

News of Pendleton

Red Cross Nurses Aid.

Miss Helen Cunliffe, who is employed by the Red Cross as a nurse, is in Milton today looking after influenza patients. Miss Lela Cole, another employee of the Red Cross, is in Pilot Rock nursing patients.

Wilbur Marling Leaves.

Wilbur Marling, who for the past year has been assisting with the surveying at the reservation, left Saturday for San Francisco. Marling is an ex-service man and was with the aviation corps during the war.

Placing Roof for Elks Home.

The brick work of the Elks building has been virtually completed and a force started today to place the roof on the building. Within a short time work on the interior will be taken up. The Security Apartment building, adjoining on the west, is coming along well, the concrete for the foundation being poured at present. This work will require only a few days.

Has Chamberlain Petitions.

Ten petitions for George E. Chamberlain as candidate for the democratic nomination as senator to succeed himself, have been received by Northern Berkeley and they will be circulated in 10 precincts of the county. Local persons who are interested in signing are asked to call at Mr. Berkeley's office on Alta street.

Will Leave for Yakima.

Stanley Jewett, of the United States Biological Survey, will leave tomorrow for an inspection trip in the Yakima country.

Berkeley Has Police Dog.

A Red Cross or Police dog, six months old, has just been received by N. Berkeley from R. T. Cox, of Portland, formerly of Pendleton. The dog is a thoroughbred and is considered quite valuable.

Will Receive Training.

Hursey Dakin, Umatilla county ex-service man who was given a distinguished service cross and distinguished service citation for gallantry in action, is to receive training under the government vocational training regulations. Mr. Dakin is in Portland at present for a vacation but intends taking the training later.

Finley Lectures Please.

William Finley, formerly state game warden and until recently state biologist, is meeting with good success in the East where he is lecturing and showing moving pictures of birds and animals, according to word received at the local office of the United States Biological Survey today. Mr. Finley, who is well known to Pendleton sportsmen, is to lecture before the National Geographic Society in the near future.

Drinks Cost Man $10.

Jim Jones was fined $10 in police court this morning for having celebrated Washington's birthday with a few too many drinks.

Lodge Will Be in Charge.

The Artisan lodge will have charge of the services at the funeral of the late Mrs. Annabelle Willner, to be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. from the Catholic church.

White Children Baptized by Indian.

Margaret and Victor McPhail, children of Jack McPhail, farmer of the reservation, were baptized yesterday by Rev. E. J. Conner, Indian minister. The services were conducted at the home of Mr. McPhail.

Faculty Entertained.

Miss Mary Johns and Miss Laura Jerrard have asked the women members of the high school faculty in to tea at the Johns home on Jackson street this afternoon, the invitation being extended most informally.

Mrs. Willner Dies.

Mrs. Annabelle Willner, aged 47, died yesterday morning. She had been a resident of Pendleton for the past 25 years, and was a sister of Mrs. D. D. Phelps, of this city. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. from the Catholic church of which Mrs. Willner was a member. She was a member of the United Artisans lodge.

Will Start Water System.

E. E. Geist returned Sunday from Heppner where he has the contract for building the city's new $100,000 water system. Work is to begin at once on the system and 14 miles of pipeline will be laid. There will be 10 miles of concrete pipe, three miles of wooden pipe and one mile of iron pipe. The work will require most of the spring and summer to complete.

Sol Baum on Way Home.

Sol Baum, who has been east several weeks enjoying life and lining up a lot of new sporting goods and fishing tackle for the coming season, is about ready to start for home, according to a letter to friends here, written from Atlantic City. He and Mrs. Baum have been visiting in Newport, R. I., New York and other extreme eastern points and expect to arrive home Friday. "One needs a caddy to carry the bank-roll back here," he writes.

Three Permits Issued Today.

Three building permits were issued today by Acting City Recorder John Bailey Jr. A Sompel will build a basement under his dwelling at 309 Fairfield street, at a cost of $700. W. Schmaling will erect a frame building with screen porch on his Sycamore street property at a cost of $200. James E. Beard will install shelving and fixtures for a general merchandise business at 309 West Webb street in the Gritman building at a cost of $200.

Will Cross-Section Streets.

The city engineering department today began work of cross-sectioning South Main street south from the end of pavement about 200 feet. It is the intention of property owners in that vicinity to pave the street this summer. As soon as that work is completed, Engineer P. B. Hays and his crew will start similar operations on Martin street, on the north side, which is to be paved from Madison to North Main street. Mr. Hays has not yet been informed when paving operations in Pendleton will be started.

Road Passable by April 1.

George Roberts, of Rieth, said today that the Old Oregon Trail grade between Rieth and Echo will be passable for the entire distance by April 1, according to word given him Sunday by one of the foremen for Clifton, Applegate & Toole, contractors. The heavy rock work is virtually all completed and excellent progress is being made on the grading. When the grade is completed it will be possible for vehicles to pass over the road. By April 1, however, contracts are expected to be let for graveling the highway, so it is probable that the route will not be thrown open to regular traffic.

Christian Church Revival.

The wonderful revival at the Christian Church is drawing the greatest crowds in the history of the church. Last night the attendance exceeded any previous audience. There were 16 additions to the church during the day. The music was of a high order, and Mr. Withie did himself proud in his preaching. It was a busy day but the evangelists did not appear tired after the day of hard work. The baptismal service was most impressive as the red cross furnished the background of the baptism, and the screen in front of the baptism. The great audience will never forget the scene. Subject tonight "Self Verified Truth." All are invited.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the pain and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears—Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Store Editorial

You Are Entitled to Courteous Service

If you feel you have occasion for complaint, please let us have it, rather than harbor it in your mind.

Quite true, our customers know we are striving continually to raise the efficiency of our service. But a single instance may occur when a sales person will for a moment forget him or herself and unconsciously make a hasty remark to regret it immediately. A word will straighten this out for their own good.

Let us know where we can improve—both our salespeople and we appreciate this friendly advice.

Seniors Win Tug.

The class numeral of the Senior class now adorns the firehouse, which stands just off the grounds of the Pendleton high school. It will remain there until next year. The seniors recently outpulled the "Champion Juniors" in a fierce tug of war, thereby gaining the right to paint out the number "21" and put "29" in its place.

Playground Is Discussed.

A city playground was the chief topic at a joint meeting of Pendleton Parent-Teacher Associations held Friday night in the library. A committee was appointed to make investigations concerning the establishment of a playground. A paper entitled, "Play as an educator of youth," by Fred Bennion, was read, and a paper on playgrounds, written by E. B. Aldrich, was read. Other numbers on the program were a violin solo by Miss Gaynell Baldwin, a vocal duet by Mrs. Mae Hayer and Miss Giffilen, a piano solo by Miss Sadie Young and a vocal solo by Mrs. S. H. Forshaw.

Rook Week at P. H. S.

The Rooks of Pendleton high school are celebrating Rook Week by wearing green ties and parting their hair in the middle. This is being done by order of the senior class and with the approval of the juniors. The idea is causing a more cheerful spirit among the students who appreciate the little joke on the lower classmen. No ill-feeling has resulted and most of the rooks are taking the thing in good spirit. Fear that too much pep might result has caused some talk of suppression but so far no active step has been taken.

Adds Ford Delivery.

Rudd the Tailor today added a Ford delivery car to handle his business in tailoring and pressing. The car is painted blue, the same as his shop.

Debate Coming Soon.

H. E. Inlow, debate coach at Pendleton high school, announced this morning that it is probable that the local team will have a contest next

OUCH! LUMBAGO PAIN! RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Instant Relief with a small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and liberally apply it. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain. Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
