AN OVERSEAS DIARY

(By Rev. J. M. Cornelison who served with the U. S. Army.)

Saturday, Sept. 28.—I am bound to be a cook "Somewhere in France." It is of the place where "Tourist" was. The past tense is the word to use relative to all these towns. They were but are not. The lines have just been bombed out. Not much remains intact now. "Jerry" is still shelling this place many times both day and night. Our men have been bucking this part of the line as it is being done along the whole western front. The Bergevin Brothers, the extensive Australians are putting on the barrage reservation wheat growers, will have they sure make some big noise hour, 2500 acres to harvest this season.

R. M. Turner returned last night from Portland. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Verdi Turner, who has completed her studies at St. Helen's Hall.

"Red Riding Hood" an operetta, will be given tonight by the pupils of the Pendleton Academy, under the direction of Mrs. John Vert. Following are the characters: Red Riding Hood, Miss L. Roberts; child, Miss Stella Alexander; Mamma, Miss M. Roberts;

woodman, Z. Gross; wolf, M. Hinkle; robin, Master Louie DeSpain; buttercup, Miss Jessie Hartman; rose, Miss Geraldine De Spain; bluejay, Miss Yvonne Gilliam; bluebells, Misses Minnie Thompson, Della Livermore, Kittle mar led the throng in a number of Parsons and Fannie Blakely. There old favorite songs. Perry Davis, evidently from Hill Military Academy, will be a full chorus of merry children.

there is educationally, that he may reach the place at 25 that you attained at 49.

Preparations for the banquet were made for 150 and 150 attended. A sumptuous supper was served to five completely filled tables in the banquet room of the Eagle-Woodman hall, by 20 young ladies from the high school. The blessing was asked by Rev. J. Francis Morgan.

Following the meal and the talks, music was enjoyed by the assembly. The Round-Up quartet sang several selections, the high school glee club to Gilliam, bluebells, Misses Minnie Thompson, Della Livermore, Kittle mar led the throng in a number of Parsons and Fannie Blakely. There old favorite songs. Perry Davis, evidently from Hill Military Academy, will be a full chorus of merry children.
