The Whitite and Gates revival continues to hold the interest of the people. Sunday is confidently expected to surpass any previous Lord's day in both attendance and results. The Bible school will assemble at 9:45 a. m. All teachers are expected to be present. Evangelist Whitite will try to visit every class during the Sunday school period. At 11 a. m. the beautiful and impressive double communion service will be administered. "Victory Over Death," or "Shall We Know Each Other in Heaven?" will be the theme of Mr. Whitite's morning sermon. A basket dinner in the church dining room will be served to the congregation after the morning program. Mr. Whitite will speak again at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to men and women on "Freedom from Self-Condensation." Both Junior and Senior C. E. will meet at 6:30 p. m. "Bible Baptism—What Is It?" will be the theme of the address at 7:30 p. m. Evangelist Whitite requests all to bring pencil and paper, so as to study the subject with him. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends and strangers to worship with the congregation and enjoy the wonderful fellowship. Milton will bring a delegation to the Sunday afternoon service, thus insuring a splendid musical program. Don't miss the great baptismal service at night.

Methodist.
Robert Edward Gornall, Pastor.
"What a struggle to live! Are life's problems fundamentally economic?" "A Living or a Life, Which?" will be the pastor's morning theme. A related theme for the evening will be "The Debt Which Makes a Man." These are practical objects and touch every life. There is something in these services of great help to everyone.

The church school with its separate departments and classes for all ages, invites you for 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30. These services are well attended and appreciated by the young people.

Evening praise and worship at 7:30. We aim to permanently help you—to intelligently lead you into the deeper things of the Christ life—to send you from the house of God with greater Christian charity for all mankind. We shall count it a real privilege to serve you tomorrow.
