OCCUPY NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schiller have moved to their new residence at the top of Jefferson street, recently completed by Dr. D. B. Hill and will be at home soon to friends.

MARRIAGE QUIETLY SOLEMNIZED

At a 7 o'clock service last evening Miss Sibyl Maxine Gilliland became the bride of Ferdinand G. Breeding at the home of the groom's brother, Helwig Breeding, 15 Ann street, in the presence of the immediate members of the families. The bride was charmingly attired in blue charmeuse and carried a bouquet of baby rose buds, violets and maiden hair ferns. The ceremony was read by Rev. A. Blasberg of the Lutheran church. The bride was attended by Mrs. Helwig Breeding, who wore a dark blue gown of Georgette. The groom was attended by his brother, Helwig Breeding. Both young people are members of well-known Umatilla pioneer families, Mrs. Breeding being the daughter of Frank Gilliland, a well known sheepman of Butler creek, and a niece of the former Judge Tom Gilliland, now of Portland. Mr. Breeding is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Breeding, of 1509 East Court street, the former a retired farmer.

Following the ceremony a dainty supper was served. The young couple will be at home to their many friends in a fortnight at 718 Marie street, where an attractive bungalow is being completed for them.

LEAGUE ENTERTAINS

Young people of the Baptist church were entertained in a delightful way last evening by the Epworth League of the Methodist church. A merry evening was spent by a party of about fifty. Entertainment arranged by Miss Caldwell and C. S. Cramer preceded a light supper.

The entertainment was one of a series which are being put on by the young people of the church in order to interest more of the high and grade school students in the young people's branch of the church.

JEWEL CLUB TO MEET

Jewel club members are anticipating a meeting tomorrow when they will enjoy an evening of dancing at Eagle-Woodman hall.

RESEARCH CLUB ENTERTAINED

"Civic Day" proved delightfully interesting to Research club members who gathered yesterday at the home of the Methodist church. A merry evening was spent by a party of about fifty. Entertainment arranged by Mrs. J. T. Richardson's paper on "Making Pendleton Beautiful" was a splendid feature. It gave visions of an ideal Pendleton, and in a discussion following the paper club members were unanimously in favor of making improvements, the main one, however, being the proposed course in playgrounds. Mrs. T. H. Rembold sang two beautiful vocal solos and Miss Grace Oliver and Miss Lois Gornall played several instrumental numbers.

Two late arrivals in the club, little Mrs. Mary Isabelle Hill and Gordon Jacob Benson were each presented with a gift from the club by the president, Mrs. Clarence Edmunds.

Besides eighteen club members there were the following guests present: Mrs. F. P. Austin, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. A. W. Husk, Mrs. J. F. Beck, Mrs. R. E. Gornall, Miss Oliver and Miss Gornall.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses with Mrs. Marsh assisting.

MRS. WELCH IN PORTLAND

Mrs. James Welch is enjoying a visit with friends and relatives in Portland. She expects to be away a fortnight.

MRS. BERKELEY HEADS CLUB

Mrs. Norborne Berkeley was yesterday elected president of the Current Literature Club for the year 1920-21. Other officers chosen at the annual business meeting of the organization were: Vice president, Mrs. J. C. Snow; secretary, Miss Beth Smith; treasurer, Miss Helen Johns. The study of the club for the year will be modern literature. The program on China will occupy the calendar until the close of the present club season in April.

LEAVES FOR SALEM

Mrs. Allan Eynon left last night for Salem for a visit with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. William Blakely returned last night after a four months' visit in California. They visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. G. M. Lester, and were at Long Beach, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Santa Barbara, besides enjoying motor trips to various parts of California. Before returning to Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Blakely visited in Astoria at the home of their granddaughter, Mrs. Merie Chessman.

CLUB "ANNUAL" INQUIE

From the American Indian girl to the "ultra-modern" woman, members of the Thursday afternoon club yesterday, representing periods of American history enjoyed the club "annual" which culminates a year's study of the United States.

For a basket luncheon the fantastic party assembled about a patriotically decked table in the library club room at 1:30 o'clock and the meal interspersed with anecdotes and tales was followed by afternoon hours of merry-making touched by the music of old and favorite songs, some gay melodies and others plaintive in their wealth of memories.

Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt played "Listen to the Mocking Bird" and "Warblings at Eve"; Mrs. E. L. Burroughs sang "An Old Fashioned Town" and "Last Night"; Mrs. G. W. Phelps and Mrs. M. O. Bennett played two delightful duets, "Home in the South" and "La Paloma"; and Mrs. Harold Warner sang "Forgotten."

Early day reminiscences were told by Mrs. Mary Lane and Mrs. Lane was trophy winner in a contest on historical events in the United States. Varied and charming were the costumes many of them real heirlooms or wedding attire unpacked from their trunks and lavender for the event. Mrs. A. J. Owen appeared again in her bridal gown, and the immense sleeves of Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt's costime of 1896 were objects of wonderment while Mrs. William Lowell, as he ultra-modern, domed a "bobbed" coiffure, tortoise rimmed glasses, trousers and a smock of brilliant yellow, and this ultra modern woman offered cigarettes to the demure maid of times which were actually called Revolutionary days.

Mrs. Westbrook Dickson, Mrs. H. J. Warner, Mrs. M. O. Bennett and Mrs. William Lowell formed the committee in charge of the unique affair. A miniature statue of liberty centered the banquet table and on each chair was a great bow of red, white and blue. Periods and their representatives were Mrs. A. L. Schaffer, Indiana; Mrs. S. A. Lowell and Mrs. Mary Kane, Florida; Mrs. H. J. Warner, Civil War; Mrs. E. T. Wade, Mrs. E. E. Royden, Mrs. S. P. Sturgis, Colonial; Mrs. Dickson, 1840; Mrs. G. W. Phelps, 1838; Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Owen, 1830; Mrs. Pruitt, 1896; Mrs. D. D. Roberts, 1900; Mrs. E. S. Burroughs, 1890; Mrs. Beth Smith, 1800; and Mrs. Lowell, Ultra-modern.

DeLuxe

THE BEDSPRING LUXURIOUS

No matter what kind of a Bedspring you now have—no matter how much you paid for it—you will find that "DeLuxe" the bedspring luxurious, will give you more soothing, delightful, healthful repose than you ever knew before.

The secret of superlative comfort in the bedspring "DeLuxe" is the crossed helical springs which connect the tops of the coils—making the whole top flexible—giving each coil freedom of action.

"DeLuxe" conforms to the contours of the body—does not sag like a hammock—does not pitch to the center or to the side of the heavier weight when occupied by two persons.

"DeLuxe" has revolutionized coil bedspring construction. It will last a lifetime.
