New York and state in person his side of the controversy. At a preliminary meeting of the special committee here Wednesday afternoon, the members decided that the scope of their investigation would be confined only to whether Dempsey had evaded the draft laws. The special committee is made up of the following men: Alfred L. Manille, a Wall street lawyer, chairman; Major Anthony J. Drevel Hiddle of Philadelphia; Gotzon Borglum, sculptor; Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, R. Breckenridge Steel and Adam Emple, secretary of the boxing control board.

MONTESANO ATTORNEYS CLASH IN WORD DUEL

MONTESANO, Feb. 15.—Verbal duels between Vanderveer and Abel featured the session of the J. W. W. trial Saturday. "I don't know what the matter with you gentlemen this morning, but you certainly will have to cut out this fighting," Judge Wilson admonished the attorneys after a running fire of guerrilla warfare across the table. "We'd better adjourn to the shelter of the jail and have it out there," Abel challenged. "But I thought you were too old to fight," retorted Vanderveer. The court then declared a recess. Vanderveer was unable to break down the testimony of Elsie Hornback who testified yesterday regarding shots from the Avalon hotel. "Why, the prosecution won't even

AMERICAN SOCIETY GIRLS TABOO TATTOO

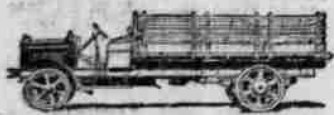

- WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—American women who yearn to be "à la mode" and "advanced" will hesitate in following the newest fad of Paris and London women who are going in for the painting of chipmunks and other cunning little animals on their white shoulders just above the shoulder straps of their evening gowns. This falls far short of the mode—in America, at least. Women of the Osage Indian tribe did it centuries ago. They even extended the custom to the decoration of their ankles, according to the Smithsonian Institution, which studied the custom through Francis La Pléscue, Indian expert of the institution. The custom is fully described in a Smithsonian publication which calls it "Gah-gah O-k'le" or "Rite Belonging to the Chief's." Chief Wax-thi-ah explained the custom to Expert La Pléscue.
