CLUB ENJOYS MEETING

The Merry-Go-Round Club was delightfully entertained Thursday when Mrs. William Boynton was hostess at her home near Helix. In a guessing contest, uniquely arranged, Mrs. Ralph Porter won the honors. In the party were Mrs. Boynton, Mrs. Claude Hanson, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Lamer Hessinger, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Clarence Proston, Mrs. Clyde Proston, Mrs. Garland Gray, Mrs. Barney Anderson and Mrs. Henry Eggers, the latter two being from Pendleton.

LEAP YEAR PARTY GIVEN

Leap year and a dozen maids last evening featured a merry affair for which Miss Lois Swagart was hostess as a courtesy to her house guest, Miss Fay Price of Milton. A progressive "book" party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wheeler was shared by a dozen "beaux" whom the maidens asked and escorted to the affair in strict accordance with leap year dictation. The large reception room of the Wheeler home was gaily decked with red, white and blue, tricolor streamers fluttering in a drop ceiling from the electroliers, and scarlet hatched lined the walls where portraits of George and Martha Washington were hung. Six tables were arranged for play and the "stars and stripes" marked the score cards. Miss Esther Earle and Ben Smith won high honors and trophies were awarded by way of "consolation" to Miss Margaret Elder and Ernest Dohmert.

Supper followed the game and the party enjoyed a group of solos by the honor guest, who is an accomplished harpist. She later entertained with several delightful pianologue sketches. adjourning from the supper tables the guests gathered in the spacious studio which had been cleared for dancing and a feature of the evening was a Turkish solo dance given by Archibald Blakeley in costume.

The party included: Miss Price, Miss Mary Douglas Chisholm, Miss Margaret Elder, Miss Ruth Snow, Miss Pauline Dohmert, Miss Alberta McManis, Miss Iva Dale, Miss Ruth Dennis, Miss Helen Idelman, Miss Esther Earle, Miss Mary Wilkes, Miss Swagart, Wesley Minns, David Swanson, Max Dudley Richard Neal, Bob Forrest, Len Smith, Harold Goodcock, Charles Cahill, Claid Snow, Ernest Dohmert, Arthur Rudd and Donald Robinson.

CLUB PLANS FOR 'ANNUAL'

For Wednesday, February 25, has been scheduled the Current Literature Club "annual" an event which, each spring, claims a unique position in Pendleton's social calendar. The club this year has devoted its study to China and a "Mandarin dinner" is planned for the 1920 springtime festivity. In charge of the affair are Mrs. Charles Marsh, Mrs. Norbome Berkeley, Mrs. Charles Bond and Mrs. James Welch. Guests are asked to meet at the library at 1 o'clock.

DELPHIAN CLUB MEETS

A regular meeting of the Delphian club took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Richardson with a good attendance present. Those who enjoyed the affair, other than club members, were Mrs. Jessie Helestand and Mrs. Monroe. After the transaction of business the meeting was in charge of Mrs. H. H. Horne and Mrs. S. A. Newberry. Mrs. Gus Byers opened the program with one of Dr. Frank Crane's essays, and Mrs. Horn gave a historical review of Latin literature. Mrs. Newberry discussed at some length the beginnings of Latin literature. Her interesting talk completed the program and a social hour was spent over the teacups.

W. Neal both of whom formerly lived in Pendleton and who are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bowers.

MISS GROTH IS BRIDE

A wedding of interest throughout the county occurred Thursday near Fremont when Miss Margaret Groth became the bride of John Lorenzen, the service being read at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Groth. The rooms were decked with an abundance of spring blossoms and foliage and the couple was unattended, vows being exchanged in the presence of only members of the immediate families and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peters. The bride was attired in a dainty gown of white worn with a filmy tulle veil which fell to the hem of her train. Her bouquet was a lovely cluster of carnations and ferns.

Following the service a wedding dinner was served at the Groth home, vari-colored blossoms centering the table. Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzen left that evening for Walla Walla to take the train for Portland but not before a merry charivari party had extended to late conversations.

Upon their return from a short journey Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzen are to make their home on the groom's ranch near Echo, a country place known as the Montezuma farm. The wedding union two well known Umatilla county families, the groom being a son of the late Henry Lorenzen and a prominent young farmer of the Echo district.
