PENDLETON GIRL WEDS.
 Friends will be interested in the following note from the Portland Oregonian concerning the wedding of a former Pendleton girl:

"Mrs. Robert J. Slater has announced the marriage of her daughter, Edna Frances, to Rev. Robert H. McClain of Tacoma, Wash., at Grace Memorial church last Tuesday night. Rev. O. W. Taylor officiated."

Mrs. McClain received the early part of her education here and is a graduate of the Pendleton high school. She has since devoted her time to music and is the possessor of a soprano voice of much charm. She is a niece of Mrs. Myrtle Praker Slites, prominent Portland contralto, and of Miss Ethel Franklin, who recently spent several weeks in Pendleton. Mrs. McClain is a sister of Miss Anita Slater and a member of a proper Oregon family.

PIONEER CLUB TO MEET.
 Pioneer Club members are to meet tomorrow afternoon in the library club room, the gathering being the first of the organization to be called to the new year and marking resumption of regular meetings after an extended recess. Dues, which were to have been collected in December, will be received tomorrow and a program and social hour have been planned. The affair is scheduled for 2 o'clock, and during the absence of Mrs. William Blakely, the president, who is in California, Mrs. H. E. Bickers, vice-president, is serving as the club executive.

MRS. SMITH IS HOSTESS.
 Mrs. Charles J. Smith entertained most delightfully on Friday at her residence in Alameda with a luncheon when covers were laid for 12. The color scheme was yellow with candles, daffodils and spring greens.—Oregonian.

DE MILLIE QUARTET COMES.
 The De Millie Quartet, which has been declared to be the second best quartet in the United States and which is one of the feature numbers of the Ellison-White Lyceum course, will appear at the Methodist church this evening under the auspices of the Epworth League.

The concert here is afforded by the fact that the quartet had the open date in Pendleton. The singers have been heard by local people who endorsed the effort to secure their appearance. They came to Pendleton from Boise, Idaho, in their tour of coast states. The personnel is composed of H. De Millie, leading baritone, who has for the past several years been doing single turns on the chautauques and lyceum courses; Mr. Edmund Carps, lyric tenor, who makes a specialty of numbers from Celeste, Aida and Verdi; Gladstone Brown, who sings second tenor and whose numbers from "Faust" are featured; and Alfred J. Atkinson, one of the leading basso profundos of all Canada, who sings low A below the usual low C taken by basses.

Miss H. Buckingham, a graduate of Toronto Conservatory of Music, is the quartet's accompanist.

MR. AND MRS. JUDD LEAVE.
 Friends are regretting the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Judd, who left yesterday for Portland, where they plan to remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson and little Miss Shirley are now domiciled in the former residence of the Judds, on Washington street, which they recently purchased.

MRS. McLEAN IS HOSTESS.
 The "Sunshine" class of the Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed the hospitality Saturday afternoon of Mrs. H. E. McLean, the class teacher. The members spent several informal hours at the McLean home. A while was devoted to reading aloud from the missionary book, "Mook, the Story of a Chinese Boy," and games and a delightfully appointed luncheon followed. Mrs. McLean's guests were Miss Georgia Bradley, Miss Mary Hampton, Miss Thelma Simpson, Miss Lila Harper, Miss Isabelle Macey, Miss Mildred Ebel, Miss Louis Hayden, Miss Jean Bell, Miss Katherine Gluhm, Miss Gladys Snyder, Miss Florence Walter and Mrs. Helen Martin.

REPRESENTATIVE ENTERTAINED.
 In compliment to Miss Elsie P. Kappen, field representative of the New World Movement of the Baptist church, who was a guest in Pendleton, Mrs. John E. Montgomery entertained with an informal but delightful luncheon at Jolly's Inn at noon today. Covers were laid for four others in the party: Mrs. A. F. May and Mrs. J. Glen Miller.

Miss Kappen, whose home is in Milwaukee, Wis., spent the week-end in Pendleton and spoke at the Baptist church yesterday, explaining the work of the New World Movement of the Baptist church in cooperation with the Inter-church World Movement. She departed this afternoon for Kennebec, Wash., to attend an association meeting and will then tour Western Washington. Miss Kappen's headquarters is New York City, but she has been in the west for the past 18 months.

MRS. ROGERS IS HONORED.
 Mrs. David Rogers was complimented in a delightful way Saturday evening when a group of friends called to surprise her and spend an informal evening with music and cards. A supper prepared by the guests was served during the final hour.

For Middle-Aged Men and Women

It isn't always on coming old age that causes men and women in the middle years of life to slow up and feel a loss of ambition and energy. Weak or diseased kidneys do not filter waste matter and impurities out of the blood as they should, and backache, tired feeling, lameness, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic pains, biliousness, irritation of the bladder, puffiness under the eyes or other symptom or ailment appears.

SHE WAS GREATLY BENEFITED
 "I feel so much better than I did before I got Foley Kidney Pills. They are fine and you may use my name in your advertisement, as my kidneys are now helped and I feel so much better. I truly hope some one else who needs it will get some of your medicine. Your Kidney Pills are wonderful. I cannot thank you enough for them." Laura Perry, 1540 Twigg St., Augusta, Ga.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
 strengthen the kidneys, stimulate the bladder and tone up the liver. They help the kidneys remove the accumulated poisons and soothe and heal the passages. When the kidneys and urinary tract are doing their work perfectly, the whole system is benefited and restored to health and strength. WERE suffer when a reliable remedy can be so easily had?

Sold Everywhere.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. A. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stansbury, Mrs. and Mrs. C. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Dayton, Mrs. Tille Walters, James Waldon, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Rogers.

BETHROTHAL IS ANNOUNCED.
 In the Portland papers of yesterday appeared attractive portraits of Miss Jeanette Bernstein, of that city, with announcement of her engagement to Max Gorfik, young business man of Pendleton.

MISS PARK LEAVES.
 A number of her school friends went to the train this morning to bid farewell to Miss Elsie Park, a senior in Pendleton high school, who left for Long Beach, California.

RITNERS GO TO NEBRASKA.
 Concerning the marriage in Portland of Miss Blanche Mickey of that city to Harry M. Ritner, the Oregonian has the following note:

On last Sunday afternoon, at an attractive home wedding, Miss Blanche Mickey became the bride of Harry M. Ritner of Pendleton. Rev. Bowen of St. Michael's Episcopal church, read the service. Miss Hattie Mickey, the bride's sister, played the wedding march. Miss Mickey, who carried a bouquet of freesias and pink roses, was charming in a gown of white silk.

The rooms were decorated with acacias, daffodils and freesias to carry out a color scheme of green, yellow and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritner have gone to Denver, Colo., where they will spend a few days before proceeding to their future home at Madrid, Neb.

IMMENSE MASS OF RATTLERS DUG UP

BREWSTER Wash., March 1.—While blasting on the Brewster-Bridgeport wagon road a large moving, writhing mass was uncovered and upon closer inspection proved to be a bunch of tangled rattlesnakes of all sizes, the entire mass as large as a water barrel. They were soon exterminated.

FOR BURNING ECZEMA

Apply Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid—Easy to Use—Does Not Stain

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any drugstore for 35c, or $1.00 for large size, get a bottle of Zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

PORTLAND TO HOUSE THREE CONVENTIONS

The two weeks beginning June 13 and ending June 26 will be made notable by the coming to Portland of three great national conventions—the meeting of the Kiwanis Clubs of America, the national convention of the Traveling Men's Protective Association and the Forty-Sixth Annual Session of the Imperial Council of the Myrtle Shrine. The first two will be attended by ordinary crowds, but the Shrine's expect the largest assembly that has ever visited the Pacific coast. Caravans are already booked from each of the 145 American cities where Shrine Temples exist, many will come from the Temples of Canada, and yet others from far off Honolulu and the Canal Zone.
