Will Conduct Services

Services will be conducted at Adams on Sunday by Father Maloney, of St. Mary's Catholic church.

Ed Lyday in Hospital

Ed Lyday, Fulton farmer, was brought to the hospital yesterday to be operated on for appendicitis as soon as he recovers sufficiently from the flu. He is reported doing well today.

Snyder Sale on Today

The auction sale at the Frank Snyder ranch three miles north of town, took place today, starting at 10 o'clock. Col. W. P. Yohanka, Riverview auctioneer, arrived over the Northern Pacific this morning to cry the sale. A large number from here attended the sale.

Is New Ticket Seller

William Radke, of Baker, is a new employee at the O. W. R. & N. passenger depot and began his duties today as head ticket seller. Mrs. Radke arrived this morning from Baker and they are at the Kenmore Apartments. L. J. Canfield, who has been at the window here, left last night for Portland and will go from there to Calgary, to be employed by the railroad there. Mr. Canfield was formerly at Calgary before he came to Pendleton.

May Publish Essays

Essays written by Pendleton school children in the army contest will be printed as soon as received, according to word received here today. It was thought that it would be necessary to hold the essays until the contest was closed, but the new ruling changes this.

Services to Be Held Here

German Lutheran church services will be held in the Christian Church here on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. A. Blasberg, pastor, in charge. The regular Sunday morning services and a business meeting of his congregation will be held in the church at Myrick at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

Pays for Destroying Fountain

Jim Vagelinos, who, the police allege, destroyed the drinking fountain at the corner of Court and Main streets by running into it with his auto a few nights ago, was brought before City Recorder Thomas Pitts Gerald this morning and required to deposit $45. The fountain will be replaced at Mr. Vagelinos' expense.

Has Article in Magazine

A. K. Fisher, U. S. Biological Survey official who is known here and who has visited Pendleton, is the author of an article entitled "Predatory Animals and Injurious Rodents," which appears in The Producer. The article is illustrated with pictures taken by predatory animal trappers.

Monterastelli is a local boy, formerly an East Oregonian carrier, and his ship spent 12 months in Scotch waters. He reenlisted in New York and has been at home several days on leave.

Christian Church Revival Continues

The revival at the First Christian church continues with interest unabated. Prof. Gates sang last night a powerful solo, "Be a Hero." Evangelist Whitte delivered one of his great addresses on "Burden Bearer." He made a plea for the unwary who go astray and condemned the practice of gossip and meddlers who break up homes by unwarranted intrusion into affairs of others. Three more people, all adults, untied with the church when the invitation was given. "Man's Debt to Man—How He Shall Pay It?" will be the subject of tonight's sermon.

Schools Have Fire Drill

Fire drill was held in the city schools this morning by Fire Chief W. E. Ringold, accompanied by Superintendent F. P. Austin and Chairman of the Board Manuel Friedly. The high school and Lincoln school were untied in one minute, with very orderly formations. Washington and Hawthorne schools were emptied in 50 seconds each, but their formations were slightly more confused. The chief expressed satisfaction at their results and urged for orderliness in leaving the buildings, as well as dispatch. This was the first fire drill since the new years was ushered in.

YOUR COLD EASED

AFTER FIRST DOSE

"Pape's Cold Compound" then breaks up a cold in a few hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all the grippe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages in the head, stops nose running, relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Clear your congested head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine—insist upon Pape's!
