

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"SPOTLIGHT SADIE" GIVES MAE MARSH QUAINI ROLE

In her new Goldwyn Picture, with the interesting title of "Spotlight Sadie," Mae Marsh comes to the Alta Theatre, beginning Sunday and the star promises to give an uncommonly good account of herself. She is Sadie Sullivan, a timid new-comer in the chorus of a Broadway musical comedy with the avowed intention of marrying a millionaire and being happy ever afterward. She meets him and they love each other, but their happiness is of short duration because of the jealousy of another girl.

Sadie's sweetness and innocence are made capital of by the management of the show with the result that she is heralded far and wide as "the saintly showgirl." Stories are told of her fondness for reading a prayer book while waiting for her cue and when the young fellow learns that this is true he is convinced of her high character.

In time he is made to know that it is part of the role Sadie unknowingly plays. When he sees her at a notorious cafe, where she has gone in response to a false message from a friend, his worst suspicions are realized. A powerful climax is worked up from this point, in which Mae Marsh displays all her whimsical appeal and unique dramatic power.

ARCADÉ SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"WIDOW BY PROXY" WITH MARGUERITE CLARK DELIGHTFUL

More than ordinary interest centers around Margaret Clark's latest Paramount-Artcraft picture, "Widow by Proxy," to be shown at the Arcade theatre next Sunday, because it is the dainty star's first production since becoming acclimated to the new California atmosphere in which she is working. Miss Clark's former photoplays have been made in New York, and it is only recently that she left the metropolis and joined the colony of motion picture stars at Los Angeles.

A large amount of that celebrated California sunshine is reflected in "Widow by Proxy," and it is one of the brightest light comedies in which Miss Clark has yet appeared. The little favorite has the part of a pretty "bachelor girl," who poses as her recently widowed chum in order to win for her the inheritance which the real widow is too proud to claim. Two delightful love stories are woven into the plot, which is crowded with pleasant surprises and a startling climax. It was adapted from the Broadway stage

WIDOW BY PROXY

By Catherine Chisholm Cushing. Scenario by Julia Crawford Ivers. Directed by Walter Edwards.

It was night! The house fairly reeked of ancestors. The youthful little "widow," in her nightie, was prowling among the heirlooms. She was an imposter. She was also in love. She shuddered to think if HE caught her—HE DID catch her!

Yet things soon brightened, for her "dead husband" arrived, and she went right ahead and married. Astonishing?!? Simply scandalous—till you understand it. Come!

ALTA TODAY
SENNETT BEY-TIES IN NEW FLEM COMEDY

Mack Sennett's famous comedies of bathing beauties are seen as gymnast girls in the latest Paramount-Sennett comedy, "Up in Alf's Place," which is coming to the Alta Theatre today. They appear in many athletic poses, led by pretty "Harriet" Harmond, who is supposed to be the instructor in a gymnasium run in connection with Comedian Jim Finlayson's beauty parlor. Charles Murray, proprietor of a delicatessen shop, and Kalia Pasha, the big fellow with the whiskers and in the picture, a Red Sox leader, are quartered in the same building.

The cast includes nearly all of Mack Sennett's well known fun-makers, and the action is said to be fast and furious as well as abounding in unusually marvellous situations.

COMMUNITY CLUB HAS NEEDLEWORK DISPLAY

(East Oregonian Special.)
PILOT ROCK, Feb. 21.—The Pilot Rock Community Club resumed its regular weekly meetings Wednesday. The meeting was held as usual in the basement of the Church of Pilot Rock. The needle work committee had charge of this meeting and many pieces of needle work were displayed. Among the pieces shown were some Mexican needle worked dollies, which Mrs. W. O. Staver brought from Old Mexico several years ago. The only new committee appointed was the sick committee. The ladies of the health committee will entertain next week. The club planned for a Year Book and decided to have it printed soon.

A great improvement is being made on the roads in Pilot Rock. The road between Thomas Jacques and A. E. Hutchinson are at present dragging the main streets.

Carl S. Stewart, lineman for the Independent Telephone Co., received a telegram Thursday telling of the death of his oldest sister, Mrs. A. L. Smith of Cairo, Nebraska, who had been ill with "flu." Mr. Stewart left on Thursday for Cairo and while in Nebraska will spend a few days at the home of his brother, in North Platte.

Joe Kapp of Nye visited in Pilot Rock Thursday.

This week W. F. Kidwell purchased the five room bungalow of Miss Cora Grant. Mr. Kidwell and his family will take possession about March 1 and intends to build a fence about the yard and also put in a lawn. Since Mr. Kidwell and his family have moved to Pilot Rock from their ranch they have been living in the Dave Wright residence.

Mrs. George Hunter of Pendleton and Mrs. William Leathers of Hermiston are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitaker. The ladies will probably remain until Saturday and also visit at the C. A. Cooper home.

Mrs. T. P. Edwards of Pendleton was a guest at the home of her sister Mrs. Morgan G. Edwards between trains on Wednesday. Mrs. T. P. Edwards has recently moved to Pendleton from Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Fletcher of Pine Grove were visitors in Pilot Rock Wednesday.

Mrs. Al Balcom of Caldwell, Idaho, will soon leave for Hot Lake, Oregon, where she will remain a few weeks for her health. Later Mrs. Balcom accompanied by her husband and daughter Miss Hazel will visit at the home of Mrs. Patrick Cassidy near Pilot Rock. Mrs. Cassidy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Balcom.

T. S. Gibson was a business visitor in Pilot Rock Wednesday.

A. G. Boehle, a prominent stock raiser of Southern Umatilla County, was a visitor in this city Thursday.

The board of directors of the Pilot Rock grammar school, have accepted the resignation of the primary teacher, Miss Edith Wanke. Miss Wanke will continue to teach until February 27, and then will leave for her home in Oregon City. This is Miss Wanke's third year in the Pilot Rock school.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rankin, and two children are visiting at the home of Mrs. Rankin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacques here. Mr. Rankin and his family have been visiting relatives in Medford, but are now on their way to Pullman, Washington to make their home. Mr. Rankin and Arthur Bond are going into business in Pullman. Both are former owners of the Bond Auto Co.

Earl Abbot has sold 250 acres of grazing land to Mrs. Stella Noble. It is at the head of Birch Creek and adjoins Mrs. Noble's homestead.

William Chapman and wife, of the Nye county were shopping in Pilot Rock Thursday.

Miss Cora Grant, having disposed of her property in the west part of town has purchased the small cottage owned by M. D. Orange. Misses Velma Smith and Elizabeth Hervey, who have been living with Miss Grant will also move.

Miss Alta Boylen has begun teaching summer school at the Fletcher school house about 15 miles south of Pilot Rock. She has four pupils.

Mrs. Emma Lee passed through Pilot Rock Thursday enroute to Ukiah where she will look after some interests in the Lee's estate. She has been visiting in Knap, Washington.

The weather in the Pilot Rock country has changed to some extent in one day. Thursday appeared very spring like, but Friday the ground was well covered with snow.

Congressman Welby, Ohio: "Antagonism of railroads toward the development of water transportation is hindering the growth and prosperity of the country, and the lowering of the cost of living essentials."

MILK CRUST ON BABY'S HEAD

Over a Year In Pimples, Scarcely Slept, C. Cuticura Heads.

"Baby's head was full of milk crust for over a year. It began in pimples which teared and spread, and when she would scratch they ran together, forming a crust. She scarcely slept, and her hair became dry. I tried everything but found Cuticura Soap and Ointment was just the thing for her head, and when I had used two boxes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. E. R. Wilkins, 327 No. Howe St., Ft. Collins, Colo., Sept. 22, 1919.

Why not prevent these distressing skin troubles by making Cuticura your every-day toilet and nursery soap aided by touches of Cuticura now and then, to remove the first signs of pimples, rashes and dandruff. Cuticura Talcum is a cooling, soothing, dusting powder of fascinating fragrance.
