He urged fathers to know their sons, provide for them the proper environ-ment and to "be square with them."

Harrah Says "Do."

"Do" and not "Don't" should "Do" and not "Don't" should be the advice of father to son, W. W. Harrah declared in his response to the toast, "Son Through Father's Specks." "Boys do not like to be suppressed," he said, "They want to be doing something. Every father should see to it that his son is so busy doing something worth while that he will not have to say "don's."
