M. H. HOUSER SETS FORTH DATA TO SHOW CHARGE NOT MERITED

Second Vice President of U. S. Grain Corporation Denies Manipulating Situation for Personal Benefit.

PORTLAND, Feb. 16.—In a detailed statement issued yesterday, M. H. Houser, second vice-president of the United States grain corporation and prominent northwestern miller, sets forth figures to demonstrate that the statements made by a federal grand jury sitting at Spokane and reporting as a February 7 assault him without foundation in fact when it accused him of manipulating the grain situation to benefit himself.

Mr. Houser shows by figures and statements that the mills of the companies of which he is the nominal head have held down prices; that he has received no salary from any of his own companies since assuming the duties of his official position two

Are You Suspectious of Your Health?

One may not be actually sick, yet feel so tired and languid, low-spirited and aimless, that he can not truthfully say he is in good health. The kidneys work all the time, night and day, and it is no wonder that they become weak, sore or diseased. Nearly everybody suffers from kidney trouble or bladder ailments. Nature gives warning signals by backache, lameness, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic pains, puffiness under the eyes and blurred vision.

SOLELY KIDNEY PILLS
give quick and permanent relief from kidney and bladder troubles that have not reached a chronic or bad stage. They stop bladder irregularities, strengthen the kidneys and tone up the liver. When the kidneys are properly functioning, they filter and cast out from the blood the impurities that cause acids and poisons and in the end may lead to serious disease. If you have any cause to suspect that your kidneys need help, you will make no mistake in taking Foley Kidney Pills.

BISHOP PADDOCK SAYS DEVIL SMILES AT WAY "CHRISTIANS" WORSHIP

Bishop R. L. Paddock, of the Eastern Oregon diocese of the Episcopal Church of which Pendleton is a part, who is well known in this city, received the following mention in the Sun and New York Herald, of Sunday, February 1:

The Right Rev. Robert Lewis Paddock, who as rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, on Ninth avenue and Twenty-eighth street, shocked his parishioners and his bishop two decades and more ago by his "shoo-fly investigation" of vice conditions in his parish, has administered another rude jolt to his church. This time it is as the bishop of the missionary district of Eastern Oregon, to which post he was elected from his New York parish.

In his report of his activities, addressed to the board of missions, he tells the authorities of the Protestant Episcopal church that he wants all support withdrawn from his jurisdiction except his own salary. This he shares with a general missionary.

Not Building Churches. He tells proudly that he is not building any new churches, saying his territory is overchurched. He states his willingness to go out with no equipment except his faith in the promises of his Lord. His report has no parallel in church records. From the standpoint of a survey it would be a record of a complete failure. From Bishop Paddock's own standpoint it is the prelude to a great success. His only misgivings are about the minds of men.

"They may decide that I am not worthy and let me go. But I hope they will share my faith," he said recently in Detroit.

He has become a little father to churches of all denominations out there. He is welcome everywhere. He is helping to reconcile differences in what he called "almost a religious hell." But let him tell his own story, first getting a glimpse of the man. As rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles he will be remembered as a "two-fisted man," not at all resembling the conventional rector. He was athletic, hale and hearty, though of small stature. Now he is none the less two-fisted; none the less athletic; but his mind is more contemplative; almost introspective. He has been fighting an up hill fight for years—and he has heard nothing but expressions of

SPORT JABS KREIGER WAS CHAMP BEFORE TURNING PRO

Service men of Umatilla county are due for a real treat when Danny O'Brien and Henry Kreiger step into the ring at the American Legion smoker Saturday night, Feb. 28. These two light welterweights have never met in the ring and both have a lot at stake in their forthcoming battle.

Kreiger held the amateur welterweight championship of the Pacific coast before he entered the professional ranks. Since becoming a professional he has met and beaten such boys as Billy Wright, now recognized welterweight of the coast; Sammy Good, Romeo Hagen, Harry Bishop, Charley Fox, Joe Motto and Thomas McCarthy.

SPORT JABS KREIGER WAS CHAMP BEFORE TURNING PRO

He beat Bishop, Fox and Motto by knockout route in one round each. Dotto is a Cleveland, Ohio, boy, who had a big reputation. Fox has beaten some of the best welterweights in England and the states. The match with O'Brien is to be Kreiger's first start since the war and he has been in training for two months steadily to regain his old-time knockout form. When going right he is considered the hardest hitting welterweight on the coast. Kreiger has been promised some excellent matches by the Portland boxing commission when he shows that he is back to old-time form and is anxious to put O'Brien away in the local match. O'Brien is a favorite all over the coast and before going into the service he had a large following. He did little fighting while on his side, but after the armistice was signed he worked his way up to the finals which entitled him to enter the A. E. F. championships in Pershing stadium, Paris. He returned to the states with his unit rather than remain for the contest, however.

PROPHESIES RESULTS

Bishop Paddock was asked what he thought the ultimate results would be. He answered: "I think we shall help to spread the gospel throughout my district, and that we shall awaken interest in all the churches and their points of unity—not their differences. I don't suppose a work of this kind would show up well on any report and I know it is difficult to get my point of view before the eyes of the men who have charge of the mission work of our church. But my conception of the task before me is not that of a church builder in places already overchurched.

"COFFIN TRUST" PROSPERS AS RESULT OF MANY ILLS

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The "Coffin Trust" is in a high state of prosperity as a result of influenza and other fatal ills. Recently the National Casket Co. put up its whole sale prices. Yesterday it put up its dividends to assist its stockholders to meet the high cost of living. The company declared its regularly quarterly dividend of 1-2 per cent, and an extra dividend of 1 per cent in cash and also announced that a stock dividend of 5 per cent would be distributed March 30.

FIRST CALL ANSWERED BY 58 BEAVERS LED BY "SPEC" KEENE, PITCHER

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Feb. 16.—Batteries for the O. A. C. baseball team have reported for the first warming up of the season. At the call of Jimmy Richardson, coach, 58 men signed for baseball and this list included lettermen last year's freshmen and several with army experience. If weather permits the men will work outdoors, otherwise the army will be used. Captain "Spec" Keene leads the list of pitchers.

AGGIES AND WASHINGTON STILL SCRAPPING ABOUT 50-50 FOOTBALL SPLIT

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Feb. 16.—Washington university, having been foiled in its attempt to persuade the colleges of the Pacific coast intercollegiate conference to abandon the rule of 50-50 division of the gate receipts in football games, now charges Dr. T. G. DeLoach and Jimmy Richardson, with having verbally promised to enter into a contract with Washington on a 50-50 division basis regardless of the rule. This charge is absolutely and emphatically denied by the men in question.

POPULATION CENTER STEADILY GOES EAST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The decennial census, now being taken, will reveal that the center of population of the United States has moved eastward and not toward the west or the south as commonly predicted. J. A. Hill, statistician of the census bureau said last night in an address at the National Press club. After the war movement to the eastern cities, together with the war-time growth of the eastern industrial centers, the census statistician said, have more than counteracted the normal westward movement of population.

TWO KINDS OF ECONOMY IN THE POST-WAR MAXWELL

The Post-War Maxwell inherited from its 300,000 predecessors two traits that captivate the person who likes continuous, uninterrupted comfort and low cost mileage.

One is its freedom from repairs. It runs on and on. Give it gas, oil, grease and water and it will deliver an amazing amount of mileage.

The second is the low price you pay per mile. Its thrifty engine makes gas go a long way. Its 2000 pounds of weight assures long tire wear.

Such kinds of economy came from years of study and the experience which 300,000 previous Maxwells have taught.

The notable improvements and refinements to be found in this car have caught the attention of many who figured that high efficiency meant high price. The public has served notice that it does appreciate value. That is why 40,000 persons will have to go without a Post-War Maxwell this year though 100,000 are being built.

We carry a full line of Maxwell parts, also Lee tires and tubes.
